Works of the South Cumberland on View in July

Locals Gallery in Sewanee will host "Works of the South Cumberland," an exhibit by five artists, July 8–21. The subjects of the works are landscapes, plants and animals painted at South Cumberland State Park. An opening reception will be held on Thursday, July 8, 4–6 p.m. Musical entertainment will be provided by an ensemble from the Sewanee Summer Music Festival.

The artists are Sewanee resident Jim Ann Howard, Chattanoogan Janis Wilkey, and Nashvillians Margy Brooks, Susan McGrew and Irene Wills. All have a deep appreciation for the beauty of the park and its immense ecological importance.

Howard's works from the Fiery Gizzard were shown at the Zeitgeist Gallery in Nashville in 2000. Wilkey's "Watershed: Prime Elements," focusing on the South Cumberland, was featured in Chattanooga's In-Town Gallery for the month of February 2010. McGrew's "Fiery Gizzard Series" was exhibited this past winter at the Parthenon in Nashville.

Locals Gallery, located at 49 University Ave., is open Tuesday–Saturday, 11 a.m.–5 p.m. For information call 598-0400.

University Hosts Vice Chancellors' Leave Taking and Beginning

A brief gathering in All Saints' Chapel will mark the "Leave Taking and Beginning" of the University's 15th and 16th vice-chancellors. The service will be held at 9 a.m. on Thursday, July 1, and the community is invited.

After 10 years of service, Joel Cunningham will assume his new role on July 1 as vice chancellor emeritus and a professor of mathematics. On the same day, John M. McCardell Jr. will officially begin his work as Sewanee's 16th vice chancellor.

McCardell was elected by the University Board of Trustees in January following a national search. A distinguished historian and national leader in liberal arts education, he was a professor of history at Middlebury College in Vermont and served as Middlebury's president from 1992 until he stepped down in 2004.

Cunningham and McCardell will each offer brief remarks, which will be followed by short prayers and a hymn; the entire service is expected to last about 20 minutes. McCardell and his wife, Bonnie, invite those attending the gathering to a reception in Chen Hall at its conclusion.

Planning is underway for McCardell's formal installation as vice-chancellor during the University's Founders' Day Convocation on Tuesday, Oct. 12, 2010.

Guten Tag, Y'all–German Seminar Returns to Sewanee

"Sommer in Sewanee," a German language and cultural seminar, returned to the University on June 20, with Roland Fischer of Linz, Austria, and Petra Reuter and Shelly Stroleny both of Miami, Fla., serving as co-directors. Fischer is a lecturer at the Universities of Linz and of Vienna.

Reuter is German language advisor at the German General Consulate in Miami and Stroleny is assistant principal at G. W. Carver Middle School in Coral Gables, Fla.

"The seminar is an exciting opportunity for teachers of German, students and other German speakers to use German exclusively in a total immersion environment," Fischer said. "It lets participants catch up on recent cultural political trends, events and changes in German speaking countries."

As a full immersion seminar, Sommer in Sewanee offers four transferable Sewanee credits to high school teachers, graduate, undergraduate and qualified high school students of German.

The topic for the 2010 seminar is "Crossing Borders: German in the European Union" with presentations by guest speakers, film screenings, and small group discussions. Participants have the opportunity to develop classroom materials and

Serving Where Called

Six years ago this column began to support the large number of reservists and National Guard members called up for active duty to serve in the war in Iraq. About 120,000 troops remain in Iraq to support and train their military and assist with counterterrorism.

On Dec. 1, President Barack Obama announced he is sending 30,000 additional troops to Afghanistan to focus on reversing the Taliban's momentum. They will join the 68,000 troops currently deployed in this volatile area.

This is a reminder that someone else is standing guard and facing fire for us. Please keep the following individuals, their families and all those who fight for freedom in your prayers:

Music series presents an all Schubert program with two works from the final months of Schubert's life—the soothing Notturno for Piano Trio, featuring Harvey Thurmer, Natasha Farny and John Hammond, and the Klavierstucke in E-flat Minor (a posthumously published "piano piece") performed by Bill Wolfram, bronze medalist at the International Tchaikovsky Piano Competition. Also on the program are the famous Liszt transcription of Schubert's "Du Bist Die Ruh," performed by Wolfram, and the monumental Octet in F for winds and strings.

On Sunday Brahms's Symphony No. 2 will be performed at 3:30 p.m., with guest conductor Benjamin Rous and the Sewanee Symphony, along with Ligeti's other-worldly "Atmospheres." Opening the program at 2:30, guest conductor John Kilkenny, SSMF alum and director of percussion at George Mason University, will lead the Philharmonia Orchestra, performing Bizet's Carmen Suite No. 1, Berlioz's "Hungarian March" from The Damnation of Faust, and Dvorák's Slavonic Dance No. 8.

The third Faculty Chamber Music concert on Wednesday evening, June 30, at 7:30 p.m. will be led off by violinist Lin He playing Bach's Partita No. 3 in E Major, followed by one of Antoine Reicha's jaunty wind quintets. Finally, Harvey Thurmer, Paul York, and Bill Wolfram team up for Mendelssohn's stunning Piano Trio in D Minor.

Admission for ticketed concerts is $10, available online at <musicfestival.sewanee.edu> and at the door 30 minutes before the start of each concert. Season tickets and other packages are also available online.

Hudgins is a television screenwriter and producer who has worked on such series as Everwood, Past Life, and Friday Night Lights. For his work on the last, he received three nominations for Writers' Guild Awards, and the program itself won the prestigious Peabody Award for Excellence in Television. A native of Texas, Hudgins was educated at Duke University and the Dedman School of Law at Southern Methodist University and worked for several years as a trial and appellate lawyer before turning his hand to screenwriting. He lived in Monteagle for several years, but moved with his family to Hollywood after selling a screenplay to LeVar Burton's production company. He will discuss his own experiences in screenwriting and the art itself, including an account of the process by which idea becomes screenplay. His talk is scheduled for 4:30 p.m. Thursday, July 1, in Gailor Auditorium.

Letters

READER DISAPPOINTED WITH EDITORIAL POLICY
To the Editor:

I fully understand the Mountain Messenger's need to cut off some hotly discussed topics due to space issues. However, I disagree with the sequence of a recent topic. It is poor policy to have allowed this topic to run an odd number of weeks—three. This is especially true in light of Mrs. Stapleton's slur of the nearly 300,000 Tennessee Handgun Permit holders by her reference to "vigilante justice" in a June 10, 2010, letter. The Messenger should either have cut off the topic after the first week of responses or continued for another week. Also, a notification on the letters page when a subject is being embargoed would be helpful. A lack of such notice gives the impression that letters the previous week had somehow won the day. Certainly not in this case!

E-H Hospital Update

Employee Recognition

Emerald-Hodgson Hospital (EHH) named Torina Burnette as the Employee Honoree for May. Torina joined EHH three years ago as an Emergency Department registration clerk. She resides in Cowan with her boyfriend who works at the University of the South. They enjoy being part of the Sewanee community, Torina says. The couple is expecting their first child in October, and Torina is very excited about being a new mother. She was selected for recognition in a random drawing among all EHH employees having May birthdays. As the Employee of the Month she received use of a close-in parking space during May, and a gift basket containing movie tickets and other goodies. Congratulations Torina Burnette!

State of the Hospital

Observation visits were 30 percent higher than expected during the month of May, according to EHH Administrator Ralph Underwood. There was an increase in the number of general admissions compared to May of 2009, although outpatient visits, emergency room visits, and skilled care admissions were down slightly compared to last year.

Fourth of July Cake Contest Details Announced

Calling all bakers! Time to get out your favorite cake recipe (or try a new one) to bake and enter in Sewanee's holiday cake contest with the theme "Star Spangled 4th." By 10 a.m. on July 3, bring your cake to the Sewanee Trust for Historic Preservation's Heritage House (the blue house on University Avenue next to Hunter Hall).

There will be two age groups for entrants, 12 years of age and under, and 13 years of age and over. One entry per person, please. Entrants in each age group will vie for ribbons in the following categories: Best Theme, Best Taste and Best Presentation. The cake which best depicts all three categories will be designated the Grand Prize cake and will earn its baker a $15 prize as well as the Grand Prize ribbon.

Judging will begin shortly after 10 a.m. This year's judges are Darlene Amacher, Henry Chase and Janice Thomas. After the judging is complete, the public may view and admire the cakes from 11:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. The Grand Prize winning cake will be auctioned to the highest bidder in a silent auction, which will take place during this time and ends at 1 p.m.

The Sewanee Woman's Club, sponsor of the contest, invites everyone for a bite of cake served from the porch of the Heritage House beginning at 1 p.m.

For further information call Pixie Dozier (598-5869) or Elaine Goleski (931-924-3227).

Be sure to enter your favorite canine companion in the "Star Spangled 4th" Mutt Show to be held on Saturday, July 3! According to Jim Pierce, Mutt Show coordinator, this year's show offers a way to help animals in need: participants are asked to give a voluntary $5 entry fee, which will be donated to Animal Harbor, our Franklin County Humane Society animal shelter.

The Mutt Show registration form can be found on page 14. Registration is from 9 to 9:50 a.m. The show begins at 10 a.m. in Manigault Park.

Lizzie Duncan is the show's emcee, and the judges are Steve Burnett, Nanette Rudolf and Nancy Boykin.

Holiday Parking and Road Closings

University Avenue will be blocked to automobile traffic between Highway 41A and the Duck River Electric Membership Co-op (DREMC) from 6:30 a.m. on July 3, to provide for pedestrian travel downtown for the festivities. If you must visit a downtown business, you can drive up Reed's Lane and park in the Regions Bank rear parking lot. Parking will also be restricted around Elliot Park (near the bookstore).

Parking will be allowed on University Avenue beyond Duck River until 1 p.m., at which time all vehicles must be removed in preparation for the parade beginning at 2 p.m. There will be signs posted on University Avenue with this information.

Texas Avenue will be closed from University Avenue to Lake Cheston for the fireworks. Only handicapped persons will be allowed to drive to the lake. All cars which drive to Lake Cheston will be required to wait till pedestrians are out before they may leave.

There will be a shuttle bus running from 9 a.m. until after the parade, from the Duck River office, up University Avenue to the Arts & Crafts Fair, to Fulford Hall and back. Ample parking is available behind Fulford Hall.

Please be sure to express your appreciation to the many volunteers who make Sewanee's July 4th such a fantastic experience.

May we all have a safe and happy holiday!

Street Dance Kicks Off Fourth Celebration on Friday

The annual Street Dance will be held on Friday, July 3, from 8 p.m. until 12 a.m. to kick off this year's "Star Spangled 4th" celebration, according to Shellie Green, coordinator.

The dance will held on Lake O'Donnell Road between the Sewanee Market and Steve Green Construction. Bring your chairs and wear your dancing shoes!

The new band this year is Ginger & Live Wire. Rain location is Cravens Hall on Kentucky Avenue.

Fourth Fireworks Safety Area at Lake Cheston

Stephen Burnett, Sewanee Fourth of July chair, and Chief David Green of the Sewanee Volunteer Fire Department request that the public respect the 800-foot boundary surrounding the launch pad of the fireworks on July 4, at Lake Cheston.

This year yellow tape will mark the "off-limits area," and all are requested to honor this demarcation.

In 2008, a serious safety breach occurred when two youngsters emerged from the woods and approached dangerously close to the launch pad.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation, and be sure to remind your children of this precaution.

Parade Sign-Up, Route Information

Join in the action and fun and enter Sewanee's "Star Spangled 4th" parade, with Vice Chancellor-Elect John McCardell serving as Grand Marshal. Trophies will be awarded for the best-decorated float, vehicle, bicycle and horse entry. You must be in line by 1 p.m. on Saturday, July 3, to be judged. Follow signs for line up on Lake O'Donnell; enter Lake O'Donnell Road off US41A across from Finney Lane. The parade begins at Lake O'Donnell Road and ends at the Sewanee Inn. Please remain in your assigned parade location while on the parade route. At the end of the parade please do not stop at the Sewanee Inn either continue on to the highway or turn right on Faculty Circle and then right onto Torian Road. This will help the flow of traffic.

To enter the parade or for questions, call parade coordinator Tracie Sherrill at 598-0040. Volunteers are needed on the day of the parade to help with the lineup and any other needs Tracie may have. If you can help, please call her.

Cool Off at the Dunking Booth!

The annual Dunking Booth will be located at Harold and Christine Thomas's filling station on University Ave. The dunking will begin at 11 a.m., and the dunkee will change about every 20 minutes. Take this opportunity to dunk your favorite volunteer. The price is the same as in years past: three balls for $1.

Larry Stephens will be the first to take the plunge, followed by Otey Parish's Father Joe. TigerSharks will especially enjoy dunking their assistant coaches, Anna Obermiller and Anthony Caskey.

Something new this year is the chance for kids to sit in the booth. During the last hour, kids may take the wet seat. A parent must be present to give written permission. The first volunteers will be William Gilchrist and Savannah Coker.

Holiday Schedule

The Sewanee Leaseholders and the Fourth of July Committee, in association with the University of the South and the Sewanee Civic Association, cordially invite the Sewanee community to celebrate the most American of all holidays by attending the 2010 "Star Spangled 4th" events on July 2–4. The community should note that the various events this year will be spread over three days:

- The festive street dance will be held Friday, July 2.
- Virtually all of the traditional daylight events will be on Saturday, July 3.
- Fireworks will commence at dusk on July 4 at Lake Cheston.

Stephen Burnette urges everyone to "save the dates and invite friends and family to the Mountain!"

The complete schedule will appear in next week's Messenger or can be downloaded now at <www.sewaneemessenger.com>.

Watermelon Slices at CCJP's Booth

Sewanee is in for a delicious, healthy treat at this year's Independence Day festivities on July 3. Stop by the Cumberland Center for Justice and Peace (CCJP) booth for a slice of locally grown watermelon from Keel Farm of McMinnville. Jump-Off Fire Hall Hosts Fourth Wiener Roast

The Jump-Off Community Fire Hall will host an open house wiener roast from 3 to 5 p.m. on Sunday, July 4. Hot dogs and all the fixin's, watermelon and sweet tea will be provided. Feel free to bring side dishes to share.

The Jump-Off Community had a fire hall cleanup day last Saturday. The community wanted to show appreciation for volunteer firefighters and first-response equipment in the Jump-Off neighborhood. For information contact Joan Thomas at 598-0535.

Enjoy Free Concert of Patriotic Music

The annual Fourth of July concert will take place on Saturday, July 3, in Guerry Hall and as the Sewanee Summer Music Festival's gift to the Sewanee community, it will be free. Led by Sewanee favorite Ken Kiesler, the program includes Frank Proto's "Casey at the Bat," the Tchaikovsky "1812 Overture," and patriotic favorites. And of course, look for the SSMF student "strollin' band" in the annual parade!

From Bard to Verse

by Scott and Phoebe Bates

A soft Sea washed around the House
A Sea of Summer Air
And rose and fell the magic planks
That sailed without a care—
For Captain was the Butterfly
For Helmsman was the Bee
And an entire universe
For the delighted crew.
