

Fat Tuesday at Otey

Get ready to let the good times roll with a New Orleans-themed celebration at St. Mark's Hall of the Claiborne Parish house. At 5 p.m., Tuesday, Feb. 13, you won't want to miss the Fat Tuesday festivities and feast hosted by the Otey Parish Crewe. Everyone and every age is welcome, so invite all your friends and neighbors.

Gary Sturgis will return to his throne as Otey's chef extraordinaire. The menu will delight your taste buds with Cajun jambalaya and red beans and rice. Vegetarian offerings will be provided, plus a special dessert. For the kids, there will be a special pancake station. Orange juice and coffee will be provided, but please feel free to bring your own beverage of choice. Entertainment will include jazz and Mardi Gras favorites. Costumes of all kinds are strongly encouraged, but not required.

Ticket prices are $7 per adult and $2 per child, with no family paying more than $20. For reservations contact Frieda Gipson at <oteyparish@gmail.com> or 598-5926.

American Shakespeare Center Presents 'Macbeth'

The Sewanee School of Letters invites the community to a free performance of "Macbeth" at 7 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 15, in Guerry Auditorium.

From the first words of the play until the title character loses his head, Shakespeare's shortest tragedy is also his most unrelenting examination of the dark side of humanity. Driven to bloody deeds by their lust for power and supernatural predictions, Macbeth and his Lady fight to hold on to their ill-gotten throne, their sanity, and each other, by any means necessary.

The American Shakespeare Center brings a unique performance style to Sewanee, blending Shakespeare's stagecraft with modern sensibility. The company uses Shakespeare's Staging Conditions: universal lighting, minimal sets, character doubling, cross-gender casting, and live music. Its productions have been hailed by the Washington Post as "shamelessly entertaining" and by the Boston Globe as "phenomenal...bursting with energy."

Doors will open at 6:30 p.m., with period music from the company beginning at that time.

The performance will be in memory of School of Letters faculty member Ann Jennalie Cook, distinguished Shakespeare scholar, who passed away last summer. Through the generosity of one of Cook's many grateful students at the School of Letters, we are able to honor her with this performance of Macbeth.

Happy Valentine's Day!

Sewanee Immersed in Jazz This Weekend

by Kevin Cummings, Messenger Staff Writer

This weekend, Feb. 9–11, Sewanee is afloat in jazz through a blend of lectures from renowned experts and scholars, jazz performances and discussions, and a culminating special concert on Sunday, Feb. 11, at 2 p.m.

"MJQ Redux: Celebrating Jazz at Sewanee" marks a moment from University of the South history in April 1961 when the Sewanee Jazz Society hosted the Modern Jazz Quartet (MJQ) in a concert at the gymnasium. The performance was significant not only because of the appearance of the jazz legends, but also because the all-black quartet performed amidst the racial turmoil of the segregated South.

Kash Wright, University Jazz Ensemble director and an event organizer, said jazz enthusiasts who want to hear world-class musicians and history buffs who want to hear from music experts are both in for a treat.

"And if you support music and the arts here at Sewanee, then rediscovering Sewanee's rich heritage and tradition of playing and being patrons of jazz will also appeal to you, and you will get to hear from current Sewanee student musicians," Wright added.

In addition to MJQ, the Sewanee Jazz Society of the 1960s and 70s brought other legends to campus, among them Louis Armstrong and Dave Brubeck.

Eric Benjamin, Sewanee's director of Multi-Cultural Affairs and another event organizer, was part of the Sewanee Jazz Society as a freshman in 1969. Benjamin said he was not a student "when the true trailblazers organized the Modern Jazz Quartet performance," but discovered students in Sewanee who were culturally and socially advanced.

"I was blessed to be an Atlanta native as a teenager during the time of Dr. King, listening to John Coltrane and Nina Simone, on albums and the radio,

Monteagle Council Grapples with Purchasing Protocol

by Leslie Lytle, Messenger Staff Writer

At the Jan. 31 meeting of the Monteagle Town Council, two recent infrastructure expenses prompted heated discussion about the proper protocol for the two instances in question: purchase of a used dump truck for use by the Utility Department, cost $17,000; and installing additional lighting at the temporary fire hall, cost $8,000.

Vice Mayor Jessica Blalock questioned the way the dump truck purchase was handled. "In the future I won't do votes over the phone, and I won't sign checks for the Town of Monteagle," Blalock recently attended training with the Municipal Technical Advisory Service (MTAS) agency of the University of Tennessee. According to MTAS, both of these actions were illegal, Blalock insisted.

On the advice of city accountant Mark Allen with Allen, McGee and Associates, City Recorder Debbie Taylor contacted Blalock and the other aldermen asking their preference regarding the Utility Department's request to purchase a used dump truck, quoting prices on two vehicles. Blalock later signed a check for purchase of a truck.

Explaining his advice to Taylor to contact the aldermen, Allen said in emergency situations "the mayor had authority to act" and the council was permitted to discuss the issue "over the phone."

Utility Department manager John Condra said not having a dump truck constituted an emergency in the event of a water main break.

Blalock countered, "MTAS said a dump truck is not an emergency." Blalock suggested the council should have held a special called meeting.

Allen pointed out that public notice should be given for special called meetings, which would result in a time delay. Allen cited the MTAS definition

Sewanee Village: Highlights, Historical Perspective, Future Topics

by Leslie Lytle, Messenger Staff Writer

At the Feb. 6 Sewanee Village update meeting, Special Assistant to the Vice-Chancellor Frank Gladu highlighted and gave historical perspective on the five priority projects. He also wanted to identify the "deep dive" topics— aspects of the plan residents wanted more information about.

Of the projects slated for completion by 2022, graduation year for next fall's incoming freshman class, Gladu pointed to relocation of the bookstore to downtown as having the most "momentum." The current bookstore needed to "vacate" the space selected for the University Health and Wellness Center to materialize," Gladu explained. With the bookstore design underway and moving from the conceptual into the schematic phase, Gladu projected having construction documents by this summer and gave a completion date of spring 2019.

Asked if Barnes and Noble would operate the new bookstore, Gladu said, Barnes and Noble would continue in the capacity of a "collegiate" bookstore operating "in the space we give them."

At the other end of the momentum spectrum, Gladu cited the Village Green proposed for the site now occupied by the Sewanee Market. Before the Sewanee Market can close, the proposed mixed-use building housing a grocery and residences need to be built, Gladu explained. "There's a developer very interested in the project," he said. The type of residences on the top two stories would be up to the developer, with both apartments and condominiums a possibility. Similarly, identifying a grocery operator would be up to the developer. The current market owners have "expressed an interest" in operating the grocery, according to Gladu.

Addressing a housing concern, Gladu insisted he favored only primary residents being allowed to own or lease residences in the downtown village, with no second-home residents. Lease policy states only University employees can build, Gladu said. Most of the proposed housing in the Village called for multi-family dwellings, the exception being a few lots in Parson's Green and on Castleberry Drive, and the Cottage Court housing proposed for Prince Lane.

Gladu described the Cottage Court homes as having a "near-zero" lot line and ranging from 800 to 1,500 square feet in size, with two story homes possible. Identified as a "wet weather conveyance," the Prince Lane tract posed challenges, Gladu conceded.

Curbside Recycling

Residential curbside recycling pickup in Sewanee is on the first and third Friday of each month. Friday, Feb. 16, will be a pickup day.

Recyclable materials must be separated by type and placed in blue bags by the side of the road no later than 7:30 a.m. Please do not put out general household trash on this day. Blue bags may be picked up in the University Lease and Community Relations Office, 400 University Ave. (the Blue House) or at the Physical Plant Services office on Georgia Ave.

CORRECTION

In last week's meeting list, it misidentified the LaLeche League meeting date. LaLeche League meets the second Tuesday of the month. We regret the error.

Hospitality Shop Sale Starts Feb. 10

The Hospitality Shop announces a half-price sale on all winter apparel in the men's and women's departments, plus all video entertainment items.

THANK-YOU!

Dear Friends:

Many thanks to all of you who helped me celebrate my 80th birthday on Sunday, Jan. 28, by attending the reception at St. Marks Hall, Otey Parish. I had a wonderful and fun time with each of you.

To those who sent flowers, emails, cards, phone calls and messages on Facebook, all of these are certainly appreciated very much.

I wish everyone could have as much fun on their birthday as I've had. Call me and I will come and celebrate with you on your birthday.

Thanks again.

Mobilize the Vote Meeting

Sewanee Organize and Act will meet at 5 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 22, at the Sewanee Community Center. The program will be Mobilize the Vote. Visiting assistant politics professor Clint Swift will explain our current situation in relation to getting out the vote—issues such as gerrymandering and the complexities of race, class and gender. A panel composed of local community members with experience in getting people registered and voting in elections will discuss effective methods and what we as individuals can do to get out the vote as we approach the midterm elections in November. Participants will learn strategies to increase registration and how to be a volunteer voter.

Swift teaches courses in American political behavior, political parties, and state politics. His research focuses primarily on how institutions condition elite behavior in American state legislatures. He is interested in how characteristics such as political experience, ideology, race and gender condition legislative collaboration in different institutional contexts. His research focuses on economic voting across the American states as well as the influence of local factors on economic evaluations and perceptions.

Sewanee Organize and Act is one of several groups in Tennessee that are following the Indivisible model of resisting the current governmental agenda, which is available at <https://www.indivisibleguide.com>. Interested people from Sewanee and surrounding communities are invited to participate in Sewanee Organize and Act. For more information, contact <sewaneeorganizeandact@gmail.com>.

Church News

All Saints’ Chapel

Growing in Grace will continue Sunday, Feb. 11, at 6:30 p.m. in All Saints’ Chapel. Our speakers this semester will address significant gathering places in their lives. Christ assures us “where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them” (Matthew 18:20, NRSV). We return again and again to certain communities and physical spaces in the hope of also being in the presence of something divine. Where are those places for us? Who are the people we become our purest selves in? How do we experience Christ’s presence when only two or three stand with us? Tonight, Jennie Turrell, C’93, art teacher and author of “Let Us Pray: A Little Kid’s Guide to the Eucharist,” will share her story. For more information, please contact Lay Chaplain Kayla Deep at <kayla.deep@sewanee.edu>.

Ash Wednesday, Feb. 14, marks the beginning of a dramatic transition as we leave behind the season after the Epiphany and enter into the season of Lent. There will be two services on Ash Wednesday (both with Holy Eucharist and the imposition of ashes): one at 7 a.m. held at the High Altar, the other at 5:15 p.m. held in the Nave. Childcare will be provided at the 5:15 p.m. service. Traditionally, Lent is a season marked with prayer, penitence, and fasting. It carries us slowly, yet deliberately, to Palm Sunday, through the events of Holy Week, culminating in the “Great Three Days” in the life of the Church: Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil. During this season, our worship will be simplified: for example, there will be no flowers and no alleluias. We encourage you to engage in these services and invite you into the observance of a Holy Lent.

The Catechumenate will continue Wednesday, Feb. 14, at 6:30 p.m. in the Women’s Center. A catered meal from the Mountain Goat Market will be provided. Based around fellowship, study, openness, and conversation, the Catechumenate serves as a foundational piece for the Christian faith, as well as a forum for discussion for people of all backgrounds. This week we will discuss the Ash Wednesday service and look ahead to the Rite of Enrollment, which will take place next Sunday, Feb. 18. All are welcome! For more information, please contact Lay Chaplain Kayla Deep at <kayla.deep@sewanee.edu>.

Lenten Daily Eucharist—A Eucharist will be celebrated each weekday that classes are in session, Monday through Friday (during the Season of Lent), beginning at 12:25 p.m. in St. Augustine’s Chapel (back hallway of All Saints’ Chapel). The service is designed to last about 20–25 minutes, so that you can take part and still make it to a 1 p.m. class or appointment. This could be a meaningful addition to a Lenten discipline. Please consider joining us. They will begin on Thursday, Feb. 15.

Christ Church

Christ Church in Monteagle recognizes the pretty unusual calendar for this year. This Sunday will be a kind of Mardi Gras for Christ Church! Our drama department isn’t sure yet whether to have our Valentine’s play this year, but we are sure that we can give you a Valentine or Ashes, or both, on Feb. 14 at noon.

The meal on Sunday will be a festive farewell to meat “-carnevale-” Carnival, with the dining area decorated in the traditional manner. The lunch follows the 10:30 a.m. service.

Community Ash Wednesday Service

The various Cowan churches will gather at 6 p.m., Ash Wednesday, Feb. 14, at Cowan First Baptist Church for a Community Ash Wednesday Service. Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent, a 40-day season of fasting and prayer that leads to the Day of Resurrection on Easter Sunday. Rev. Richard Morgan from the Goshen C.P. Church will be the speaker and the host church will lead in music and song. The service is sponsored by Cowan Ministerial Association. For more information visit <www.cowan-churches.org>.

Daughters of the King

Daughters of the King will meet at 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 13, in the parish hall of St. James Episcopal Church in Midway. All women are invited to attend to learn more about the organization, the oldest Order for Lay Women in the Episcopal Church, established in 1855.

St. James in Midway

“Loving With All Your Heart, Soul, Strength, and Mind” is 5:30–7:30 p.m., Monday, Feb. 12. This is a six-week interactive study with scriptures, prayers, and poems for daily use during Lent. Among the topics are: “Giving and Receiving Belovedness,” “Deciding to Love,” and more. The study guides are available for $2 each. Please see Vicar Linda to get your copy. A sign-up sheet will be posted in the parish hall for people to bring bread or soup each week. Seminarian Intern Jay Buzzini and Field Education Student Bradley Bates will co-facilitate the group with Linda Hutton.

On Wednesday, Feb. 14, at 6 p.m. there will be the Imposition of Ashes and the Holy Eucharist.

Otey Parish

This Sunday, Feb. 11, the Lectionary Class will explore Sunday’s gospel, in the Claiborne Parish House, Adult Education Room. Children ages 3–11 are invited to meet their friends for Godly Play. Youth Sunday School will meet in Brooks Hall. Infants 6 weeks to children 4 years old are invited to the nursery beginning at 8:30 a.m. until after the second service.

The Adult Forum will be on “The Biblical Foundations of Community Action.” What does the Bible have to say about the poor? How do the teachings of Jesus guide the work of the Community Action Committee (CAC)? Betty Carpenter, director of the CAC, will speak about the Biblical Foundations of CAC and talk about all of the ways that CAC helps those in need in our community. The 10 a.m. forum is held in St. Mark’s Hall at Otey Parish Church. All are welcome.

while they were alive still," he said.

"Having grown up with jazz, it was great to find students at Sewanee who knew about the music."

Stephen Miller, Sewanee Music Department chair and primary organizer, noted that past Jazz Society members Dave Wilson and Gray Smith were instrumental in developing the event. MJQ Redux is serving as both a reunion of the Sewanee Jazz Society and a celebration of MJQ and jazz.

Even for people who are not fans of jazz, the culminating concert by the Aaron Diehl Quartet at Guerry Auditorium is a tremendous opportunity, Miller said.

"Bottom line: Aaron Diehl's Quartet comprises some of the best musicians in the world on piano, vibraphone, bass and drums, and to hear these virtuosos live—no electronic wizardry, studio effects, or Auto-Tune—will be inspirational, no matter your musical tastes," Miller said.

Diehl, the lead musician, is known for his jazz instrumentals, classical performances and "accompanying one of the greatest vocalists on the planet, Cécile McLorin Salvant," Miller said. Diehl also performed for the New York Philharmonic, last year.

"Along these same lines, the repertoire of the Modern Jazz Quartet that the musicians will explore in the concert is quite varied, sometimes sounding more like straight-ahead bop-style jazz and at others more 'classical,'" Miller said. "The instrumentation itself will be fascinating to all ears. While most are familiar with the sound of the piano, the vibraphone (played Sunday by the very talented Warren Wolf) is just not heard all that much."

Wright, a member of the Kash Wright Trio, director said MJQ has influenced his own music. He discovered the quartet through Miles Davis' album "Birth Of The Cool," on which John Lewis, the pianist for MJQ, performed and also arranged two songs, Wright said.

"The MJQ is definitely the gold standard for blending aspects of jazz and classical music seamlessly and performing tight arrangements of standards and their own original compositions," Wright said. "If any or all of those things interest you as a musician, I'd encourage you to listen to them. There are always aspects of what they do that will influence your composing and playing."

A sample of the celebration's events include: The opening session at Gailor Auditorium today (Friday) at 8 p.m., which features a screening of the documentary "Music Inn" with one of the film's producer George Schuller, the son of jazz musician Gunther Schuller.

On Saturday, Feb. 10, at 3 p.m., author Gary Giddins, who was featured in Ken Burns' documentary series "Jazz," and Christopher Coady, University of Sydney professor and leading scholar on John Lewis, will host a discussion.

As Sewanee wades into the big jazz weekend, Benjamin noted that the genre is powerful in many ways.

"Jazz is great music and, like classical music, it raises your vibration and your IQ," he said. "I find that the creative nature of improvisational jazz keeps the mind flexible. This can be relevant today, as society moves through the 'great disruption' and we are forced to improvise in our lives."

There are a few events restricted to registered symposium guests, but all lectures and demonstrations are open to the public, Miller said. Tickets for the Aaron Diehl Quartet performance are available online for $35 through Feb. 10 and $40 at the door the day of the concert. Half-price student tickets are available at the door for $20 and University of the South students, staff and faculty get in free with a University ID.

Chapman's Chapel little church food pantry.

Chapman's Chapel Food Pantry

Chapman's Chapel Church of the Nazarene is a well-known landmark in Pelham having been in the community for more than 114 years. The church and its congregation has always had a heart for the people of not only Pelham, but the surrounding areas.

This year, one of the community initiatives has been the creation of the Church Food Pantry. By the church at 273 Chapman Chapel Road in Pelham, you will clearly see the "little white church" sitting by the road. It bears the simple message to "Take What You Need/Leave What You Can." There is no charge for food and everyone is invited to stop by and take some of the items. Donations of nonperishable items such as canned foods are also welcomed.

For more information on Chapman's Chapel's food ministry, contact Teri Winton at (931) 581-5973.

of an emergency as “putting life or property in danger. It’s the mayor’s call based on discussion with department heads. What I suggested Taylor do was to get the alderman informed. A vote wasn’t required.”

In a letter to Mayor Sampley following the meeting, city attorney Harvey Cameron concurred, “The decision is entirely up to you whether an emergency exists. In fact, there was no necessity for Debbie to call any of the aldermen.”

The additional lighting in the temporary fire hall was authorized by Fire Chief Mike Holmes. A contractor doing repairs on the restroom facilities had stressed the need for more lighting.

Alderman Kenneth Gipson questioned Holmes about the $8,000 expense.

“The lights cost a lot more than we thought they would,” conceded Holmes, who failed to get three quotes for the project as required by Monteagle city code when the estimated cost exceeds $1,500.

“Shouldn’t the council have voted on authorizing the lighting expense?” Gipson asked.

“The fire department makes decisions on how to spend its budget just like the police and other departments,” Sampley said.

In other business, Holmes requested declaring engine number three surplus and listing it for sale on govdeals, a government surplus auction website. The 1981 model engine had pump and tank leaks, Holmes said. He estimated the sale value at $8,000-$15,000.

The council approved declaring the engine surplus along with an out-of-service police car and two out-of-service utility department vehicles.

The council also approved Holmes’ request to apply for a firefighters grant for up to $30,000 to purchase a new engine. If the grant is received, the city would be required to contribute 5 percent in matching funds. Holmes described the federal grant program as highly competitive. “Last year we made it to the final round.”

Codes enforcement officer Earle Geary advised the council of the need to upgrade from the 2009 building codes manual to the 2012 manual. Law required the building codes a municipality operated under be within seven years of the most recent publication. “The state operates under 2012 codes,” Geary said. He estimated the cost of new manuals at $600. The council approved authorizing attorney Cameron to draft the necessary ordinance, which must be approved on two consecutive readings.

Sampley provided an overview of bids for asbestos removal in the portion of the Monteagle Annex undergoing demolition.

“The structure has 950 square feet of popcorn ceiling,” Sampley said. “The glue attaching the tile needs to be removed.”

The council approved retaining the low bidder Infinity Group for the job, cost $6,938.

The council meets next on Feb. 26.

“Building will likely be on higher ground around the brow of the property.”

Gladu reassured concerned residents the large tulip poplar tree on the tract would not be cut down. He speculated lack of competition for light and “perhaps the wetness” contributed to the impressive circumference of the tree.

Outside the 250-acres designated as multi-use by the Sewanee Village Plan, the University’s long-range plan calls for single-family dwellings only, Gladu noted, with the potential for 80-120 half-acre building sites.

Another front-burner project, redesign of the Hwy. 41A intersection, called for reducing traffic flow to two lanes “with a few strategic turn lanes,” Gladu said. As a state route, the one-and-half mile project falls under the jurisdiction of the Tennessee Department of Transportation. Traffic flow did not warrant a stop light, according to Gladu, but a pedestrian activated crosswalk is likely.

Asked about the earlier plan for a roundabout at the Highway 41A and University Ave. intersection, Gladu said investigation into the idea revealed “roundabouts were good at keeping traffic moving, but were not pedestrian friendly.”

Gladu hosts Sewanee Village updates on the first Tuesday of each month at the Blue Chair at 10 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Topics identified for future discussions include parking, fiber optic internet service in the Village, the Village as a “visitor destination,” children friendly space, retention of trees and wooded areas, a community garden, and results from the marketing, housing, and storm water studies being undertaken by the University.

Hudgins at FOL Meeting

Friends of the Library will host a reading and discussion by Andrew Hudgins. Hudgins will be reading and discussing his poetry and welcomes questions and conversations. The Friends meeting will be at 4:30 p.m., Tuesday, Feb. 13, in the Torian Room of Jessie Ball duPont Library.

Hudgins is the author of “The Joker: A Memoir,” “American Rendering: New and Selected Poems,” and eight other books of poetry. He is the recipient of the Writer Bynner Award of the American Academy and Institute of Arts and Letters and a Guggenheim Foundation Fellowship. Hudgins was also a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize for “Saints and Strangers” and a finalist for the National Book Award for “After the Lost War.” He is a recipient of The Poet’s Prize for “After the Lost War” and a recipient of the Haines Prize for poetry from the Fellowship of Southern Writers, the Ohioiana Award for lifetime contributions to poetry in Ohio, two NEA fellowships and a Guggenheim Fellowship. In 2007, he was inducted into the Fellowship of Southern Writers.

The public is invited. A reception will follow the talk.

‘Johnny Cash in the Holy Land’ Lecture

Shalom Goldman, Pardon Tillinghast Professor of Religion at Middlebury College, will give a lecture on “Johnny Cash in the Holy Land: Christian Zionism and American Pop Culture” at 7 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 22, in Convocation Hall. Folk singer Lisa Deaton, Sewanee alumnus and country musician Jason Lee Wilson, and Sewanee associate registrar and singer/songwriter Sheri Kling will join in performance of Johnny Cash gospel music throughout the talk. The talk is free and open to the public; all are welcome to join.

Goldman has long studied the intersection of religion and popular culture, publishing several books and dozens of articles in both popular and academic press. His recent work thinks about the role of Zionism in American pop culture, which has led Goldman to an exploration of Johnny Cash. Cash, according to Goldman, was an exemplary Christian Zionist. He made many trips to Israel during the 1960s and 1970s, pilgrimages to be in the land of Jesus. As part of his commitment to his evangelical Christianity, Cash regularly recorded gospel music. His 1969 gospel album, “In the Holy Land,” is the starting point for Goldman’s lecture.

Deaton, a folk singer, has performed with Goldman in his lectures for several years. Wilson, C’01, is a well-known local rockabilly, gospel and country musician. He regularly plays at the Smokehouse and the V, among other nearby and faraway venues. Kling recently joined Sewanee as the associate university registrar, and she is also a constructive theologian, a songwriter and a singer.

Delta Marketing Chief to Speak on Importance of Corporate Culture

Tim Mapes, senior vice president and chief marketing officer for Delta Air Lines, will be the Easter Semester Graham Executive in Residence for The Babson Center for Global Commerce.

Mapes manages Delta’s global marketing, advertising and community affairs and has been repeatedly honored for his talents as an innovative marketer.

He will give a public lecture, “Culture Beats Strategy: How the World’s Leading Airline Creates a Competitive Advantage with Employees and Customers,” at 4:30 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 15, in Gailor Auditorium.

Delta is one of the world’s largest airlines, whether the measure is number of passengers carried, destinations served, revenues, or aircraft fleet size.

During his tenure at the top marketing job for the Atlanta-based airline, Mapes has led a company-wide strategy to differentiate Delta from other carriers by building a corporate culture that is more open and direct. In 2016, Mapes was named one of the top 100 global chief marketing officers, and he has been inducted into the Hall of Achievement by the American Advertising Federation.

Mapes joined Delta in 1992 after being recruited from the company’s advertising agency. At the time, Delta was in the early stages of becoming a major global airline, due to its purchase of most of the European and Latin American route structure of Pan American World Airways, which had been the United States’ principal international carrier.

Delta itself was forced into bankruptcy in 2005, emerging in 2007, shortly before the global financial crisis. Just a year later, Delta and Northwest Airlines, another major US carrier, merged with the goal of creating the world’s largest airline.

Mapes had been promoted to a senior leadership role just as Delta was clearing bankruptcy, and he was almost immediately faced with the difficult task of creating a unified brand identity for two distinctly different corporate cultures.

Mapes is a graduate of the University of Georgia’s Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communication.

Saussy Joins University Realty

Lynn Stubblefield, principal broker at University Realty in Sewanee, is pleased to announce that Freddy Saussy, has joined the firm as a licensed affiliate broker. A Sewanee native and University graduate, C’99, Saussy joins the firm after operating a general contracting business in Sewanee for 8 years, and brings an uncommon skill set to the position.

“It will be a great privilege to serve the people of our mountaintop communities in this way,” said Saussy. “I am thrilled for the opportunity to join University Realty. I believe that my depth of local knowledge, and my experience as a builder, a negotiator and photographer, uniquely position me to contribute to the success of our firm and, most importantly, the success of my clients.”

Healthy Pastures and Healthy People

For many who use rotational grazing—planned frequent movements of livestock on pasture—the goal is to use livestock as a tool to improve the soil and the forage diversity of the farms they manage. Instead of letting animals continuously graze down an entire pasture, the animals are herded into a section of the pasture for a short period of time. Many small farms raising grass-fed, grass-finished beef, lamb, goat, or pastured pigs and chickens, use rotational grazing techniques. The constant movement of animals in tightly packed herds with extended rest between grazings would have been natural for large herding animals. Not only does this practice harken to natural animal behavior, it is beneficial both to the landscape's and animals' health as well as improving the quality of meat, which ultimately are winners.

Grass is like an iceberg; the biomass above ground is only a small part of the entire plant. When animals graze plants, the roots die and push carbohydrates up to the base to regrow the plant matter above. This process takes about four days to complete. If animals are left to graze for longer than four days, they'll graze the new growth. With overgrazing, there is not sufficient root mass to repeat the grass lifecycle. The species of forage the animals prefer (typically grass) will die out and less desirable plants will take over the pastures. Resting pastures generates more biomass, and with extra green matter above ground, the soil doesn't dry out as easily during the hottest parts of the year. The deeper roots allow for more water infiltration during rains.

Another advantage to rotational grazing is the fertilizer (natural manure, not synthetic fertilizer) is evenly spread on the pasture with no need for additional inputs. A side benefit is that animals become less picky and graze all forages evenly, helping to prevent the less desirable plants from dominating the pasture. Over time, as the pasture improves, the pasture will respond quicker in the spring and the forages will grow later into the fall, extending the growing season.

The animals are better off, as well. Ruminants like cattle, sheep and goats can't digest the cellulose structure of plants or derive any nutritional value from them without the microorganisms present in their first stomach. These microbes break down the cellulose, turning the plant into calories and nutrients that can be absorbed and used. Again, there's a side benefit—the digestive process helps pass beneficial microbes to the soil in the animals' manure. What's more, the animals' guts are more chemically balanced and the production of methane is greatly reduced. Conversely, when ruminants are fed grain, their stomachs become acidic and microbe levels decrease, making it difficult to absorb nutrients from grass.

Animals raised on pasture offer consumers improved nutrition – and this includes non-ruminants like pigs and chickens (and their eggs). Products from grass-fed animals are usually free of hormones and antibiotics, which aren't needed when animals are raised on pasture and not in confinement. A 2009 joint research project between the U.S. Department of Agriculture and Clemson University found that grass-fed beef contained higher total levels of omega-3 fatty acids, a healthier ratio of omega-6 to omega-3s, higher levels of conjugated linoleic acid (CLA), and more antioxidants, vitamins and minerals. The healthier omega fatty acid ratio and higher levels of CLA are reported to improve immunity and fight inflammation, which decreases the risk and helps aid in the treatment of type 2 diabetes, asthma, irritable bowel syndrome, rheumatoid arthritis, macular degeneration, psychiatric disorders, autoimmune diseases, and all types of cancers. Talk to your local farmer about how they raise their animals. It matters to you and to our world.

Upcoming Events

Seed Starting Workshop

The Cumberland Teaching Gardens (CTG) network is hosting a free seed starting workshop on Saturday, Feb. 10, from 10 a.m. to noon at the DuBose Conference Center, 635 College St., Monteagle. This workshop is open to community members who are or would like to get involved with school and community gardens.

The workshop will focus on the basics of starting seeds indoors to later transplant outside. Topics will include what you'll need, when to start and care instructions.

Participants will meet indoors at the conference center for an hour of teaching, then move outside to the art barn for hands-on learning activities.

For more information and to register, email <sewaneevistagarden@gmail.com>.

Fundraiser for Good Shepherd

The Good Shepherd Parish Community will celebrate Mardi Gras with a fundraising gala from 6–11 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 10, at Monterey Station in Cowan.

The evening will feature Cajun cuisine along with live music, dancing, a cash bar and a silent auction. Participants must be 21 or older to attend. Tickets are $45 per person in advance or $50 at the door and can be purchased by calling Janie Casey at (931) 308-7116, or the Good Shepherd Parish Office at (931) 967-0961.

Proceeds will benefit Good Samaritan, the Linda Bauman Memorial Scholarship Fund and the Good Shepherd Parish Ministries. For more information go to <<http://www.goodshepherdtn.com/mardi-gras-fundraiser>>.

Sewanee Hearts & Grocery Carts

Sewanee Hearts and Grocery Carts, an annual event held by the ladies of Kappa Omega, raises money and collects canned goods for the Community Action Committee. All community members are invited noon–2 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 11 at Otey Parish to celebrate Valentine's Day and the spirit of service and helping others.

At the event, each donor receives tickets that can win gift cards from local businesses such as IvyWild, Woody's Bikes, Mountain Goat Market and Mooney's. Attendees can also participate in a silent auction to bid on creative baskets made by local organizations. The event includes free family-friendly, Valentine-themed activities such as card making and cookie decorating, as well as food and music.

Chili & Fixins

Animal Harbor is hosting a benefit chili supper from 5–7 p.m., Friday, Feb. 23, at the Sewanee Community Center. Everyone is invited to "Chili and Fixins," to eat chili, support the low-income spay/neuter program, and learn about how you might help. The suggested donation is $10 for adults and $5 for children and seniors. Vegetarian chili will be available. For more information go to <www.animalharbor.org>.

Cajun Supper

The Monteagle-Sewanee Rotary Club will host its fourth annual Cajun Supper, 4:30–6:30 p.m., Saturday, March 10, in Claiborne Hall at Otey Memorial Parish.

Live music will provide a festive atmosphere while diners or take-out patrons can enjoy Cajun crawfish etoufee or vegetarian red beans and rice. Draft beer will be sold on-site for the 21 and older patrons.

Tickets are $20 each, $10 for students, and children under 12 eat free. Tickets will be available at the door. Proceeds from the Cajun Supper are used for international humanitarian service projects such as the Sewanee Haiti Initiative. For more information go to <www.monteaglerotary.org>.

State Library Hosts Workshop on African-American Family Research

Connecting families with records that tie them together is often a barrier in African-American research. On Saturday, Feb. 17, the Tennessee State Library and Archives will host a free workshop on African-American genealogy.

Patrons will watch "Discovering the Missing Threads and Patches in my Family's History: A Pre-recorded Webinar and Discussion" featuring Deborah Abbott. Abbott is a professional genealogist who specializes in advanced African-American research, manuscript collections and genealogy methodology. She has also been highlighted on various projects with <Ancestry.com>.

Abbott will highlight how genealogists shouldn't ignore the basics. Her webinar demonstrates how to understand all records and the history that surrounds them which can bridge the gap between slavery and freedom.

Certified genealogist and fellow of the Utah Genealogical Association, J. Mark Lowe, will moderate the discussion.

The workshop will be 9:30–11 a.m., Saturday, Feb. 17, in the Library and Archives auditorium.

The Library and Archives is located at 403 Seventh Ave. N., directly west of the Tennessee State Capitol in downtown Nashville. Free parking is available around the Library and Archives building.

Although the workshop is free and open to the public, registration is required due to seating limitations in the auditorium. To reserve seats, please visit <<https://abbottworkshop.eventbrite.com>>.

INTRAMUSCULAR STIMULATION/DRY NEEDLING

My last article included detailed information about Intramuscular Stimulation/Dry Needling or IMS/DN and how it can relax muscle spasms and relieve pain. In this article, I would like to talk about another therapy that I offer in my practice which is Spinal Decompression Therapy.

Spinal Decompression is the latest technology in traction which is used to treat neck and lower back pain. It has proven very beneficial in the treatment of spinal degeneration, arthritis, degenerative disc disease, bulging discs, and sciatica in a high percentage of patients. The traction therapy is administered on a table that looks similar to a chiropractic adjustment table or roller table with apparatuses attached to perform the traction or decompression. It is a very safe piece of equipment that delivers gentle traction of the joints of the neck and/or lower back. When this gentle traction occurs, pressure between the spinal discs is relieved which allows blood flow to reach the area. Where there is blood flow, there are nutrients which the discs and tissues need in order to heal.

If you have any of the above mentioned health problems and would like to embark upon a noninvasive option for treatment, give us a call at Shull Chiropractic Clinic, PLLC at 931-967-4232. I am offering a complimentary consultation to anyone who would like see if they are a candidate for Spinal Decompression Therapy.

Sewanee Children's Center Open House this Saturday

The SCC will open its doors Saturday, Feb. 10, from 9 to 11:30 a.m. welcoming the community and interested families to tour the facilities and meet the leading members of this cooperative preschool and afterschool program. The director, Sandy Glacet, the teachers, and many parents and enrolled children will be available to answer any questions about their experience at the Sewanee Children's Center (SCC). The SCC provides developmentally appropriate teaching and learning for children ages 2 to 5 years old in its preschool program, and for children in kindergarten through second grade in its afterschool program.

SCC strives to create an environment that respects childhood as a time to explore, create, and be joyful. The center is guided by the idea that encouraging and allowing the opportunities for pretend play not only makes for happier children but also creates the foundation for their development into confident, compassionate, and creative adults. Through pretend play, children learn to think abstractly, and to look at things from someone else's perspective; they develop their language skills by telling and understanding stories. Pretend play has been shown to contribute to early literacy, mathematical thinking and problem-solving. Through play, children learn to cooperate, listen to others, stand up for their own ideas, handle frustration and empathize.

To learn more, join the director, teachers, parents, and SCC children this Saturday at the center at 216 University Ave. SCC is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization supported by Otey Memorial Parish and the Sewanee Community Chest. There is more information online at <<http://sewaneechildrenscenter.org/>> or call Sandy Glacet at (931) 598-5928.

SES Participates in Jump Rope for Heart

Sewanee Elementary will be participating in the annual Jump Rope for Heart (JRFH) event the week of Feb. 12 through Feb. 16. This is the 22nd year SES has participated in the fundraising event for the American Heart Association. The funds raised will help support vital heart and stroke research, as well as education programs. Family members and friends can support the children taking part by making contributions to the participants. JRFH is a fun event that helps children understand the importance of community service and physical activity while helping to save lives and support research.

To contribute, please make checks out to the American Heart Association. The event is coordinated at SES by Physical Education teacher, David Gilliam.

Blue Chair Standup Comedy Open Mic

The Blue Chair Tavern in Sewanee will host its second Standup comedy open mic at 9 p.m., Friday, Feb. 16. Building on the wildly successful open mic event held in October 2017, Number 2 will be emceed by local comedian and Tavern cook Mike Reid. The Tavern is an intimate environment for standup comedy, where the audience-performer energy makes for a hilarious, unforgettable experience. Participants are invited to sign up the night of the event or in advance by visiting or calling the Blue Chair (598-5434) or via email, manager@bluechair.com. This event is free (no cover charge), open to the public, and for mature audiences only.

HEAVEN ON EARTH... NOW AVAILABLE IN SEWANEE

MYERS POINT at Sewanee offers a rare opportunity to enjoy a private community that celebrates American architecture, lifestyle, protected forests, cultivated lakes and panoramic views on Middle Tennessee's Cumberland Plateau. OFTOWERSANDBELLS

by Ray Gotko

We all have a preference as to what senses are primary in our perception of the world about us. Most of us, it seems prefer the visual sense. The popularity of various websites in which photos dominate the pages supports this conclusion. Fewer of us focus on sounds and touch. We cherish the quiet reverberations of foot steps walking the aisles of All Saint's Chapel, vacant of worshipers on a weekday. The clatter of McClurg at noon on a Wednesday floods our memories with people and occasions of the past. The quiet of the Sewanee Golf Course punctuated by the sudden strike of club on ball brings moments of peace and refuge from the busy world of the classroom.

The bells of Sewanee have such affect on many of us. While some passers-by ignore the clock's sounding on the quarter hour, some pause to sing the tune or count the strikes. The Bentley change ringing bells emit a subtle, calming, cooing on the evenings when the local band rehearses with muffled bells. When the bells ring out unmuffled, they call the faithful to worship or signal the start of an academic procession. The Polk Carillon repeats the Sunday hymns as the congregation winds their way home. Bells are important sounds, the sounds of memories for many of us.

Late in life, while revisiting the campus, Thomas Dabney (C 1905) recalled "More than 60 years had passed since Breslin's hortation had made me jump while preparing for my degree, and here were these same bells talking to me in the same old tones, a symbol of Sewanee's permanence and the clanging vigor of its ideals and purposes."

The bells continue to speak each day and hour in "their same old tones." The Bentley Bells installed in 2004 are the newcomers. Polk Carillon celebrates 59 years this coming July. The clock, the old timer, sounded the quarter hour first in 1900. The ideas and purposes of which they are symbols persevere as well. The bells are reminders that those of us now here are but the temporary keeper of a long tradition. The bells are here for the long run.

SAS Falls in First Round of Big 8 Tournament

The Eagles of Tracy City Elementary flew past St. Andrew's-Sewanee, 28-19, in the first round of the Big 8 middle school boys' basketball tournament on Feb. 3.

Tracy City guard Jr. Crisp effectively threaded through SAS' half-court trap, and Brandon Marsh's size advantage helped him earn 11 points in the game.

For St. Andrew's-Sewanee, Ethan Hargis scored seven points and Gus Croom's second-half aggressiveness stood out.

Seahawks Nip SAS in District Tourney

The St. Andrew's-Sewanee boys' varsity basketball team lost 46-45 to Silverdale Baptist Academy in the opening round of the TSSAA Division II-A East District Tournament on Feb. 5.

The visiting Mountain Lions built a 23-15 halftime lead, but the Seahawks rallied and claimed the win with a free throw with four seconds left in the game.

Blaise Zeitler led SAS with 15 points; Dustin Stensby scored nine; Emmanuel Thombs had eight; Jalen Tillman and Aubrey Black scored six points each; and John Grammer added one point.

"This was a great high school basketball game," said SAS head coach Rob Zeitler. "Both teams fought hard and battled to the very end. We had our chances to win the game. I am so proud to have coached this team. They supported each other during some tough stretches this season and never gave up."

St. Andrew's-Sewanee to Host Summer Camps

St. Andrew's-Sewanee School has opened registration for SAS Summer 2018. Each summer the school welcomes close to 200 children and adults to campus for a variety of programs.

Athletics day camps this year include basketball, soccer and all-sports camps. Two new outdoor adventure camps are also being offered. Waterfalls and Swimming Holes is a day camp for students in grades five to seven.

Mountain Lion Swimmers Compete at Regional Meet

The swimmers from St. Andrew's-Sewanee School competed at the Centennial Sportsplex in Nashville on Jan. 26 in the Middle Tennessee Regional Meet.

The boys' and girls' teams from SAS fielded a relay team in the 200-yard medley. The girls finished 31st in the region with a time of 2 minutes, 19.61 seconds, while the boys placed ninth with a time of 1:48.88.

The boys also placed ninth in the 200-yard freestyle relay with a season-best time and new school record of 1:37.05, anchored with an impressive swim from junior Randy Paul. Paul added to his day by qualifying for the state meet in the 100-yard butterfly with a time of 59.55.

After narrowly missing the state cut for the 200 individual medley, senior Catherine Gray ended her day on a high note, swimming the 100 backstroke in a time of 1:07.81.

Freshman Zolon Knoll swam an impressive 500 freestyle with a personal best time of 5:19.30.

"This group has worked really hard to improve this year," coach Jake Miller said after the meet. "We are very excited to see what they can do at the state meet."

Up next for the SAS Mountain Lions: Porter Neubauer, Zolon Knoll, Aidan Smith, Randy Paul and Catherine Gray will compete at the state meet in Knoxville on Feb. 9-10.

SAS Middle School Boys' Drop Pair of Games at Home

Visiting Tracy City hit its shots and with three Mountain Lions out due to illness, the Eagles defeated the St. Andrew's-Sewanee middle school boys' basketball team on Jan. 30.

Ethan Hargis kept the game close for SAS with three 3-pointers, but Tracy City claimed the regular season finale, 35-27.

Mac Croom added eight points for SAS; Cecil Rodgers scored four; and Gus Croom and Rylan Thomas each had three.

On Jan. 26, the visiting North Warriors brought their "A" game to SAS and topped the Mountain Lions by a score of 39-32.

Luke Rymer for North stole the ball for layups and generally stymied the Mountain Lion offense.

For SAS, Mac Croom and Elijah Seavey both finished with 10 points. Hargis had five points; Tyler Cantrell scored four; Rodgers posted two points; and Cason Harmon chipped in a free throw.

Sewanee Men Earn Solid Road Win

The Sewanee men's basketball team pulled away in the second half, as they defeated Birmingham-Southern, 71-59, on Feb. 4 in Bill Battle Coliseum.

Trailing for about half of the first period, the Tigers (12-9, 8-3) went on

Hunter Buescher drives to the basket in a game earlier this season. Buescher scored 18 points in Sewanee's Feb. 4 win. Photo by Lyn Hutchinson a 7-0 run in about a two-minute span and took their first lead of the contest thanks to a Cam Caldwell dunk.

The teams traded buckets late in the half, but the Purple and Gold led 33-30 at the halftime break.

Not relinquishing the lead in the final 20 minutes, Sewanee shot 55 percent (12-of-22) from the floor as they outscored BSC 38-29.

The Tigers began to pull away midway through the second half thanks to an 8-2 run.

For Sewanee, Adrian Thomas and Hunter Buescher each tallied 18 points for the victors. Thomas corralled nine boards and dished out four dimes, while Buescher posted six steals, five rebounds and four assists.

Caldwell added 13 points and seven rebounds, while Luke Smith totaled 12 points.

For BSC (9-13, 6-5), Harrison Deneka finished as the only Panther in double figures, posting 15 points and adding 10 boards.

In the Southern Athletic Association (SAA) race, Centre controls the lead in the standings. Oglethorpe and Sewanee are now knotted at 8-3 for second place in the SAA standings. Sewanee and Oglethorpe will break their second place tie tonight (Friday) inside Juhan Gymnasium.

Sewanee Softball Poised to Start 20th Season

The 20th year of Sewanee Softball rolls out on Feb. 10, as the Tigers open the season on a six-game road swing beginning with a trip to Macon, Ga., for a doubleheader against Wesleyan.

The Tigers will begin the season with doubleheaders against Wesleyan and Agnes Scott before wrapping up the trip with the Piedmont Classic in Demorest, Ga. Sewanee will open the home portion of their schedule on Sunday, Feb. 18, with a twinbill against Emory & Henry.

Looking at this year's team, Sewanee's Caroline Sweetin posted four doubles, two homers and 18 RBI to go with a .368 batting average and a .515 slugging percentage during her freshman campaign a year ago.

Katie Roth swiped four bases and recorded nine two-baggers en route to a .407 slugging clip and a hitting average of .296.

McNulty Garners SAA Baseball Player of the Week

The Southern Athletic Association (SAA) recently announced Sewanee infielder Chris McNulty as the SAA Baseball Player of the Week after his performance on the diamond at 10th-ranked LaGrange, Feb 2-3.

The sophomore racked up six hits, posting a .357 batting average with a double, four RBI and three runs scored.

In Sewanee's 13-5 season-opening win over the Panthers, the Atlanta native went 2-for-5 with a double and three runs driven in. With Sewanee leading 7-5, McNulty brought two key insurance runs home on a RBI single to cap an eight-run eighth inning.

In 2017, McNulty posted a .294 batting average with one homer and seven driven in as a reserve.

Tigers Track and Field Opens Season

The Sewanee track and field teams opened the 2018 season on Feb. 3 as they hosted the Tiger Indoor Meet inside the Fowler Center.

The track and field teams competed in limited action in the opener, as less than two-thirds of the team was in action. As the season progresses, more will compete in the indoor season and definitely more by the time the outdoor season rolls around next month.

On the women's side, Haven Watson cleared 4.74 meters in her first long jump attempt of the season, good for sixth out of 15 jumpers.

Meredith Stuber ran to a 28.37-second finish in the 200-meter dash, finishing 11th out of 27 runners.

For the men, in the long jump, Letherio Jones cleared 6.09 meters in the event, good for fifth out of 15 competitors.

Calid Shorter sprinted the 55-meter in 6.78 seconds in the preliminaries, good for 10th out of 28 competitors.

In the 4x400 relay, Sewanee nearly won the section, as the team of Cameron Noel, Jones, Dillon Spann and Miles Martin finished the event with a 3:56.37 mark.

Winchester Swimplex Closed

Beginning Feb. 10, the Winchester Swimplex will be temporarily closed for pool renovations until further notice. During this time, the office hours will be 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. For more information call the Winchester Swimplex at (931) 962-4204.

Appalachian Adventure is an overnight camp for students in grades eight to 11 that will begin at SAS and continue on the Appalachian Trail in North Carolina. To maintain a low camper to counselor ratio, the outdoor adventure camps have limited enrollment. Sign-up early to secure a spot.

Basketball Camp: May 29–June 1, 9 a.m.–noon, grades one–eight, $100.

Waterfalls and Swimming Holes: June 4–8, 9 a.m.–3 p.m., grades five–seven, $200.

Soccer Camp: June 11–15, 9 a.m.–3 p.m., grades three–eight, $200.

Appalachian Adventure: June 18–22, 9 a.m.–3 p.m., grades eight–11, $600.

All-Sports Camp: July 2–3 and 5–6, 9 a.m.–3 p.m., grades one–six, $200.

Information about these camps and online registration are available at <sasweb.org/summer>.

SAS Summer isn't just for children. Adults enjoy Shakerag Workshops <sasweb.org/shakerag_workshops>, two one-week residential arts classes held in June that welcome instructors and participants from across the country and around the world.

All programs take place on the school's beautiful 550-acre mountain-top campus. For more information, go to <sasweb.org/summer>.

NATURENOTES

Great Horned Owl

We have been hearing the call of the great horned owl after dark this past week or two. It is likely the territorial call of the male, a low soft hooting, with the second and third hoots shorter, and ending in two slower hoots, as: hoo hoo-hoo HOO HOO. We haven't heard the female, but her call, while similar, is higher-pitched and usually shorter. These owls mate and nest early, in the winter, commonly using the old nest of some other large bird such as a hawk or heron. They range through all of North America and part of South America and live in a wide variety of habitats. If one is asked to draw an owl or imitate its call, this is probably the one that will come to mind. It is our largest owl (except for the great grey owl, which is boreal and rare to uncommon) and is a fierce predator with no enemies except other great horned owls. It takes a wide variety of prey, from tiny rodents and even scorpions to rabbits, skunks, house cats, and other owls, including our familiar barred owl. In fact, we have been hearing the great horned owl more frequently than we used to, and the barred owl (Who cooks for you? Who cooks for you all?) less frequently, which makes us wonder if the first may be driving the other away.

The great horned owl has ear tufts, widely spaced on its head, and yellow eyes, while the barred owl has no tufts and brown eyes. These tufts are just feathers, not ears—the owl's ears are located on the sides of its head, behind the eyes. The feathers of the facial disk, the rounded, flattish part of the owl's "face", help direct sound to these ears. The eyes are fixed in their sockets, so the owl turns its whole head to direct its gaze. It can turn its head up to 180 degrees. Both eyes and ears are highly specialized to help the owl find its prey in the darkness in which it hunts.

Pets of the Week

Meet Meiko & Sir Kay

Animal Harbor offers these two delightful pets for adoption.

Meiko is a jolly three-month-old male Doberman mix. He is always delighted to see people and canine companions alike. Meiko loves to go for walks and enjoys playing fetch. He is heartworm-negative and up-to-date on shots, and he will be microchipped and neutered before adoption.

Sir Kay is a very regal five-month-old male Domestic Short Hair kitten. He loves to talk to his subjects, enjoys only the best treats and toys, and loves to mingle with his fellow felines. Sir Kay is FIV/FelV negative, up-to-date on shots, microchipped and neutered.

Animal Harbor offers substantial adoption fee discounts for veterans and seniors. Pets adopted from Animal Harbor qualify for a free post-adoption wellness exam by local veterinarians.

Find "The One" this Valentine's Day with the help from Animal Harbor. Your Furever Love is there and waiting for you! They will have week-long adoption specials and an open house on Tuesday, Feb. 13, from 4 to 6 p.m.

Animal Harbor is located at 56 Nor-Nan Road, off AEDC Road, in Winchester. Call Animal Harbor at (931) 962-4472 for information and check out the other pets at <animalharbor.org>. Enter the drawing on this site for a free spay or neuter for one of your pets. Help Animal Harbor continue to save abandoned pets by sending donations to Animal Harbor, P.O. Box 187, Winchester, TN 37398.

Herbarium Events

Nature Journaling—A group meets for nature journaling on Thursdays from 9–11 a.m. Bring an unlined journal (or a few sheets of unlined paper) and a pen or pencil. No experience needed. Meet in Woods Lab room G-10.

Herbarium Tour and Mountathon—Meet Herbarium Curator Mary Priestley at the Sewanee Herbarium, Spencer Hall, Saturday, Feb. 17, 9:30–11:30 a.m. Come help us mount our backlog of specimens. Learn methods that have been passed down through generations and are still used today, and take home a guide to mounting pressed plants. The main entrance is across from duPont Library and there is parking behind the library.

Community Botanical Art Show—Stirling's Coffeehouse, Feb. 23–March 21. This show is sponsored by the Sewanee Herbarium. The opening reception will be from 3:30–5:30 p.m., Friday, Feb. 23. A range of artwork including pressed flowers, stitch work, journal sketches, cut work, paintings, and more by community members and students.

State Park Offerings

Please note: To confirm that these events will occur as listed go to <<http://tnstateparks.com/parks/events/southcumberland/#?park=south-cumberland>> or call (931) 924-2980.

Saturday, Feb. 10

Winter Tree ID—Join Park Ranger Nicholas Mann at 11:30 a.m. at Savage Gulf Ranger Station, 3177 State Road 399, Palmer, for an approximately 3.5-mile hike down toward Savage Falls to learn about several of Tennessee's tree species. Because the trees aren't bearing leaves, winter tree identification can be tricky. You'll have an excellent opportunity to witness the diversity of our area. Bring water, sturdy foot wear, and be sure to dress appropriately for the weather. This series will go on rain or shine!

Firecraft: A Wilderness Survival Course—Join Park Ranger James Holland at 2 p.m. at Savage Gulf Ranger Station, 3177 State Road 399, Palmer, to learn various methods of lighting a fire without matches. Instruction will include using a ferro rod, fire from batteries, flint and steel, burning lens, fire piston, and friction fire with the bow drill.

The Truth About Snakes—Come to the SCSP Visitors' Center, 11745 U.S. Hwy. 41, Monteagle, at 2 p.m. to see Park Ranger Jessie McNeal and her very misunderstood friend, Cornbread the Corn Snake. Learn about our native snakes and why they are very important to our environment. This is a great opportunity for those who are afraid of snakes to face their fears and learn why we need these beautiful creatures. Don't forget to bring your questions!

Friday, Feb. 16

Savage Gulf History—Come to Savage Gulf Ranger Station at 5 p.m. for a discussion with Ranger Nicholas Mann. Enjoy hot chocolate and roast marshmallows while you learn how and why Savage Gulf was given the important designation Natural Area. Be sure to wear weather-appropriate clothing!

The South Cumberland State Park Visitors' Center is located on Highway 41 South between Monteagle and Tracy City and is open 8 a.m.–4:30 p.m. seven days a week. For more information call (931) 924-2980.

ARE YOU REGISTERED TO VOTE?

Register to vote online from your computer, tablet or mobile device. Tennessee's online voter registration system offers a convenient way for people to easily register to vote or change their address if they move. The system allows U.S. citizens with a driver's license or photo ID issued by the Tennessee Department of Safety and Homeland Security to register online.

You can also download a Tennessee voter registration application and submit it to your county election commission.

Tennesseans must still register online or use a paper form at least 30 days before an election to vote.

You can also check your status or learn more about the registration process.

Go to <http://www.govotetn.com> for more information.

Tennessee ranks at the bottom in the nation for voter turnout. Tennessee ranks 40th in the nation for voter registration. More than 838,000 Tennesseans are not registered to vote, and 60 percent are under the age of 45!

BARDTOVERSE

by Phoebe Bates

Sewanee Jazz Society Reunion Feb. 8-11 Valentine's Day, Feb. 14

Thy vacant brow, and thy tousled hair
Conceal thy good intent
Thou noble upright truthful sincere,
And slightly dopey gent
You're my funny valentine,
Sweet comic valentine,
You make me smile with my heart.
Your looks are laughable, un-photographable,
Yet, you're my favorite work of art.
Is your figure less than Greek?
Is your mouth a little weak?
When you open it to speak, are you smart?
But, don't change a hair for me.
Not if you care for me.
Stay little valentine, stay!
Each day is Valentine's Day
Is your figure less than Greek?
Is your mouth a little weak?
When you open it to speak, are you smart?
But, don't change a hair for me.
Not if you care for me.
Stay little valentine, stay!
Each day is Valentine's Day

—My Funny Valentine, as sung by Ella Fitzgerald; lyrics by Lorenz and Hart
