A Dream of 'Forever Wild' Come True: 1,000-Acre Mitchell Cove Conservation Easement

by Leslie Lytle, Messenger Staff Writer

Gale Link had a dream of keeping Mitchell Cove forever wild. In 1961, she and her husband purchased a 350-acre Mitchell-Cove bluff farm. Several years later, Link's husband gave her an adjoining 850 acres of cove property for an anniversary present. After her husband died, Link struggled financially, but refused to sell the Mitchell Cove land and took a job in Nashville as a legal secretary to pay the taxes.

In 1990, longtime friend, hiking companion, and like-minded environmentalist Sanford McGee asked Link if she'd consider selling "just a little corner." "If I was paid a million dollars for the land, I'd use the money to buy it back," McGee recalls her telling him, "Let's think about how we can share all of it."

McGee and his then wife Joan Thomas spread the word to interested friends. Alumni from the University who wanted their children and grandchildren to have the same experience of the natural world as they did joined the conversation.

The group hired an attorney and sought advice from the Nature Conservancy.

"It took us two years to figure it out," McGee said.

Calling themselves the Jump Off Community Land Trust (JCLT), a group of 10 stakeholders bought the property from Link and donated it to a nonprofit they helped create called the South Cumberland Regional Land Trust (SCRLT).

Some of the stakeholders homesteaded on the bluff farm living off the grid. McGee, Joseph Bordley and Julia Stubblebine continue to live there on the 150-acre tract known as "the farm." JCLT leases "the farm" from SCRLT and takes financial responsibility for the entire 1,150-acre Mitchell Cove tract, including property taxes and insurance.

In 2011, Gale Link died in a car accident. JCLT, the on-site stewards of Mitchell Cove, and SCRLT, the deed holder, began discussing how to guarantee for perpetuity Link's "forever wild" vision.

The obvious answer, a conservation easement prohibiting development on the 1,150-acre tract, posed huge financial hurdles. The survey alone would cost $25,000.

SCRLT board president Kathleen O'Donohue had experience working with Tennessee Parks and Greenways Foundation (TennGreen) to secure a conservation easement on the adjoining 95-acre Ravens Den Sanctuary.

In mid 2017, SCRLT contacted TennGreen and the nonprofit jumped at the chance to help SCRLT find the funds. The oldest accredited, state-wide land trust in Tennessee, TennGreen launched a funding campaign securing generous donations from the Lyndhurst Foundation and the Tucker Foundation. This past September, TennGreen announced the $43,500 fundraising goal had been reached.

ANGELFEST THANK-YOU

Dear Sewanee Community,

Thank you to everyone who came out Sept. 28 to the eighth annual Sewanee AngelFest. Special thanks to all the volunteers who filled in where we needed them, our marvelous participants in the family fun events, our prayer team who prayed for good weather, and our own remodeling team who helped in countless ways behind the scenes. It was fun for us to see the community enjoying such a gorgeous evening in Sewanee, and just what we were hoping for!

*Most Sincerely,
Joseph and Alyssa Sumpter,

REACTIONS

To the Editor:

To all of those who have written in, defending Brett Kavanaugh, I would ask this: When men come out with similar accusations against members of the clergy twenty or thirty or forty years after the fact, are you similarly dismissive? Do you question their memories and motives? Or, are these reactions reserved for Dr. Ford?

One in three women will be sexually assaulted or abused at some point in their lives, a number that makes sexual violence against women a national epidemic. We saw this week, again, why women are reluctant to come forward. Think about how hard it would be for a fifteen-year-old to relate such an incident to her parents, her teachers, the police, even her friends. And then, instead of reacting to this particular story like partisans, try considering it with an open mind and the recognition that the mix of ignorance, teen aggression, and too much alcohol could very easily lead to a situation in which she is telling the truth and he truly doesn't remember having done this.

CONFEDERATE MONUMENTS

To the Editor:

Regarding Don Shannonhouse's letter (Sept. 21, 2018) I would argue that it is actually the monuments to the Confederacy themselves that "dredge up events from over 150 years ago to create dissension and protest today."

No monument, after all, is "silent." Every monument speaks, right here and now, to the values that a community upholds, or ought to uphold. Since the Confederacy was an armed attempt to disunite these United States in order to perpetuate human slavery—as its founding documents make plain—then perhaps its monuments don't necessarily speak of "healing and reconciliation."

General Lee himself understood this. Approached about adding his prestige to an effort to raise a war monument, he replied: "I think it well... not to keep open the sores of war, but to follow the examples of those nations who endeavored to obliterate the marks of civil strife and to commit to oblivion the feelings it engendered."

That said, the documentary evidence on the Civil War and lessons that we can learn from it obviously should be fully discussed in our classrooms and in newspapers like this one. But when it comes to which history we, as a community, choose to celebrate with public monuments, we might consider what kinds of monuments will speak of "kindred dwell[ing] together in unity" — no matter who our ancestors were — and of the shared belief that "all are created equal" and "endowed by their Creator" with "unalienable rights [to] life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

Coat Drive for Children and Adults

Morton Memorial United Methodist Church is holding its first annual coat drive to collect coats for our neighbors in need. Help us collect coats for children and adults. As the season changes, and we begin to clean out closets, preparing our children and ourselves for colder weather, many of us discover perfectly good coats that we no longer need or use. Children grow so quickly that we often replace their coats annually.

We are asking for clean, ready to wear, gently used coats (no stains or tears, please): children sizes 4-16 and adults – any size. Jackets, rain slickers and warm winter coats, are especially needed. Gloves and hats will also be appreciated, but coats are the top priority.

Coats are needed to help those on limited budgets. Necessity often dictates that food, shelter, medicines, and other bills take precedence over clothing, leaving children, who quickly outgrow last years' coats, literally out in the cold. Providing coats serves a critical need and frees up precious dollars in a tight family budget so they may be applied toward other expenses.

Coats will be distributed to the Morton Memorial Food Ministry families, Blue Monarch children and mothers, and other agencies that serve children.

Donation boxes will be available in the lobbies of Regions Bank in Sewanee and Tower Bank in Monteagle during regular business hours through Oct. 26. For more information call Karen Noffsinger (931) 636-8474.

Sewanee Emeritus Association

The next meeting of the Sewanee Emeritus Association will be Thursday, Oct. 11. The speaker will be Professor of English John Gatta, former Dean of the College, who served as Acting Director of the School of Letters this past summer. Mr. Gatta will speak on his book "Spirits of Place in American Literary Culture," newly published by the Oxford University Press.

"Spirits of Place" asks the question "What might it mean, existentially and spiritually, for humans to form an intimate relationship with particular sites or dwelling places on earth?" Gatta blends theological and cultural analysis with personal reflection, while focusing on the multi-layered witness presented by American literature. The book addresses such themes as resettlement and pilgrimage, and why some sites seem more hallowed than others. Whether in Christian or other religious terms, no discrete place matters absolutely. Yet this study demonstrates how and why hallowed geography and the sacramentality of place have mattered throughout our cultural history.

The meeting begins at 3:30 p.m. in the Torian Room of the duPont Library. All are welcome, and refreshments are served.

Housing Sewanee Inc. (HSI) was the recent recipient of a $5,000 grant from Regions Bank to support affordable housing construction for low-income families in the Greater Sewanee region. Angie Nelson, Financial Relationship Consultant for Regions' Sewanee branch, presented the check to HSI President Joseph Sumpter during Sewanee AngelFest on Sept. 28.

Winchester Trail of Tears Commemorative Walk

The TN Chapter, Trail of Tears Association (TNTOTA) and Franklin County Historical Society (FCHS) are sponsoring the first annual Trail of Tears walk in Winchester on Saturday, Oct. 27, to commemorate the 180th anniversary of the Bell Trail of Tears Detachment's passage through Franklin County on Oct. 26-29, 1838. Anyone wishing to participate in the walk is invited to meet at Old Cowan Road City Park, located between US Hwy 41A and Old Cowan Road, next to 211 Wilson St., on or before 10:45 a.m. The 20-minute walk will begin at the park at 11 a.m. and follow 0.8 mile of the original route that the detachment took to the courthouse square. Those unable to walk the full distance may join the walk as it passes the Franklin County Board of Education building at 215 S. College St., for the final three blocks. A horse-drawn wagon is expected to participate to transport participants who are unable to walk. To round out representation of the modes of travel used by the detachment, horseback riders are invited to participate.

TNTOTA and FCHS will be conducting an educational booth all day at the Winchester Taste of Autumn Fall Festival and Chili Cook-off in downtown Winchester. This year's festival is from 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Information about the Trail of Tears Walk and the Fall Festival may be found on the Winchester Taste of Autumn Fall Festival website and Facebook page. Those interested in participating in the Walk, either on foot or horseback, are asked to contact Floyd Ayers by email <wfayers@comcast.net>. TNTOTA will also provide updates via email and on Facebook.

"The Mitchell Cove conservation easement focuses on protecting the property from development. No houses and no structures forever," said Christie Peterson Henderson, TennGreen Director of Land Conservation. The only exception is a small educational structure proposed for near Ravens Den Rd. The 150-acre JCLT "farm" is not included in the easement.

The easement was crafted to allow SCRLT to explore selling carbon offset credits accrued by not harvesting trees. The revenue could "finance more conservation efforts," said SCRLT board member Nate Wilson.

Mitchell Cove hasn't been timber harvested since the 1950s and then mainly on the bluff. Lush ferns and waterfalls join the old growth forest fostering an exceptional degree of biodiversity. Remnants of prohibition era moonshine stills hide beneath some bluffs. The cove is also home to the earliest finding of pictographs in this part of the world. The red paintings featuring celestial characters may date back as much as 1,000 years.

"The decision to place a conservation easement on the Mitchell Cove property makes the "forever wild" vision a legally protected reality, not only during our lifetimes but for generations to come," said SCRLT President Laura Candler.

For permission to hike in Mitchell Cove contact Candler (678) 850-5123, or McGee (931) 598-5120. SCRLT also orchestrated the preservation of Shakerag Hollow and Bluebell Island on the Elk River. To learn more visit <scrlt.org>.

Quiet Tuesdays at St. Mary's Sewanee

St. Mary's Sewanee: The Ayres Center for Spiritual Development is pleased to announce that it is hosting Quiet Tuesdays on its campus.

"We want to offer hospitality to our community, a place where people can get away and have a day of rest and renewal," said the Rev. Andy Anderson. "Bring your lunch and sit on the porch to enjoy the view. Bring a book and take some time to read. Walk the labyrinth. Hike the Turkey Hollow Trail. Just come spend the day on New Hope Bluff and savor the sacredness of this beautiful space."

Each week, the day begins with Qi Gong at 7 a.m., which takes place outside on the bluff. Wall Wofford leads this hour of gentle movement that integrates posture, breathing, sound, and intent. There is no charge for this class.

The centerpiece of the day is a Contemplative Eucharist with Healing beginning at noon, each Tuesday, in the chapel in St. Mary's Hall. This service is open to all, especially those who seek a quiet service with healing.

A Centering Prayer support group meets at 3:30 p.m., Tuesdays. The group meets in the outdoor pavilion if the weather is nice; it meets in the Fireplace Room at other times. The meeting begins with check-ins, followed by lectio divina, and then a 30-minute sit. Both new and experienced centering prayer practitioners are welcome to this group.

To close the day, Daryl Ann Ferguson leads a yoga class at 5:30 p.m. Participants are encouraged to bring their own mat, if they have one. Each class is $8 per person.

No reservations are needed for any of the Quiet Tuesday events; for more information call St. Mary's Sewanee at 598-5342 or go online to <www.stmaryssewanee.org>.

St. Mary's Sewanee: The Ayres Center for Spiritual Development is dedicated to providing spiritual hospitality to persons of diverse religious and spiritual backgrounds, in a place of natural beauty, simplicity, silence, tranquility and warm spiritual rest through retreats, renewal and learning. For the last 30 years, St. Mary's Sewanee has welcomed individuals and groups from across the United States and around the world to a place to rest, renew and reconnect.

Principal Kim Tucker (far left in front) is joined by students, faculty and staff to display the banner the school received in recognition of being designated a Reward School by the state of Tennessee.

SES Receives Reward School Designation

For the second year in a row, Sewanee Elementary is proud to have earned the designation of Reward School by the Tennessee Department of Education. In 2017, the Reward School designation was given to the top 5 percent of schools for performance and the top 5 percent of schools for progress. Sewanee Elementary was designated as Reward—Performance in 2017 for overall student achievement.

This is the first year the Tennessee Department of Education has implemented its new school accountability system. The new framework is based on multiple indicators and the premise that all schools should be able to achieve Reward status regardless of poverty rate. Reward schools are those that are improving in terms of achievement and growth for both all students and student groups.

The staff, faculty, and administration of Sewanee Elementary would like to thank parents and our community for strong continued support for providing a quality education for all students at SES!

Director of Schools, Stanley Bean, was on hand at a recent Friday morning assembly to present the school with a special banner in recognition of the school's accomplishment.

Run for Community Council

Sewanee residents are encouraged to consider running for election to the Sewanee Community Council. The seats now held by Annie Armour (at-large representative), Richard Barrali (District 4), Pam Byerly (District 2), Kate Reed (at-large representative), Flournoy Rogers (District 1), and Charles Whitmer (District 3) will be open for election. Armour will not seek reelection.

Candidates running for a district seat must have 10 signatures from residents of their district. For at-large candidates, the 10 signatures can come from any registered voter residing in Sewanee. Blank petitions can be picked up at the Lease Office, or are available from Tabatha Whitsett in the Provost's Office. A district map can be viewed at the Lease Office website <<http://www.sewanee.edu/offices/leases/community-council>>.

Early voting will be held from Oct. 17–Nov. 1 at the Lease Office. Regular voting will take place at Sewanee Elementary School coincident with the General Election on Nov. 6.

Shortleaf Pine Restoration

As part of our ongoing shortleaf pine restoration partnership with the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation, the University will be beginning a forest thinning and harvest behind gate 10 this week. In order to minimize truck traffic in the woods, we will be loading trucks directly on the parallel trail, necessitating its temporary closure between gates 9 and 10. I have attached a map showing the exact location.

Please avoid this area until further notice. Trucks will be traveling on the fire lane behind gate 10 and Breakfield Road. Please be on the lookout for increased traffic.

Also, in coordination with this harvest, there is a permanent change to the perimeter trail in the same area. Just north of Armfield bluff the trail now turns toward the bluff and follows a series of old roads and firebreaks before tying back into the old trail on the fire lane behind gate nine. At just over a mile in length, this new section adds approximately ½ mile to the total length of the trail allowing it to now officially be the long rumored 20 miles in length. This change is phase one of a two-phased project to move the trail in that area off of fire lanes and onto more picturesque single track trail near the bluff. Look for phase two in the coming year.

Managing Concerns About Falling with MOB

Locally trained Matter of Balance volunteer coaches are offering the greater community the opportunity to participate in the “A Matter of Balance” (MOB) program. A Matter of Balance is an eight-week structured group intervention that emphasizes practical strategies to reduce fear of falling and increase activity levels. Participants learn to view falls and fear of falling as controllable, set realistic goals to increase activity, change their environment to reduce fall risk factors, and exercise to increase strength and balance.

There will be an eight-week session of the Matter of Balance (MOB) course in Sewanee at the Sewanee Community Center. The course will meet each Tuesday and Thursday, 12:30–2:30 p.m., Oct. 16 through Nov. 8. Pre-registration is required and you will receive course locations at that time. A $10 donation for this course is requested.

Call (931) 598-0303 or email <assistantfolksathome@gmail.com> for more information. Matter of Balance is offered with support from Folks at Home, Sewanee Community Center, Erlanger Health System, and Southern Tennessee Regional Health System-Winchester & Sewanee.

Tuesday classes will be from 10:15–11:30 a.m. and Thursday classes will be from 10–11 a.m. This is a 12-lesson series of classes that consist of slow movements, gentle postures and relaxed minds and bodies. A $60 donation for the 12-lesson series is suggested.

Advance students are invited to come on Thursdays from 11 a.m. to noon at the Sewanee Community Center starting on Oct. 18. This is an ongoing opportunity to play Tai Chi for those who have completed both the beginning series and part 2 of Tai Chi for Arthritis and Fall Prevention (TCAFP). We include Taiji Qigong Shibashi in addition to increasing the depth of our Tai Chi movements. The address is 39 Ball Park Road. A $5 per class donation is suggested.

November Retreats at St. Mary's Sewanee

MAKING MEANING

Mixed Media Artwork Inspired by Poetry

As individuals who create, the question is not how to do artwork but what to do artwork about or why do artwork at all. We are wired as human beings to search for meaning in our lives and so also in our artwork. Join Lendon Noe for a weekend of exploring poetry and writing, and then finding ways to translate your response into art. Participants will look at favorite poets and find not only inspiration, but motivation ideas and imagery and a depth of meaning that they might not have found on our own.

DRAWING CLOSER TO GOD

Writing an Archangel Icon

Icon writing is a rich spiritual practice, a meeting place between the divine and the human. Part of the icon's symbolism is transmitted through the step-by-step technique used to create it, including style, materials, stance, and actions.

Join Martha Keeble for this exploration of visual prayer using a traditional Byzantine image of an archangel to draw closer to God.

ST. MARY'S SEWANEE
The Ayres Center for Spiritual Development

Both these retreats are Nov. 16-18. For more info or to register, call 931-598-5342, email <reservations@stmaryssewanee.org> or go online to <www.stmaryssewanee.org>.

Movies are $3 for students and $4 for adults, unless otherwise noted. Cinema Guild movies are free. The SUT is located on South Carolina Ave., behind Thompson Union. The SUT accepts Domain Dollars and credit/debit cards.

Teaming up with Sewanee Elementary's initiative, "Tigers Don't Leave Tracks," Frame Gallery asked children in our community to create art using recyclable materials for an exhibition. Twenty young artists contributed a piece to the show entitled, "Recycled/Upcycled Art." The show will be up until Oct. 31. Marshall Simpson is pictured with his art.

Otey Offers Screening of the Movie '13th'

One out of every 17 white males will spend time in jail during his lifetime. For black men, the odds are 1 in 3. The movie "13th: From Slave to Criminal with One Amendment" examines how the very amendment that should have forever ended slavery, instead created a loophole to continue slavery through the mass incarceration of people of color.

On Monday, Oct. 15 at 7:30 p.m., Otey Memorial Parish will host a free Sewanee Union Theatre screening of the award-winning movie. Director Ava DuVernay interlaces archival footage with exposition and interviews with such personalities as Melina Abdullah, Michelle Alexander, and Cory Booker.

The movie will be followed by a talk-back session with the Beloved Community: Commission for Racial Reconciliation of the Diocese of Tennessee. And as usual, the SUT will be selling delicious movie popcorn and soft drinks for just a dollar. Everyone in the community is encouraged to attend this important event.

Pictorial History Book

Grundy County Historical Society is compiling and publishing a new Pictorial History Book to document and celebrate the first 175 years of the rich history of Grundy County. In 2008 the organization compiled and published "Pictures of Our Past," a 300-page pictorial history. It is now out of print. The current project is intended to supplement and expand the original pictorial history.

The new book will contain hundreds of photographs, sketches and highlights of Grundy county. Original photographs are being sought. They will be handled with care and be returned when the book is completed. Professionally prepared duplicate prints may be submitted of any irreplaceable photographs but no Xerox or similar type copies. There will be no charge for having photographs published in the new pictorial history book. The deadline for submission of photographs is Nov. 15.

Include the name, mailing address, and telephone number of the person submitting each photograph together with a caption on the back explaining who and what is being depicted and, if possible, the date it was taken. The photographs and book orders should be sent to: Grundy County Historical Society, P.O. Box 1422, Tracy City, TN 37387.

The photographs and book orders may also be dropped off at the Heritage Center, 465 Railroad Ave., Tracy City, during regular business hours, Monday through Friday, 10 a.m.–4 p.m., and Saturday 10 a.m.–2 p.m.

The book will have a hard cover, and be of library quality. Its size will be 8.5 inches by 11 inches and be bound in a swirl-grained leatherette cover. It will be printed on acid-free, archive-quality paper for superior photograph reproduction and durability.

It is not necessary to purchase a book to submit photographs to be included in the book; however, a limited number of books will be printed. Persons who may want a copy are urged to place an order in advance of publication at the special pre-publication price of $39.95. The after-publication price will be $44.95.

Grundy County Historical Society has been engaged in the publication and sale of books since 2004, when it published "The Heritage of Grundy County, Tennessee," a 506-page book of family and place histories. "Pictures of Our Past," now out of print, was published in 2008. In 2009 the Society reprinted "Grundy County," a narrative history of Grundy County by James L. Nicholson and part of Tennessee County History Series published in 1982 by Memphis State University Press, now University of Memphis. In 2012 it underwrote the printing, sale and distribution of a children's book written by Mary Priestley and illustrated by Jack Baggenstoss titled "Dad's Railroad, The Mountain Goat." In 2013 it published the two-volume "Cemeteries of Grundy County, Tennessee," a 1,030-page chronicle of cemetery interments in Grundy County with maps and index. In 2015, it published "Murder, Mayhem and More," by Euline Harris. Grundy County Historical Society also publishes a quarterly journal, The Pathfinder.

Readers are invited to visit the Heritage Center Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., and Saturday, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

'Cabaret' at Tennessee Williams

Sewanee's Department of Theatre & Dance and the Department of Music are joining forces to present the classic musical "Cabaret."

It tells the story of Cliff Bradshaw, an American writer thrust into the sexually liberated nightclub society of Berlin in 1931.

As he becomes involved with the irrepressible cabaret singer Sally Bowles and the unconventional residents of his boarding house, the Nazis are rising to power just out of sight.

It's an unforgettable night in the theatre, exuberant and chilling. Based on "Goodbye to Berlin" by Christopher Isherwood and the play "I am a Camera" by John van Druten, it features a score by John Kander and Fred Ebb, and a book by Joe Masteroff.

The show will run Oct. 26-28, and Nov. 1-3 in the Tennessee Williams Center.

Tickets can be acquired through EventBrite. Visit <sewanee.edu/academics/theatre> for more information.

The Object Idea Exchange at McClurg Dining Hall on Sept. 28.

Object Idea Exchange

We're underway. Thank you to everyone who participated in our introductory Object Idea Exchange events on Sept. 28.

Keep thinking, because the invitation stands.

Every object tells a story, and stories are a great way to start a conversation. There is magic in the exchange.

The Object Idea Exchange is coming to Sewanee to facilitate novel conversations about the idea of community. We invite you to bring objects (smaller than a shoebox, no live animals) which embody ideas and stories about your Sewanee to trade for the same from other folks who live in your town.

The interactive exhibition "Communication Station: Automated Exchange" will open in the University Art Gallery on Oct. 25.

All are welcome - What do you want to share? For more information contact Shelley MacLaren <sjmaclar@sewanee.edu>.

SMS Offers Poetry and Mixed Media Retreat

St. Mary's Sewanee: The Ayres Center for Spiritual Development is pleased to announce a new retreat: "Meaning Making: Mixed Media Artwork Inspired by Poetry," Nov. 16-18.

This class, offered by artist Lendon Noe, is about finding inspiration and adding meaning to artwork through literature and poetry. Noe will share her methods for creating visual metaphors inspired by her favorite poets using ink, pencil, pens, collage, image transfers, and more. This workshop will begin by looking at favorite poems, poem fragments, and even single words that affect us, Noe said. "We'll ask questions of the poem and the poet. What colors do you feel? What is the shape of your longing?"

Participants will create beautiful painted papers using a variety of surface treatment techniques and will literally (as well as figuratively) tear the papers, making fragments that will become the foundation for larger pieces.

Lendon Hamilton Noe is a native of Jackson, Tennessee, where she was a Professor of Art at Lambuth University for 28 years. She maintains a studio and gallery at DCA/DCPR in Jackson and is partner and instructor with Silver Creek Workshops. For the last 15 years, her work has been focused on natural history. Her Tennessee natural history installation won a place in the Nashville Airport Flying Solo exhibition. She has been an artist-in-residence at the Buffalo National River in Arkansas.

For more information about this retreat, including making reservations, call St. Mary's Sewanee at (931) 598-5342, email <reservations@stmaryssewanee.org>, or go online to <www.stmaryssewanee.org>.

Mountain Bikers Race at Chickasaw Trace

The St. Andrew's-Sewanee upper and middle school mountain biking teams competed in their first race of the season Sept. 22-23 at the Chickasaw Trace trail in Columbia, Tenn.

More than 320 riders in the Tennessee High School Cycling League rode on Sept. 23 in challenging riding conditions due to pouring rain, muddy downhill turns and slippery roots.

SAS fielded a large group of riders, with 30 student-athletes competing in middle school and high school categories.

In middle school competition, Libby Neubauer (second place, eighth grade girls), Madeline Sumpter (fourth place, eighth grade girls), Julia Sumpter (fourth place, sixth grade girls) and Chris Moore (tenth place, sixth grade boys) had top-10 finishes in their respective categories.

Riley Burnette (ninth place, freshman girls), Mac Croom (sixth place, freshman boys), Gus Croom (eighth place, freshman boys) and Aidan Smith (fifth place, varsity boys) also earned top-10 finishes for SAS.

Coaches Speed Baranco, Beth Pride Ford and Michael Short stated they are proud of all the SAS athletes who competed during the weekend for their efforts and enthusiasm, and their willingness

SAS Soccer Team Falls in Conference Championship

On Oct. 1, the St. Andrew's-Sewanee girls' middle school soccer team trekked to Shelbyville to take on Cascade Middle School in the Central Tennessee Conference Championship game.

The dueling teams remained scoreless for the first half, then five minutes into the second half Cascade broke through SAS's defense to score the game-winning goal.

Ten minutes later Cascade secured its victory with a second goal. Despite the 2-0 loss, the Mountain Lions showed great character and fought hard to the end.

"I am so proud of our team and how we progressed throughout the season," said head coach Margot Burns. "It has been a privilege to work with these players and to watch them mature over this season."

The team is especially grateful to eighth graders; Ava Carlos, Lucy Cassell, Madison King, Libby Neubauer and Reagan Vaughan, who wrapped up their middle school soccer careers with a season record of 5-4-1.

SAS looks forward to seeing all these players in action at the varsity level in years to come.

To earn a spot in the championship game, SAS defeated No. 1 conference seed Community Middle School 2-0 in the semifinals on Sept. 30.

Twenty-five minutes into the match, SAS's midfielder King threaded the ball between Community's defense to teammate Drew DeLorme. Community's goalkeeper came outside the penalty box to strip the ball from DeLorme, but was called for a handball. Eighth grader Lucy Cassell calmly hammered home the game-winning goal off the free kick.

The remainder of the match was neck and neck with both teams creating scoring opportunities.

With five minutes remaining in the match, Vaughan broke free to score the final goal.

Patient of the Month

"My results at Shull Chiropractic Clinic have been wonderful! I have spinal stenosis, herniated discs, two artificial hips, hypertension, varicose veins, and peripheral neuropathy. Both feet were numb, making it extremely difficult to get around, go to doctor appointments and do any housework. My husband, 87 years old, has serious health issues, so my life is quite busy and everything depends on my being mobile and able to drive. I firmly believe the Lord led me to Dr. Shull! He performed only one treatment of dry needling on my feet and I now have feeling in them! This is definitely a miracle! He and his entire staff are so friendly, caring, and helpful. They feel like 'old friends.' I hope anyone feeling like there's nothing that can help them, will reconsider and call Dr. Shull at Shull Chiropractic Clinic. He has given my life back! Incidentally, I am 80 years old!"

St. Andrew's-Sewanee lost to Notre Dame High School on Oct. 1 in the first round of the district tournament, 25-9, 25-12, 25-13.

The Mountain Lions were led by a strong group of juniors all season, Kendale James, Katie Finn Hurst, Saje Mangru, Morgan Phares and Zoe Wallace. SAS overcame early season injuries to two starters and grew as a team during the course of the season.

"I am really excited to see what this group can do next year as we will have everyone returning in the fall," said head coach Rob Zeitler.

Mountain Lion Football Squad Loses to Lighthouse

The St. Andrew's-Sewanee Mountain Lion football team lost their fourth straight game on Sept. 21 as Lighthouse Christian edged SAS, 32 - 31.

The road loss was the second heartbreaker in a row with the Mountain Lions losing by a total of four points in the last two games. The team remains winless in 2018.

SAS led Lighthouse 25-16 with 3:15 to go in the game, but couldn't hold the lead.

The Mountain Lions fought back to score with 1:05 remaining to pull within one at 32-31. The touchdown came on a run by senior QB Gabriel Stevens from nine yards out. The big play in the drive was a 46-yard pass from Stevens to freshman Deandre Tate.

SAS opted to go for the win considering the wet weather conditions, but the two-point conversion failed. The onside kick was unsuccessful and LCS ran out the clock to preserve the victory.

Stevens scored four touchdowns on the evening. He scored from 45, 12 and 46 yards, besides the nine yard run late in the fourth. He ran for more than 160 yards and totaled another 100-plus yards through the air.

Senior tight end Larson Heitzenrater blocked a punt and junior Thomas Stapleton scooped up the loose pigskin and scampered 16 yards for a touchdown.

Heitzenrater hauled in two passes for 32 yards. Senior Jarett Willis carried nine times for 71 yards.

For the SAS varsity boys, senior Seth Walker had a season best third-place finish with a 5K course time of 19:46. Senior Saeed Abdilahi also had a season best with a fifth-place finish. The team placed second overall.

The middle school boys' team finished in an impressive third place. Eighth grader Kyler Cantrell finished second with a 2.5K course time of 10:23. Seventh grader Jackson Frazier ran a strong race as well, with a course time of 11:42.

Tiger Women's Soccer Claims Win Over Owls

The Sewanee women's soccer team earned a 1-0 win on Oct. 2 over visiting Mississippi University for Women.

With less than five minutes left in the opening half, Sam Morgan scored her fourth goal of the season unassisted.

The match saw the Tigers take 10 shots to the Owls' five. The victory moved Sewanee to 4-7 on the season, while MUW fell to 1-10.

The Tigers' Sam Morgan, Kiera Giacomini, Carter Cooper and Paige Rupp each shot twice for the winners. Abigail Frazier (1-2) saved one shot in the first half, and thanks to Hanna Judycki's scoreless second half, the duo finished with a clean sheet.

Tiger Football Team Tops Hendrix

The Sewanee football team kept the Hendrix Warriors in check during the second half on the way to a 38-31 road win in Conway, Ark., on Sept. 29.

The Tigers' opening drive resulted in points. Starting at their own 40-yard-line, the visitors recorded three pass completions and a 15-yard run by Alex Darras. Darras found Allan Puri for a 30-yard TD reception to cap the drive.

The Warriors (1-4) responded on their first drive of the game with an 11-yard touchdown reception to Kip Vanhooose from Mason Doerr.

Sewanee led 28-21 at halftime and each team scored 10 points in the second half as the Tigers defeated Hendrix for the first time since 2013.

Sewanee outgained the Warriors 491 to 407, including 401 yards through the air.

The Tigers' Micah Maes earned the first 100-yard receiving game of his career with a 175-yard performance on 11 catches and two touchdowns. Darras fired 364 yards through the air on 29-of-41 passing and a career-best four touchdowns. On defense, Lee Menefee led all Sewanee tacklers with 11 in the contest, while Walker Weatherly and Pierce Johnson each recorded an interception.

Runners begin the Sewanee Invitational cross country meet on Sept. 29. The Sewanee men's team finished fourth out of five teams and the women's team earned second place. Photo by Lyn Hutchinson

Belted Kingfisher

We occasionally see the Belted Kingfisher around our small pond and recently had a visit. These birds are interesting and distinctive in a number of ways. It is our only bird besides the phalarope (not in our area) in which the female is more colorful than the male—the female Belted Kingfisher has a band of chestnut on her breast. This kingfisher builds a nest deep within a burrow that may be eight feet long, which it digs in a sand or gravel bank. They can hover over the water like a tern, looking for prey, then dive vertically to catch a fish, with their large, straight, strong bills. The call is a loud rattle. The male is a year-round resident in our area, but the female migrates south in the winter as far as Panama and the West Indies. Look for kingfishers on an open perch or wire above clear, shallow bodies of water. There are two other kingfishers that are seen in the States. In the southern parts of Texas and Arizona, the Green Kingfisher, a smaller bird, is uncommon. Also uncommon along the Rio Grande in Texas is the larger Ringed Kingfisher.

Pets of the Week

Meet Little Bo Peep, Belle & Aurora

Little Bo Peep never had any sheep, but she did have an adorable litter of pups. Her people moved and abandoned her in a barn. Discovered by a kind neighbor, she and her pups came to live at the Harbor to find their forever homes. At a year and a half with stunning blue eyes, she is the happiest of dogs, friendly to all including children, and would be a loyal, loving companion. Little Bo Peep is current on vaccinations, is heart worm negative, and will be spayed and microchipped next week.

Belle and Aurora, a tabby sister pair, model tabby and white outfits in two versions which compliment their unique purrsonalities. Belle is a sprightly, go-getter who adores toys and will keep you amused with her antics. Aurora, as her name suggests, has the warmth and richness of many tabby/tortie colors mixed together, and a serene attitude which invites a snuggle on the couch. Consider a sister act for fun and a combo of kitty cuteness. Both are current on vaccinations, spayed, microchipped, and FeLV negative.

Sewanee Deer Hunt

The 2018 hunting season in Sewanee runs discontinuously until Jan. 11, 2019. This year marks the 16th year of organized hunting on the Domain after a resolution passed by the University trustees in 2001 requested that the deer herd be controlled.

Since that beginning, the program has continually evolved in response to herd populations, community input, and ever-expanding datasets on the impacts of the herd on the ecological and human community.

The current hunt is organized around the 2016 White tailed deer management plan, <http://www.sewanee.edu/media/offices/domain-management/White_tail_deer_management_plan_Final_1_26_2016.pdf>. This document outlines both the population and habitat goals, and the steps involved to reach those goals. In general, our goal is to bring the population down to what the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency feels is a sustainable population (approximately 25-30 deer per square mile) in a way that maximizes safety, minimizes impacts to the non-hunting members of our community, and maximizes student-led monitoring of the ecological and social impacts.

This year the largest change to the hunt is map-related. In previous years, there have been two maps; one for hunting while students are on campus, and another map for when students leave. While the rules for the two time periods remain largely unchanged, we have combined the two different maps to minimize confusion for the general public.

There are minor changes to the hunting hours. During the week, hunters must be out of the woods by 10 a.m., the same as on weekends. We have allowed limited hunting during Homecoming Weekend in zones away from heavy recreational activity. There will be no hunting on Breakfield Road during that weekend to ensure ample hiking opportunities for guests. As always, all trails and firelanes remain open to recreational use during the season and hunters maintain a 100-yard safety zone around all recreational trails.

As in previous years, there may be a surplus of animals available for local families. If you are interested in picking up a field-dressed deer for processing, please email <domain@sewanee.edu>. For more information on the University hunting program and specific rules and times, please visit <http://sustain.sewanee.edu/domain/ecosystem-management/deer-hunting/>.

Sewanee Arboretum Tour

Saturday, Oct. 6, 2 p.m., with Yolande Gottfried and professor Karen Kuer—In 2013, the diversity of Sewanee's trees was documented and the campus recognized by the Tennessee Urban Forestry Council as a certified arboretum.

More than 120 different species of trees on campus were identified and labeled. The size of this collection qualified the university as a "Level 4" arboretum, the state's most rigorous category.

This is a chance to become familiar with a sampling of these trees.

Meet at the corner of University and Georgia Avenues (at the flashing light) near the arboretum kiosk for this easy one-hour walk.

BARDTOVERSE

by Phoebe Bates

Founders' Day October 10, 1857; Convocation, October 12

"It was not the purpose to build up a town, but a large sylvan population, where every home should be surrounded with the leafy shades of the primeval forests, mingling the wildness of nature with meandering paths upon their gentle slopes, or on bold summits presenting distant scenes of unsurpassed beauty, rich valleys and boundless horizon stretching far away into purple-hued cloudlands, where clouds and sky are undistinguishable."
Maj. G.R. Fairbanks, Memorial, August 2, 1886

"What you inherit from your fathers must first be earned before it's yours."
Faust, Part I, by Goethe

PILATES FOR GOLFERS

Classes start 5 p.m., Monday, Oct. 1, Fowler Center

Want to take a few strokes off your game? Hit the ball farther and more accurately with less injury risk? Pilates for golfers centers around the center line of movement in the body much like a golf swing. The core strength that is gained through Pilates aids in hip rotation, range of motion, and spinal stability. Increases in stability and rotation lead to a more powerful and accurate swing! Classes will meet Mondays at 5 pm in the 2nd floor dance studio at Fowler. Classes are $12 per single class or $10 per class if purchased in monthly blocks.
