Sewanee Grand Marshals Announced

Sewanee's Fourth of July Parade Committee is proud to announce that John and Bonnie Green are the Grand Marshals for 2019.

John and Bonnie were both born at the old Emerald Hodgson Hospital.

Bonnie's parents left the Mountain for Chicago, where she was raised until eighth grade. She returned to Sewanee to attend eighth grade and high school. The couple met at Franklin County High School and were married in 1958, their senior year. They moved to Chicago but returned to Sewanee after a year. John was the produce/delivery man at the University Supply Store until 1969. He was the first Little League coach in Sewanee. Bonnie worked at Emerald Hodgson Hospital in medical records before taking a position with the College Board.

In 1969, the College Board moved from Sewanee to Atlanta, and John and Bonnie followed them there. John worked at Overnite Transportation until his retirement in 1997. Bonnie worked with the College Board until her retirement in 1995.

The couple loves to travel, especially to sporting events of their children and now grandchildren, and did so extensively for three years before returning to live in Sewanee in 2000.

Bonnie and John pride themselves on their volunteer work. Bonnie worked on the opening show of the 1994 Super Bowl in Atlanta, when the Dallas Cowboys defeated the Buffalo Bills. She was offered a paid position with the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta but chose to volunteer instead. She worked the opening and closing ceremonies in the costume department and still gets chill bumps when describing the experience. She is currently the treasurer at the Sewanee Senior Center and Golden Heights Apartments in Winchester. She also volunteers with Almost Home in Winchester. John is the go-to person if you need help with anything. They are both members of New Beginnings Church in Monteagle.

The Greens have attended every Independence Day celebration in Sewanee from its inception 34 years ago, except for one summer they spent in Alaska. They were in charge of decorating the leaseholders' float for 15 years. Bonnie has held several volunteer positions with the Fourth of July Committee over the years.

We are honored to have them as the 2019 Grand Marshals. Please join us on Thursday, July 4, to celebrate Bonnie and John, two of Sewanee's finest! Go to page 13 for more Fourth of July information.

Monteagle Fire Hall Design Gets the Green Light

by Leslie Lytle, Messenger Staff Writer

"We're really excited," said Monteagle Fire Chief Mike Holmes. "We've been in a rented building almost three years."

At a special called meeting June 18, the Monteagle Regional Planning Committee approved the site plan for the new fire hall. Discussion stalled last February when the design under consideration was downsized to conform to the budget. The downsized plan wouldn't accommodate the department's equipment.

The site plan, prepared by American Engineering Solutions (AES), calls for a 6,000 square foot metal building with three bays, an office, kitchen, training room, and men's and women's bathrooms with showers. AES constructed the Whitwell fire hall and offers both design and building services, resulting in a cost savings for the city, with the total bill for design and construction coming in under budget at $365,200.

Slated for construction on the site of the former fire hall, which was demolished, the building will sit back further from the College Street entrance than the former facility. The 35-foot setback was needed to give the department space to pull out the trucks for washing and other maintenance. The longest truck is 31 feet, 6 inches.

Planning Committee Chair Carter Underhill asked for the special called meeting so the site plan could be approved and forwarded to the Monteagle City Council for final approval at the June 24 meeting. Monteagle building inspector Earl Geary reviewed the plan and found it in compliance with all city codes and building requirements.

"Construction is expected to begin in as soon as two weeks," said Kenneth Gipson, Monteagle alderman and planning committee alternate.

The rented building currently occupied by the fire department costs the city $1,100 each month. The projected completion date of the new fire hall is early November.

Friday Nights in the Park

The Sewanee Business Alliance (SBA) is hosting a series of free concerts in downtown Sewanee.

Kicking off the event on Friday, June 21, is The Secret Commonwealth. The Secret Commonwealth has been Middle Tennessee's most enduringly popular Celtic band since their inception in 1993. Influenced by The Pogues, The Chieftains, and traditional Irish pub bands, The Secret Commonwealth's music mixes original material with traditional music and many styles of American and European folk.

The rest of the lineup for Friday Nights in the Park is: VOLK on June 28; Jess Goggans Band on July 12; and Towson Engsborg on July 19.

University Avenue will be closed at 6 p.m. each of these nights for the annual outdoor family event, with food and drink from local vendors available for purchase. The entertainers play from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. in the Angel Park Pavilion.

The events are free and open to the public. Bring a blanket or a chair and enjoy the show in downtown Sewanee. Rain location is the American Legion Hall.

Music City Roots at MSSA

The Monteagle Sunday School Assembly will host Music City Roots, a Franklin, Tenn.-based radio show in a rare out-of-Nashville performance. Nashville's beloved Americana music variety show and national TV/radio broadcast brings outstanding performance and old-time radio ambience to Monteagle for a fourth straight year.

The event is today (Friday), June 21. Admission is free. The doors of the Assembly's historic auditorium will open at 6 p.m., and the show will start at 7 p.m. Those wishing to attend should stop by the front gate at the Assembly to get a free four-hour grounds pass.

Join guest host Greg Hall, announcer Keith Bilbrey, and on-site journalist Craig Havighurst, all who will keep the night crackling and informative as you enjoy a sampling of the finest roots and regional music being made today.

Now partnered with WMOT/Roots Radio out of Middle Tennessee State, the show is a live showcase

Talent Abounds at Locals

by Bailey Basham, Messenger Staff Writer

The summer season at Locals in Sewanee is well underway, providing a space for artists and craftsmen from the Mountain area to display and sell their work.

Locals will exhibit a curated collection of career bests through Saturday, Aug. 3.

Ashley Charlton, gallery manager, has been with Locals since May of 2014. She said the gallery provides an opportunity for creators from the area to share their work.

"This area specifically has a whole lot of artists that are involved with these age-old traditions, such as our ceramicists, sculptors, our woodworkers—all of those are centered around Southern craft tradition. This area, unlike some others, has an exceptional group of diverse styles, materials, in terms of our artists. We are very lucky to have such an array — copper, wood, stone, paper, wax, and all these different mediums. There is too much talent here not to have some place to exhibit," she said.

This season's featured artist is Larry Todd Wilson, who has been sculpting and painting for more than 20 years.

Wilson said his process of creating involves leaning into the natural curiosity of the artist's mind,

REMEMBERING RAMSEUR

To the Editor:

It was with great sadness that I read of Ruth Ramseur's death. I am now an occasional Sewanee resident but nine of the most formative years for my family were spent in Sewanee. My oldest two sons had the benefit of attending Sewanee Elementary. I thoroughly enjoyed teaching at SES.

The year I entered the faculty and staff of SES, Ruth Ramseur's life became a little easier because I took her teaching position. For the first time in years she was a full-time principal. She had been a teaching principal for many years prior. Ruth always worked tirelessly to make SES the best teaching and learning facility possible for such a diverse community.

The best resources Ruth had were her patience and thoughtfulness. She also hired teachers she knew would do what was best for the students. That is how Ruth thought.

"What is best for our students?"

Thank you, Ruth, for showing so many the way to a productive future. Thank you for supporting the many people who had the privilege of working for and with you.

Karen Pelfrey Smith, Sewanee

JUNIOR APPALACHIAN MUSICIANS AFFILIATION

To the Editor:

Several years ago a bluegrass/Americana-playing high school teacher wanted to start a jam session. She wanted to connect some of her music-minded students with some of the more seasoned musicians in the Grundy County area. A mixture of musicians gathered, with beginners being welcomed. Some high school students came and then graduated; the teacher moved out of state but the jam session has continued. The music is a mixture of Appalachian oldtime, square dance fiddle tunes, traditional country, bluegrass, Gospel with some folk and Americana thrown in as well. There aren't enough musicians of any one genre to get too exclusive in this rural area, so it's a mix.

Besides music, a common theme has been a quest to reach young people in Grundy County to let them know homemade music is alive and kicking and that they can participate. The jam session is sponsored by the Grundy Area Arts Council. The Grundy Area Arts Council and the jam session players have joined forces with Junior Appalachian Musicians and, with grants from Southarts and the South Cumberland Community Fund, plan to start an after school program for fourth to eighth graders in two of the local elementary schools in Grundy County. We are in need of instruments. If you have a fiddle, guitar or a banjo just sitting, gathering dust and in your way we would gladly accept donations. Grundy Area Arts Council also offers memberships and accepts monetary donations. For more info email <grundyjambkids@gmail.com>

Town of Monteagle 2018 Water Quality Report

Is my drinking water safe?

Yes, our water meets all of EPA’s health standards. We have conducted numerous tests for over 80 regulated contaminants that may be in drinking water. As you will see in the chart below, we detected 12 of these contaminants and found all 12 to be at safe levels.

What is the source of my water?

Your water comes from Laurel Lake. Our goal is to protect our water from contaminants and we are working with the State to determine the vulnerability of our water source to potential contamination. The Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation (TDEC) has prepared a Source Water Assessment Program (SWAP) Report for the untreated water sources serving this water system. The SWAP Report assesses the susceptibility of untreated water sources to potential contamination. To ensure safe drinking water, all public water systems treat and routinely test their water. Water sources have been rated as reasonably susceptible, moderately susceptible or slightly susceptible based on geologic factors and human activities in the vicinity of the water source. The Town of Monteagle’s source rated as slightly susceptible to potential contamination. An explanation of the Tennessee Source Water Assessment Program, the Source Water Assessment summaries, susceptibility scorings and the overall TDEC report to the EPA can be viewed online at <https://www.tn.gov/environment/article/wr-wq-source-water-assessment> or you may contact the water system to obtain copies of specific assessments.

Why are there contaminants in my water?

Drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. The presence of contaminants does not necessarily indicate that water poses a health risk. More information about contaminants and potential health effects can be obtained by calling the Environmental Protection Agency’s Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

Other Information

The sources of drinking water (both tap water and bottled water) include rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, reservoirs, springs, and wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally-occurring minerals and in some cases, radioactive material, and can pick up substances resulting from the presence of animals or from human activity.

Contaminants that may be present in source water:

- Microbial contaminants, such as viruses and bacteria, which may come from sewage treatment plants, septic systems, agricultural livestock operations, and wildlife.
- Inorganic contaminants such as salts and metals, which can be naturally-occurring or result from urban stormwater runoff, industrial, or domestic wastewater discharges, oil and gas production, mining, or farming.
- Pesticides and herbicides, which may come from a variety of sources such as agriculture, urban stormwater runoff, and residential uses.
- Organic chemical contaminants, including synthetic and volatile organic chemicals, which are by-products of industrial processes and petroleum production, and can also come from gas stations, urban storm water runoff, and septic systems.
- Radioactive contaminants. Which can be naturally-occurring or be the result of oil and gas production and mining activities.

Is our water system meeting other rules that govern our operations?

In order to ensure that tap water is safe to drink, the EPA and the Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation prescribe regulations which limit the amount of certain contaminants in water provided by public water systems. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) regulations establish limits on contaminants in bottled water which must provide the same protection for public health.

How can I get involved?

The Monteagle City Council usually meets at 6:00 p.m. on the last Tuesday of each month in the conference room at city hall, 16 Dixie Lee Avenue. Please feel free to participate in these meetings.

Other Information

Due to all water containing dissolved contaminants, occasionally your water may exhibit slight discoloration. We strive to maintain the standards to prevent this. We at the Town of Monteagle work around the clock to provide top quality water to every tap. We ask that all our customers help us protect our water sources, which are the heart of our community, our way of life and our children’s future.

DO I NEED TO TAKE SPECIAL PRECAUTIONS?

Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population. Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have under-gone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly, and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about their drinking water, food preparation, personal hygiene, and precautions in handling infants and pets from their health care providers. EPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbiological contaminants are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

Lead in Drinking Water

If present, elevated levels of lead can cause serious health problems, especially for pregnant women and young children. Lead in drinking water is primarily from materials and components associated with service lines and home plumbing. Monteagle utility is responsible for providing high quality drinking water, but cannot control the variety of materials used in plumbing components. When your water has been sitting for several hours, you can minimize the potential for lead exposure by flushing your tap for 30 seconds to 2 minutes before using water for drinking or cooking. If you are concerned about lead in your water, you may wish to have your water tested. Information on lead in drinking water, testing methods, and steps you can take to minimize exposure is available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline or at <http://www.epa.gov/lead/protect-your-family%23water%23water>

Water System Security

Following the events of September 2001, we realize that our customers are concerned about the security of their drinking water. We urge the public to report any suspicious activities at any utility facilities, including treatment plants, pumping stations, tanks, fire hydrants, etc. to 924-2265.

Think before you flush!

Flushing unused or expired medicines can be harmful to your drinking water. Properly disposing of unused or expired medications helps protect you and the environment. Keep medications out of Tennessee’s waterways by disposing in one of our permanent pharmaceutical take back bins. There are nearly 100 take back bins located across the state, to find a convenient location please visit: <https://www.tn.gov/environment/article/sp-unwanted-pharmaceuticals> For more information about your drinking water, please call the Monteagle Water Plant at 924-2708. Water Quality Data

- What does this chart mean?
- MCLG - Maximum Contaminant Level Goal, or the level of a contaminant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLGs allow for a margin of safety.
 - MCL - Maximum Contaminant Level, or the highest level of a contaminant that is allowed in drinking water. MCLs are set as close to the MCLGs as feasible using the best available treatment technology.
 - AL - Action Level, or the concentration of a contaminant which, when exceeded, triggers treatment or other requirements which a water system must follow.
 - Parts per million (ppm) or Milligrams per liter (mg/l) – explained as a relation to time and money as one part per million corresponds to one minute in two years or a single penny in $10,000.
 - Parts per billion (ppb) or Micrograms per liter — explained as a relation to time and money as one part per billion corresponds to one minute in 2,000 years, or a single penny in $10,000,000.
 - Nephelometric Turbidity Unit (NTU) — nephelometric turbidity unit is a measure of the clarity of water. Turbidity in excess of 5 NTU is just noticeable to the average person.
 - RTCR– Revised Total Coliform Rule. This rule went into effect on April 1, 2016 and replaces the MCL for total coliform with a Treatment Technique Trigger for a system assessment.
 - TT - Treatment Technique, or a required process intended to reduce the level of a contaminant in drinking water.
 - MRDL – Maximum Residual Disinfectant Level, means a level of a disinfectant added for water treatment that may not be exceeded at the customers tap without a unacceptable possibility of adverse health effects.
 - MRDLG – Maximum Residual Disinfectant Level Goal, the level of a disinfectant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MRDLGs allow for a margin of safety.
 - Picocuries per liter (pCi/l)—picocuries per liter is a measure of radioactivity in water

Charles Broad, executive chef and managing owner of Pearl's.

Pearl's Fine Dining Under New Ownership

by Bailey Basham, Messenger Staff Writer

Charles Broad took over as executive chef and managing owner of Pearl's Fine Dining after almost 20 years in the business. A Mississippi native, Broad has been on the Mountain for nearly two years. He grew up eating his mom's southern, Cajun dishes, and said her cooking created a love of food for him.

"I've always loved being in the kitchen. I have had a stutter all my life, and back in the kitchen, I do not have to talk often. I can talk through my food," Broad said. "There are a lot of Mississippi and New Orleans influences in my food, but I really cook with one thing in mind—the Southern mantra of 'cook everything with love.'"

Broad has been serving from the Pearl's menu since taking over as executive chef and managing owner, but he said he has hopes of offering a new menu within the month—one that is inspired by his roots and blends Cajun, Creole, European and Southern flavors.

"I had to learn the foundations of different cuisines before I could start creating things on my own. You have to learn where food has been so you know where you might go next," Broad said. "We're also working on getting wine, liquor and beer permits, and eventually, we want to build a Speakeasy-style lounge and bar."

Broad said nearly everything will be either locally sourced or made in-house, and he has recruited some friends from the area to make this possible. He is sourcing his ingredients from vendors at the South Cumberland Farmers' Market and from Wildberry Farms in Decherd.

"We're working with Hannah at Wildberry Farms to get arugula, San Marzano tomatoes, garlic shoots and popcorn shoots," he said.

Kyle Larsen will be doing all the bread baking at Pearl's using yeast local to the area on Jump Off Road. Larsen, who previously dabbled home brewing beers, said bread making is like the inverse of brewing. You just switch from fermentation to baking.

"We're work shopping some of the menu items as we roll everything out. I've made some French bread, a big country-style sourdough, Kaiser rolls, beignets," Larsen said. "Bread making just brings me back to the way that people have eaten for so long."

Pearl's is located at 15344 Sewanee Hwy., Sewanee. Hours are Wednesday and Thursday, 5–9 p.m., and Friday–Saturday, 5–10 p.m. Reservations are recommended. For more information or to make reservations, call (931) 463-2222 or visit <www.pearlsdining.com>.

"My process is a flow activity, with minimal mind chatter and a great deal of physicality and curiosity. I paint with my hands, not brushes. For sculpture, the method is direct carving with hammers, chisels, rifflers and rasps," he said. "My goal is to show engaging, layered color in mixed-media paintings and show elegant, sculpted forms in alabaster."

Storyteller Gulley and Bluebird Songwriters Highlight MSSA Schedule

The Monteagle Sunday School Assembly in Monteagle continues its 137th consecutive summer season of enrichment with an interdenominational worship service at 11 a.m. in the Assembly's Warren Chapel. The eight-week season will continue through Sunday, Aug. 4, featuring numerous visiting lecturers who will present morning and evening programs in Warren Chapel that are open free of charge to the public; unless otherwise noted, morning lectures begin at 10:45 a.m. and evening lectures at 8:15 p.m. Anyone interested in a full schedule of the Monteagle Assembly's 2019 program is welcome to pick one up at the Assembly Office (tel. 931-924-2286), or to peruse the schedule on the Assembly's website at <www.mssa1882.org>.

Emmy Award-winning Philip Gulley joins the Assembly for several lectures this week on faith in modern life. Gulley is perhaps best known for his prolific writing career, having published 22 books, including "I Love You, Miss Huddleston," for which he was a semi-finalist for the James Thurber Prize for American Humor. His writings have attracted the attention of, among others, Nobel Laureate Archbishop Desmond Tutu, who said of his book "The Evolution of Faith," "In our ever-changing world, Gulley's book is much needed. An important book for any person of faith." Join him for morning Chapel lectures on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, as well as a storytelling session Tuesday, June 25, at 3:30 p.m. and an informal discussion Wednesday at 3:30 p.m., both in the Writer's Grove.

Friday, June 28, The Bluebird Originals Singer-Songwriter Four-some will perform at the Assembly Auditorium at 8 p.m. Artists Tony Arata, Jellyroll Johnson, J. Fred Knobloch, and Thom Schuyler have among them 30 years of American musical history and more than 100 million records sold during their careers as Nashville songwriters. Their songs have been recorded by Garth Brooks, Faith Hill, Kenny Rogers, George Strait, Trisha Yearwood, Ray Charles, Etta James, and dozens of others.

If the outdoors are more your speed, make sure you come to John Hickman and Jeffrey Reynolds' Friday morning lecture, "Caves of South Cumberland." Hickman has been exploring caves in Monteagle since the early 1980s; he serves on the board of the Southeastern Cave Conservancy, the largest cave-specific land trust in the United States. Recently retired physician Reynolds has been "vertical caving" since the 1980s, with a particular passion for attempting to do justice to the caves he loves through his photography. He will show some of those spectacular photos during this morning lecture.

Additional events for the third week of the Monteagle Assembly's 2019 season include the following:

Sunday, June 23, 4 p.m., Warren Chapel—"Update on the Mountain Goat Trail: Progress & Plans," with Nate Wilson, MGT Board President.

Monday, June 24, 10:45 a.m., Warren Chapel—"Beatrice Ferrand's Garden at Bellefield," with Anne Cleves Symmes.

Monday, June 24, 1-4:30 p.m., Pulliam Center—"A Little Me Time" women's wellness workshop, with Liz Norell.

Thursday, June 27, 2:30 p.m., Maney MacLeod Art Pavilion—Painting demonstration/conversation with Rev. John Armistead.

SMS Retreats and Workshops Continue

St. Mary's Sewanee: The Ayres Center for Spiritual Development will host various workshops this summer.

Spiritual Direction and Accompaniment will be held from Friday, June 28 to Sunday, June 30. The workshop is being offered in conjunction with the Metagem Institute and is for anyone interested in the practice of spiritual direction or spiritual accompaniment. For those new to the practice, the conference includes an element of "taste and see" with topics such as: "What is Spiritual Direction/Accompaniment?" and "How do I discern a call to spiritual direction?"

A one-day workshop called Forest Bathing with Painting Response is scheduled for Saturday, July 13. Attendees will be invited to listen to the voice of the forest, or the voice within you that the forest inspires during a slow, safe, sensory-rich guided walk, known as Forest Bathing. Led by Connie Keetle, this day-long workshop is an invitation to slow down, become fully present in the moment, and have a full sensory experience of the forest. After time in the woods, participants will recollect their experience painting what they observed.

Join naturalist Mary Priestley for a day of exploring the forests areas around St. Mary's Sewanee on Saturday, July 20, to learn about the area's remarkable collection of native plants in Native Plants 101. Participants will acquire tools for identifying and becoming familiar with plants of the local area, including making simple drawings of some plants.

An introduction to centering prayer will be held on Saturday, July 20, and again on Saturday, Aug. 3. In these day-long introductory workshops, participants will learn the method and principles of Centering Prayer, a form of Christian silent meditation where one lets go of thoughts during periods of prayer typically lasting 20 minutes.

The Eight-Day Centering Prayer Workshops will be Aug. 4-11. This long-form retreat, led by Tom Ward, is an opportunity for practitioners of Centering Prayer to deepen their contemplative journey in the contemporary world.

Make A Difference Day

Since 2017, South Cumberland Community Fund has partnered with the eight elementary schools on the Plateau to sponsor Make A Difference service day in March. This year, at the request of school leadership, Make A Difference Day has been moved to July so that families and community members can assist in preparing the schools for the start of the academic year.

Local residents are asked to mark their calendars for Saturday, July 20, to participate in this half-day, Plateau-wide project. Schools will determine the projects most needed. Past projects included garden clean-up and planting, mural painting, library organization, school painting, playground clean-up, and more. Holding Make A Difference Day in July will make it possible to include additional activities to ready schools for the start of the school year.

The eight participating schools include Coalmont, Monteagle, North, Palmer, Pelham, Sewanee, Swiss Memorial, and Tracy City elementary schools. Volunteers from the community are needed in both leadership and supporting roles to work with the school committees in planning the day. To volunteer, contact AmeriCorps VISTA Lucas Crossland at <scfvista@gmail.com>.

New Composition at Carillon Concert

This Week’s Carillon Concert at 1:30 p.m., Sunday, June 23, will include a new composition written for the International Carillon Contest Queen Fabiola to be held in Mechelen, Belgium in July. “Fairytale on the name Fabiola” is one of the required pieces for the contestants. This fantasy honors the late Queen Fabiola of Belgium (1928-2014) who authored a set of fairy tales published in the 1950’s.

The composition’s theme is derived from her name: F (key of F and first melody note), A (second note of theme), B (B flat in Flemish), G (sol in the solfege system), and D (la in the key of F). With a bit of musical license, the notes of the theme become F, A, B-flat, A, G, D, A. The “fairy tale” will be the construction of the listener’s imagination as the composition winds through several dramatic musical presentations.

The performer will be the Rev. Raymond Gotko, retired Episcopal priest, a former tenured professor at the University of Georgia and professional musician. He is the current carillonneur at the University of the South, where he teaches carillon and English Change-ringing.

The concert begins at 1:30 p.m. as a prelude to the Sewanee Summer Music Festival orchestra concerts. There is seating between All Saints’ Chapel and McClurg Dining Hall for those who wish to see the performance via closed circuit TV.

LOOKS AT BOOKS

by Pat Wiser for Friends of duPont Library

Stories and Songs for Summer Reading

"Songs of America: Patriotism, Protest, and the Music that Made a Nation" will surely put us in the mood for our upcoming community celebration of Peace, Love and Fireworks. During back-yard conversations in their Nashville neighborhood, John Meacham and Tim McGraw came up with the plan for this combination of historian Meacham's stories and country music writer and singer McGraw's insights into the music. Chapter 1, "The Sensations of Freedom," introduces readers to "The Liberty Song," a protest against the 1768 seizure of merchant John Hancock's sloop, The Liberty, which the British charged was smuggling madeira wine to avoid stiff duties. Politician and pamphleteer John Dickinson wrote the lyrics and set them to the tune of the patriotic British "Heart of Oak," a stirring number which now is the official march of the Royal Navy. Soon it was everywhere with a "Boston Post" writer lauding "exquisite harmony Fraught with a noble ardor in the cause of freedom."

Although I haven't finished the book, I skipped to Chapter 7, "Archie Bunker V. The Age of Aquarius," following a conversation with friend Don Shannonhouse who served in Viet Nam in 1969 with the U.S. Army 25th Infantry. From President Nixon's guest spot on the Grand Ole Opry to Elvis Presley's "American Trilogy," the segment is crammed with explication of the music of the Viet Nam era. McGraw details the appeal of "Ballad of the Green Berets" in 1966 and the shift in tone by 1969 to "Fortunate Son," a rock song with the motif of poor men fighting rich men's wars.

This chapter became even more meaningful after talking with Don. Digressing into that troubled time, I'll add that our conversation gave a small measure of strength to my weak understanding of underlying history of a war that most of us watched from a comfortable spot far from the reality of his service. He recommends Bernard Fall's writing about French Colonial Forces' operations in the 1950s, "Street Without Joy," (1961) and "Hell in a Very Small Place: The Siege of Dien Bien Phu." Both foreshadow what American forces would face: a war with no fronts against a mobile enemy. Ironically, Fall, a member of the French Resistance, War II soldier, scholar and war correspondent, was killed in 1967 accompanying U.S. Marines in an operation of the area depicted in "Street Without Joy."

"Songs of America," takes us through other wars, The Great Depression, movements for women's suffrage and civil rights, into the 21st century, concluding with the popularity of "Only in America," written and sung by Tennessee song writer Kix Brooks. The optimistic "We all get a chance/Everybody gets to dance," reverberated through Republican George W. Bush's presidential campaign rallies and stadium crowds celebrating Barack Obama's Democratic presidential nomination. The conclusion: "If we share music, we might shout in anger a little less and sing in unity a bit more. Or, so we can hope."

Interviews with the authors have featured clips of songs from the book. Beginning with 1768's "The Liberty Song," my searches all turned up on YouTube or other sites. We really need a boxed set of CD's: sound track for a book! For fun and reference, this well-documented, thoroughly indexed work will be a good addition to family libraries.

Sewanee elementary School librarian Kathryn Bruce reminds us all to read with children. All SES children have a clever Bingo card with drawings for prizes for completing the reading activities grid. I'll be co-reading teen granddaughter's summer list. Fun!

May we all find time to dive into our summer stacks.

Heitzenrater Steps Down as Head Coach

Announced by Director of Athletics Mark Webb, Sewanee cross country and track and field head coach Jeff Heitzenrater will step down from his role in the Athletic Department to accept a position in the University's Office of Admissions, effective July 1.

For the past two decades, Heitzenrater was a part of the Sewanee cross country and track and field programs where he saw 41 All-Conference selections with the cross country team and 134 with track and field.

"Jeff has coached and mentored countless Sewanee track and cross country athletes," quoted Webb. "His influence is evident when former athletes beat a path to his office when they return to Sewanee. We all remain extremely grateful for his many contributions to the Department of Athletics."

With the cross country program, he has coached 39 All-Region representatives and eight qualify for the National Championship. Additionally, the 2012 Southern Athletic Association Women's Cross Country Coach of the Year has seen 20 men's teams and 19 women's teams named All-Academic by the U.S. Track and Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA).

With the track and field program, he has seen two student-athletes qualify for the NCAA National Championships: Jane Johnson (javelin) in 2005 and 2006 and Sally Warm (high jump) in 2012.

Additionally, he has coached 30 student-athletes to individual conference championships.

Academically, he has seen 14 male teams and 16 female teams named to the All-Academic Track and Field Team by the USTFCCCA.

He has seen three student-athletes, Will Copeland, Jean Anne Babin and Owen LeGrone, selected as Academic All-Americans by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), and seven were honored with an Academic All-District nod.

In 2004, Copeland was chosen as the CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year after earning two First Team Academic All-America selections and three selections overall.

After spending his first seven years on the Domain in the Office of Admissions, he will begin his 29th year with The University of the South this fall. He will continue to serve the athletic department as a liaison for the Office of Admissions.

A national search for a new head coach will begin immediately.

Hall of Fame Class Announced

The Class of 2019 of the Sewanee Athletics Hall of Fame has been announced. Five individuals and two teams make up the class, which will be inducted as a part of Homecoming Weekend, Nov. 2-3.

The committee will introduce George Barker C'26, Gabriela Carvalho C'08, Bill Huyck, Mike Knickelbine C'68 and Katy Morrissey C'90, in addition to the 1993 Men's Tennis Team and the 1997 Men's Basketball Team.

George Barker, C'26—Men's Basketball, Football, Men's Golf. Born in Falling Water, Tenn. north of metro Chattanooga in 1901, Barker attended the University of the South in the fall of 1922 thanks to the influence of Alexander Guerry. He earned two varsity letters each with the men's basketball and the men's golf team in 1924 and 1925. With the football team, he earned three varsity letters in 1923-25 as a quarterback. He was named team captain of the team in 1925, where he also won the Porter Cup, which was given to the university's outstanding athlete.

He was a member of the 1924 team that earned the Thanksgiving Day win over Vanderbilt, defeating the Commodores, 16-0. After losing four straight games without scoring a point, the Tigers went on to win the final three games, outscoring opponents, 47-0.

After graduation, he went back to his high school alma mater, The Baylor School in Chattanooga to teach. During World War II, Barker served in Hawaii in the Army.

After serving his country, Barker returned to the Domain and worked in the treasurer's office until his retirement in 1966.

Because of his athletic achievements in the State of Tennessee, Barker, also known as "Zaney", was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame in 1983.

He passed away on April 23, 1986 in Sewanee.

Gabriela Carvalho, C'08—Women's Tennis. Carvalho, a four-time NCAA All-American, holds the sixth-most wins in Sewanee program history in singles play with 71. She was a member of the 2007 program that was inducted into the Sewanee Athletics Hall of Fame in 2017 that finished in third place at the NCAA Championships, the highest finish ever for the program and in Sewanee Athletics history.

Posting a 6-4 record at the NCAA Singles Championships, she was a back-to-back quarterfinalist in 2006 and 2007. Following her sophomore season, she finished fourth in the national singles rankings, the highest mark of her career.

A four-time All-Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference (SCAC) selection, she was named the Player of the Year in the conference her senior season.

Thanks to her success, the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) named her the National Senior Player of the Year in 2008.

Bill Huyck, Athletic Director (1984-1995)—Huyck served as Sewanee's Director of Athletics for 12 years. In his time on the Domain, he was instrumental in the creation of the Robert Dobbs Fowler Athletic Center.

He was also influential in a conference change, as Sewanee joined the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference (SCAC) for both men's and women's sports for the 1991-92 season.

Huyck served as the head coach of the men's cross country team and the men's track and field team along with his many duties as Athletic Director.

During his tenure, the Athletic Department earned 17 conference championships for Sewanee Athletics with the College Athletic Conference (CAC), the Women's Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) and the SCAC.

Graduating from Carleton College in 1953, Huyck was inducted into the Minnesota Track & Field Hall of Fame in 2010.

Mike Knickelbine, C'68—Football. Knickelbine was a two-time First Team All-College Athletic Conference (CAC) selection in 1966 and 1967, where he was the "heart and soul" of those teams, especially for his blocking in Coach Shirley Majors' single wing offense. During his junior season, he was named an All-Conference selection at both offensive end and defensive end. Named team captain for the 1967 season, he was a part of 20 wins during his career, including an 8-1 record in 1964 and a 7-1 record in 1965. Off campus, he was a captain of the Sewanee Volunteer Fire Department.

Katy Morrissey, C'90—Women's Tennis. Morrissey was a two-time All-American in doubles play in 1989 and 1990 by the Intercollegiate Tennis Coaches Association (now called the Intercollegiate Tennis Association). She has totaled 57 career doubles wins.

Morrissey helped lead the Tigers to its first two NCAA Tournament appearances in 1989 and 1990. The Tigers finished as a quarterfinalist in 1989 and fourth place in 1990.

She joins her doubles partner Ellen Gray-Maybank (Hogan), who was inducted into the Sewanee Athletics Hall of Fame in 2007. The duo finished the 1989 season ranked eighth in the country and fifth at the conclusion of the 1990 campaign.

1993 Men's Tennis Team—The 1993 men's tennis team won its first Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference (SCAC) Championship under head coach John Shackelford after finishing as a tournament finalist in the inaugural year of the championship. The team finished the campaign with a 19-6 record, the second-most at the time behind the 24 wins by the 1988 team, also inducted into the Hall in 2011.

The Tigers, in San Antonio, Texas, defeated the host, Trinity University, 5-4, to claim their first conference tournament championship. With the win, the program earned its third trip to the NCAA Tournament after its last appearance in 1989.

That season, three players, Brian Morrow, Lee Hamilton and Stephen Jackson were named to the All-Conference Singles Team. In doubles, the Tigers swept the All-Conference awards, taking all three flights. K.C. Horne and Jackson won at No. 1, as the duo went on to each become an All-American by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA).

Morrow and Matthew Harris won the No. 2. Jay Jones and Lanny Lewis took home All-Conference honors at the No. 3 flight.

On a national level, Horne was also named the Rookie of the Year by the ITA.

Finishing ninth in the NCAA Championships, the SCAC listed the moment at the 10th-best moment of the conference's Top-20 Moments in 2011. This was in conjunction with the league's 20th anniversary.

1997 Men's Basketball Team—Under head coach Joe Thoni, the 1997 men's basketball team recorded a 19-7 record en route to the team's first conference title in the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference (SCAC) and the program's fifth conference championship.

The program earned its first conference title since the team won back-to-back in 1975 and 1976.

From a stretch from Jan. 10 to Feb. 9, the Tigers won eight of 10 conference games as they finished with an 11-3 mark in league play, three games ahead of Southwestern University (Texas), to win the conference title.

The program earned the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament, as the team finished in the second round.

Hosting the first two rounds in Juhan Gymnasium, the Tigers defeated Rust College (Miss.), 68-61, in the opening round on March 6 to earn the program's first NCAA Tournament win.

Ryan Harrigan led the conference in scoring that season with 488 points, averaging 18.8 points per contest. Additionally, he led the league in field goals made (197) and field goal percentage (61.6).

Peter Jones took the top honors in the SCAC in assists with 128, posting 4.9 per game, while Turner Emery drained 70 shots from beyond the arc.

The Tigers led the way in three-point field goals, making 193 that season, averaging 7.42 per game.

Harrigan, who was named Player of the Year in the league, and Emery were both selected as First Team All-Conference. Mike Eddy was a Second Team recipient, while head coach Thoni was named the SCAC Coach of the Year.

On a national level, Harrigan was named as a Fourth Team All-American by DIH News, while Emery was named an Honorable Mention.

Parade Entries

The Fourth of July Parade Committee has been working for months on the biggest, best, most arms-open-wide parade Sewanee has ever seen. There will be fire engines, police cars, the grand marshal (soon to be announced), candy galore, and this year they want you and your organization to be recognized and cheered on in the Peace, Love, and Fireworks parade.

Sewanee's Fourth of July Parade celebrates America and its origins at a time when the ideals of freedom and good citizenship were agreed upon by all. The parade is an event where everyone feels welcome and respected—where spectators and participants alike feel proud of our town for its creativity, diversity, and mutual respect.

The committee wants you to know there are so many creative ways to strut your stuff up University Avenue, and they range from traditional and elaborate to simple, elegant, memorable, and bizarre. Anything with wheels is good: flatbeds, cars, convertibles, golf carts, wagons, wheelbarrows, bikes, big wheels, scooters; but on foot (or hooves) could be even better, especially if you've got a colorful banner (and/or signs, big hats, confetti, giant pinwheels) declaring who you are and what you do for this diverse community. The parade committee will do all it can to help you find materials and get you organized on the big day.

The parade begins at 2 p.m., Thursday, July 4, with line-up on Lake O'Donnell Road starting at noon and ending at 1 p.m. This is when and where the judging will be: trophies for best float, best decorated vehicle, and best horse; and blue ribbons for best decorated bicycle, best banner, and best costume.

If you're interested in showing how your organization keeps alive the American spirit of opportunity and hope for all, please fill out the entry in the Messenger or register online at <sewanee4thofjuly.org> under Event Registration. Let's see what Sewanee comes up with in the name of Peace, Love, and Fireworks!

Parade Observers

PLEASE DO NOT PARK ON UNIVERSITY AVENUE. All vehicles must be moved before 1 p.m. to make room for the parade.

The parade will begin at 2 p.m., starting at the Sewanee Market and will travel through town, turning on to Hall Street and ending in the parking lot behind the Hospitality Shop. All sirens will be turned off at Texas Avenue.

Volleyball Tournament

Everyone ages 13 and up is invited to participate in a volleyball tournament starting at 5 p.m. at Lake Cheston. Each team must have at least four players and at least two females. Register online at <sewanee4thofjuly.org> under Event Registration to reserve your team's spot in the tournament or register on July 4 at the event. There is no fee to participate, and the grand prize is $100 cash.

Fireworks

After dark, the Fireworks Show will be at Lake Cheston. There will be a suggested donation of $1 to contribute to next year's fireworks. Parking at the Lake will be limited to handicapped and special needs only. Chief Marie Ferguson asks that if you need a handicap or special need parking pass for the fireworks show, please go by the Sewanee Police Station. Simply go to the window at the station, give your name, and you will be given a pass. If you have a permanent handicap tag you will not need a temporary one.

A shuttle will be available at the EQB Monument to transport people to and from the fireworks. The cost per person is $3. To keep pedestrians leaving the fireworks safe, the shuttle will not run after the fireworks until all pedestrian traffic clears.

Texas Avenue will close at 6 p.m. in advance of the fireworks.

NATURENOTES

by Yolande Gottfried

Queen Anne's Lace

Queen Anne's Lace is in its glory on our roadsides and in our fields and gardens. It seems that the first flowering heads of each season are the largest, though the plant usually produces several heads. And these flower heads are amazing. They are compound umbels (from the flowering stalks radiating from a central point like the ribs of an umbrella) composed of 75 smaller umbels with a grand total of 2,500 florets per head! Look at the flowers closely to marvel at their intricacy and delicacy, with differences among the tiny petals. It is listed in the category "alert" by the Tennessee Exotic Pest Plant Council as it can be an exotic pest plant in similar or nearby habitats. Yet it was a prized garden plant in England and was brought to our shores on purpose by the first European settlers. Even the early Greeks and Romans used it as a medicinal plant. It was also eaten as a vegetable, though only as a pot herb when young. If you have pulled it up as a weed, you have noticed the carrotty smell. So how did this tough, stringy Wild Carrot become the vegetable we eat today? Research and plant breeding programs at the time of World War I and its attendant food emergencies led to the carrot we now know, making it a relatively recent food item in our general diet.

The common name comes from a legend that as Queen Anne, the wife of James I of England, sat in the summer with her ladies in a garden which included this plant, she challenged them to make a lace as beautiful as the flower. Of course, no one could (or would) outshine the Queen at lace-making, and the plant inherited the name we now use.

Pets of the Week Meet Mamie & Alura

Believed to be a Great Pyrenees/Shepherd mix, 13-week-old puppy Liesel arrived at the shelter incredibly frightened and full of intestinal parasites. Rescued by Midtown Veterinary staff, after being told by a woman that she witnessed puppies being thrown out of a moving vehicle, she and her litter-mates have been called our "miracle pups." After just having the puppies two weeks, they are gaining confidence, running around in their kennel, and finally feel like they are safe and protected. This puppy is available to go into our foster-to-adopt program this week. It will be required for adopters to bring the puppy back to the shelter for follow up vaccinations and her spay before the adoption is finalized.

Ash is a five-year-old solid black cat with striking golden eyes. Ash's appearance is unmistakable, unmatched and simply regal. Not only is he stunning, Ash loves to be petted and loved on, and is quite easily the sweetest cat in our facility. Ash periodically needs his independence and enjoys having his space to decompress in peace! He is truly a gem, and we hope you will consider him to be the apple of your eye. Ash is up-to-date on vaccinations, neutered, microchipped, FÉV/FeLV negative, and ready to go to a home to be a loving lap cat.

All-day Outdoor Photography Workshop and Hike

Spend the day photographing and hiking on Saturday, June 29, on the Fiery Gizzard Trail, a trail that Backpacker magazine ranked as one of the top 25 backpacking trails in the United States. The Fiery Gizzard trail is gorgeous and features cascading streams, numerous waterfalls, panoramic overlooks, extremely rocky gorges, gentle slopes and lush woodlands. Join David Duplessis of Tennessee Photographers for this amazing all-day photography workshop and adventure. All levels of photographers are welcome. The workshop fee is $100, and must be prepaid. Call (931) 924-2980, email <casie.rapert@tn.gov> or call her at (615) 920-3432 to register and prepay.

Meet at the Fiery Gizzard North Trail Head, 131 Fiery Gizzard Rd., Tracy City, at 7:45 a.m. The workshop will start promptly at 8 a.m. Wear appropriate clothing and shoes; there is every possibility you'll need to stand or move through water, or water will spray or drop on you and your equipment. So plan and pack accordingly. Also, be sure to bring plenty of water, fluids, snacks and a lunch.

Sewanee Herbarium Events

The Last Mountathon!—Sewanee Herbarium, Spencer Hall, Friday, June 28, 9:30-11:30 a.m., with Herbarium Curator Mary Priestley. Come help us mount the last of our backlog of specimens. Learn methods that have been passed down through generations and are still used today. If you've always wanted to try this, here is your last chance! Meet in the herbarium on the first floor of Spencer Hall. The main entrance is across from DuPont Library and there is parking behind the library.

Botanical Illustration—Spencer Hall, room 173, Saturday, June 29, 9:30 a.m.–noon, with Mary Priestley. Very little drawing is involved in this easy technique. Participants will photocopy then trace a herbarium specimen of their choice, and use information from published sources to modify and enhance the image before transferring it to acid-free paper and going over it with ink and adding optional color. Space is limited. Email <mpriestley0150@gmail.com> with questions or to reserve a space and so Mary can have the materials ready for each participant.

Nature Journaling—A group meets for nature journaling Thursdays from 9-11 a.m. Come try it out. Bring an unlined journal (or a few sheets of unlined paper) and a pen or pencil. No experience needed. The group meets in Spencer room 173. As the weather turns pleasant, the group may meet elsewhere. For more information email <mpriestley0150@gmail.com>.

Wear appropriate shoes on all of these walks. Risks involved in hiking include physical exertion, rough terrain, forces of nature, and other hazards not present in everyday life. Picking flowers and digging plants are prohibited in all of the above-mentioned natural areas.

For more information contact Yolande Gottfried at the Herbarium (931) 598-3346, or email <ygottfri@sewanee.edu>.

BARDTOVERSE

Summer Solstice

In winter I get up at night
And dress by yellow candlelight.
In summer, quite the other way,
I have to go to bed by day.

I have to go to bed and see
The birds still hopping on the tree,
Or hear the grown-up people's feet
Still going past me in the street.

And does it not seem hard to you,
When all the sky is clear and blue,
And I should like so much to play,
To have to go to bed by day?
