‘Much Ado About Nothing’ at Angel Park

by Bailey Basham, Messenger Staff Writer

For the second time this season, the University theatre department will welcome Shakespeare to the stage.

“Much Ado About Nothing” will open at 6 p.m., Tuesday, April 19 and run through Thursday, April 21, at Angel Park in downtown Sewanee. “Much Ado About Nothing” is the comedic story of two pairs of lovers and their antithetical approaches to romance. Claudio, a soldier in love with Hero, intends to marry his beloved, while Benedick, who despises marriage, attempts to guard himself from Beatrice, whom he has loved for much of his life.

The performance will be directed by Dakota Collins, a senior theatre major who played Hamlet in the fall production of “Hamlet.” Collins has been acting since he was 15, frequently spending summers with the Nashville Shakespeare Festival’s Apprentice Company program.

“What I love about directing is what I love about Shakespeare — it’s all there on the page. My job as I see it is to understand how the language works as thoroughly as I can, and then point the actors towards how they can see what Shakespeare’s written for them on the page and use that to help the audience see and hear the story. What I love is seeing the moment where it clicks and the actor feels the language in their body and the story is really there. It’s like magic,” Collins said.

Collins added that the show will feature puppetry designed and operated by costume designer Emma Miller.

Also taking part in the performance is junior Kristopher Kennedy, who will be playing the role of Benedick. Kennedy said he sees Benedick as a sort of fatalist, a soldier convinced that he will die any day and thus, looking for love is pointless.

“Benedick has always been one of my favorite characters in all of Shakespeare because that kind of emotional invulnerability masked by humor is something [that is] painfully relatable [to me]. Benedick’s arc is basically him moving from being a man who refuses to love to a man fully committed to love’s ideals and willing to risk his own life for them,” Kennedy said. “When he was younger, he probably didn’t think he’d live to see 30, and so he protected himself from surrendering to any of life’s loveliness, because he saw his own mortal soul as a liability in any permanent endeavor, like marriage.”

Throughout the play, Benedick is worn down by Beatrice’s wit, tenacity and independence. Kennedy describes the transformation Benedick undergoes as a complete one-eighty.

“Benedick made his life one of impermanence and transience, and so he blanches from the beautiful things in life that require others, including Beatrice, the woman he’s known and loved. But then suddenly he learns that all is not lost: Beatrice loves him, and this opens everything up — there’s hope for love, and with that hope, there’s suddenly a life worth living for. From then on, the rest of Benedick’s actions are informed by his love for Beatrice, and it’s a beautiful thing,” Kennedy said.

Season Finale for the SSO

by Bailey Basham, Messenger Staff Writer

The Sewanee Symphony Orchestra (SSO) will celebrate its season finale on Wednesday, April 20 with “Goodbye for Now: a Sondheim Memorial,” a production dedicated to the late legendary composer Stephen Sondheim.

The concert will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Guerry Auditorium, and repertoire will include “Send in the Clowns” and selections from Bernstein’s “West Side Story.” The symphony will be joined by vocal soloists Kerry Ginger, assistant professor of voice, and Erik Gustafson, instructor of voice.

Tiffany Lu, director of the SSO and visiting professor of orchestral conducting, said in addition to closing out the orchestra’s season, the finale concert will also pay homage to the late Sondheim.

“Sondheim was a giant of American composition, lyrics and theater music, and the final selection on our concert, ‘Goodbye for Now,’ is a poignant tribute to his contributions to our musical landscape today, as well as what we hope will be only a temporary farewell to seniors as they graduate and go on to do wonderful things in the world beyond the Domain,” Lu said.

In “Goodbye for Now: a Sondheim Memorial,” Ginger will perform a solo in “Send in the Clowns” from “A Little Night Music.”

“My first exposure to Sondheim was seeing a family member as ‘Rapunzel in Into The Woods.’ I also had friends get me into ‘Sweeney Todd and Company’ at various points in high school and college, but it really wasn’t until graduate school that I began to understand the extent of Sondheim’s work and to really see how perceptively he trained his eye on character,” Ginger said. “His death last November was a gut punch to so many theatergoers, musicians, directors and other creatives because of how very special his output has been.”

Ginger said she has long been a Sondheim fan and to take part in the SSO finale concert is her expression of gratitude for the composer and his work.

“Sondheim’s lyrics uniquely capture the complexity of his characters’ desires and objectives, and his music perfectly illustrates their inner emotions. Not a word or a note is wasted in Sondheim, nor does he spare any character from critique. He was a brilliant social satirist, but also wrote with great empathy and pathos. I hope our audience gets a sense of the variety and power of his works, from his incisive lyrics to his evocative musical soundscapes,” Ginger said.

Franklin County Schools Tackle Teacher Wage Gap

by Leslie Lytle
Messenger Staff Writer

At the April 11 meeting, after reviewing the certified-teacher salary increases proposed by the PECCA team, the Franklin County School Board recommended increasing base salaries an additional $500 in the hope of making wages at Franklin County schools competitive with neighboring Coffee, Lincoln, and Moore counties. “We’ve had a revolving door all year and open teaching positions,” said Linda Foster, Human Resources Supervisor. “We can’t hire teachers with our current pay scale.” The board also reviewed procedures to curtail e-cigarette use, agreed to stop routine drug testing of athletes, and heard presentations from the Franklin County NAACP and educators from Sewanee Elementary School.

PECCA refers to the Professional Educators Collaborative Conferencing Act of the Professional Educators of Tennessee. The Franklin County PECCA team who drafted the revised pay scale consisted of representatives from the Franklin County Education Association and the board of education management. The initial proposal called for increasing the base starting salary to $40,000 and adding a 22nd step, giving a salary increase to teachers employed longer than 21 years. Most neighboring school districts have 25 years-of-service steps and some have 30 steps, Foster said. The revised scale also incorporated more consistent multipliers for figuring the wage increase for each year of service. Implementing the proposed recommendations would cost $681,972.

Board member Sarah Marhevsky asked if the starting salary could increase to $40,500, pointing out neighboring school districts would likely increase their base salary as well, which could put Franklin County behind again.

Board member Sarah Liechty agreed, “If we could be a few dollars ahead of the curve, this might be the year we should look at that.” According to County Finance Director Andrea Smith, the financial outlook for the school district was favorable. “Property taxes are coming in really good, and sales tax amazingly keeps going up,” Smith said. She also cited federal COVID relief monies offsetting some of the district’s expenses.

Foster will revise the proposed scale adding $500 to the base wage at each years-of-service step. The board will review the cost and impact when they take up budgeting next month.

Director of Schools Stanley Bean presented an overview of the new procedures for addressing e-cigarettes. The procedures call for testing to determine if the vaping liquid contains THC or CBD. Vap-

Celebration of Jazz with the Charles Lloyd Trio

by Bailey Basham, Messenger Staff Writer

On April 21, the University will welcome world-renowned jazz saxophonist and flutist Charles Lloyd back to the Mountain for a celebration of jazz. Lloyd will be joined by Bill Frisell on guitar and Gerald Clayton on piano — the Charles Lloyd trio.

Lloyd, a Memphis native, began his career playing with some of the greatest jazz leaders, including Ornette Coleman and Cannonball Adderly. Over the course of his career, he has worked with musicians as diverse as Howlin’ Wolf and the Beach Boys. In recent years, Lloyd has worked with greats including Norah Jones, Zakir Hussain, Lucinda Williams and Willie Nelson.

Stephen Miller, chair of the music department, said from a musical standpoint, the Charles Lloyd Trio’s performance is exciting based solely on the caliber of musicianship the three men possess, but of particular note is how this concert came to be.

Lloyd played the Mountain twice back in the 1960s — in 1964 in support of Adderly’s sextet and again in 1967 as the frontman to the future star pianist, Keith Jarrett. It’s those performances and the upcoming concert that make Lloyd’s appearance in Sewanee seem like a true ‘full-circle’ moment.

“These concerts were under the auspices of the Sewanee Jazz Society, and at one of them, his performance mesmerized a certain Sewanee student in the crowd,” Miller said. “Buck Hinkle, Jr., became a life-long fan of Lloyd’s, followed him around the country, brought him to our attention and has helped to make this concert possible. The music literally changed Buck’s life, and for Lloyd — who is still a completely vibrant musician — to play Sewanee again late in his career seems just perfect. This performance will be something of a homecoming.”

In describing Lloyd’s sound, Miller said Lloyd relies heavily on his Tennessee roots but also draws from his time spent living and working in Los Angeles.

“He’s been on the road performing since around 1960. As all fans of jazz know, it’s an improvisatory genre and really must be heard live, so in terms of sheer aesthetics and musical beauty, this is a great opportunity for the community. Lloyd’s saxophone and flute will take you into other dimensions of existence, and Frisell on guitar and Clayton on keys both have similar qualities of transcendence,” Miller said.

The Charles Lloyd Trio will perform at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, April 21, in Guerry Auditorium.

Tickets are $20 each and may be purchased at <<https://ssmf.sewanee.edu/tickets/>>.

All Saints’ Chapel Holy Week Services

Growing in Grace continues Sunday at 6:30 p.m. There are just a few weeks left as we wrap up our theme, “Fruits of Our Labor.”

Evensong will be sung Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. in All Saints’ Chapel by Schola, the choir of the School of Theology. This worship service includes readings from the Bible and choral music. Those who attend are invited to sit in the main part of the Chapel or in the choir stalls with the singers.

The Catechumenate continues Wednesday, at 7 p.m. in All Saints’ Chapel. This week we will be walking the stations of the cross inside the Chapel. This way of prayer is a devotional walk that recounts Jesus carrying his cross on the way to death. Email Melissa Hartley for more information.

On Good Friday, beginning at noon, the Stations of the Cross will be offered for those who wish to observe a devotional walk that recounts Jesus carrying his cross on the way to Golgotha. This service will begin at the parish of St. Mark and St. Paul in downtown Sewanee and will end at All Saints’ Chapel.

Good Friday observances continue with a service at 1 p.m. with a dramatic reading of Jesus’ passion and death. A large cross will be brought into the Chapel, and those who wish to say a prayer before the cross are invited to do so.

Decorators needed for Easter: On Saturday morning, April 16, beginning at 9 a.m., volunteers are invited to help decorate the chapel for Easter services. All are welcome.

The Great Vigil of Easter brings Holy Week to a close on Saturday evening at 8 p.m., celebrating Jesus’ resurrection. This service begins with the lighting of a fire outside the Chapel. We move inside to hear from scripture stories of the times God has acted to save God’s people. Several college students and community members have been preparing for Confirmation, Reception, and Reaffirmation that will take place at this service.

Easter Day continues the celebration of Jesus’ resurrection with three services at 8 a.m., 11 a.m., and 6:30 p.m.

Christ Church Holy Week Services

On Good Friday, the service is at noon. While some churches have Tenebrae several times during Lent, Christ Church reserves this service for Good Friday. One by one the candles are extinguished after each reading. This is the record of the arrest, trial and crucifixion of Jesus. In thousands of churches, people sing “Were you there when the crucified my Lord?” Clergy and laity from area churches and some with no home church have come to Christ Church at noon on Good Friday. We hope those who read this will consider it a personal invitation.

On Holy Saturday there is a very brief service at noon. After this service, we decorate the church for Easter. We also offer “He is risen!” signs to all who wish to place one or more in their lawns or take them to others.

On Easter Day the service begins at 10:45 a.m. This Holy Communion is called “The Queen of Feasts.” Our Easter Buffet is open to all, as are all our services. We wish everyone blessings for Holy Week and for Easter tide.

Cowan Ministerial Association Holy Week

Good Friday Stations of the Cross Service, noon, Friday, April 15, at Goshen C.P. Church. The service recalls the arrest, trial, crucifixion, death and burial of Jesus. Goshen is located at 1262 Williams Cove Rd., between Cowan and Winchester.

Easter Sunrise Service, 6:30 a.m., Sunday, April 17, at Cowan Montgomery Cemetery. We will gather to remember and celebrate

Registrations Still Open for 'Make Lasting Connections Symposium'

More than 100 people have registered for the Make Lasting Connections Symposium to be held at the Sewanee Inn on April 20, and a few spaces are still available.

"We are really hoping to reach community, business, and nonprofit leaders who can work together to think about the change in our community," said Tom Sanders, executive director of South Cumberland Community Fund (SCCF). The event is cosponsored by SCCF and the University of the South's Office of Civic Engagement.

A highlight of the day will be a training session for organizations to compete in a $50,000 grant round. Applications will be accepted from multi-organizational teams working on a significant challenge. "We especially hope that people will attend who do not already have an idea about organizations with which they can collaborate," said Sanders. "Folks will have the opportunity to meet others, discover common interests, and think about how they can work together."

The symposium will deliver inspiring talks from accomplished professionals about social change, including Karen Proctor, Founder/Principal, Harbour Workshop LLC; Linsley Kinkade, senior program director for U.S. programs at Winrock International; and Whitney Kimball-Coe, national programs director for the Rural Assembly at the Center for Rural Strategies, who will deliver the keynote address. Kimball-Coe is a widely known leader in rural development, having spoken at the Aspen Institute and the Obama Foundation Summit.

Speakers will emphasize the idea of collaboration throughout the day. The all-day symposium will include breakfast and lunch and is free to the public.

Partner with the Summer Meal Program

In partnership with South Cumberland Community Fund, the University of the South's Office of Civic Engagement and Sewanee Dining announce sponsorship of the 2022 South Cumberland Summer Meal Program. This program is part of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Summer Food Service Program (SFSP). The SFSP program increases children's access to nutritious meals throughout the summer. It is administered in Tennessee by the Department of Human Services under an agreement with the USDA.

The 2022 South Cumberland Summer Meal program will operate from June 6 to July 31, partnering with youth-serving organizations in Grundy County and the towns of Monteagle and Winchester to provide nutritious meals free of charge to children and youth through age 18. Summer meal sites may request meals for any period of time during the program's operation, whether for just a few days or for the entire summer. Sites may request up to two meals per day per eligible child or youth. Meal options include breakfast, lunch, supper and snacks.

The South Cumberland Summer Meal Program is currently seeking organizations across the Plateau to act as summer meal sites. Summer meal sites distribute the free meals provided by Sewanee Dining, and offer learning and enrichment activities to area children and youth. Child-serving organizations hosting programs such as summer reading, summer school, vacation Bible school, summer camp, organized sports, art and enrichment opportunities are encouraged to participate as summer meal sites. Organizations that do not normally host programs for children may still enroll as summer meal sites by partnering with the South Cumberland Plateau VISTA Project to provide these activities.

If your organization is interested in becoming a South Cumberland Summer Meal site, please contact <sfpvista@gmail.com> prior to April 25.

ing THC falls under the category of a “zero tolerance” drug offense, Bean said, with alternative school the mandatory disciplinary action. For CBD vaping, less severe disciplinary action will apply. The rules will be enforced at all county schools beginning in the fall.

Bean recommended deleting the policy calling for routine drug testing of athletes. “It’s not much of a deterrent,” Bean said. Drug testing identifies few offenders since the students know when the testing will occur and costs $15,000-$20,000 annually. Bean proposed using the money for drug education instead. Neighboring school districts do not drug test. Bean will draft a replacement policy calling for drug testing of a student only when a coach or teacher suspects drug use.

The board voted to renew Interquest Detection Canines contract. The company provides canine drug searches. “[It’s] more effective than drug testing,” said board member Chris Guess, “because the students don’t know when they’re coming.” Only Bean knows when the searches will take place.

In other business the board approved a budget amendment for an HVAC unit at Huntland School, cost $500,000, and a resolution to enter into a contract for mental health tele-services, cost $55,891.

Marhevsky introduced discussion on the disciplinary procedures policy, recommending removing corporal punishment to address “nuisance” level two behaviors. Board Chair Cleijo Walker noted corporal punishment was second to last in the list of disciplinary options, and Guess pointed out it was rarely used. Liechty said the policy lacked positive strategies for transforming undesirable behavior. “Discipline is not teaching,” Liechty said. The board will revisit corporal punishment in May.

Franklin County NAACP Education Committee Chair Chris Colane read a statement addressing the recent investigation by the Tennessee Department of Education Office of Civil Rights, which found a violation of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. “The incidents of a racially hostile environment at Franklin County Schools are grossly incongruous with the goal of ensuring brighter futures for all our children...It is our duty to watch the process and stand guard for any improprieties in the resolution of the problem.”

Providing an overview of projects and programs at SES, teachers highlighted unique hands-on learning opportunities. The Forest Kindergarten spends part of every day in an outdoors classroom where learning curriculum and sensory awareness go hand in hand. The Friday School spring program allows children to choose from diverse activity-based classes ranging from farm care to screen printing taught by community members. The library curriculum includes an outdoors storybook trail and visiting local business to learn how they use reading. The biannual book fair raises more than $2,200 for purchase of supplies.

National Cornbread Festival Set for April 23 and 24

The National Cornbread Festival Committee is excited to announce that the National Cornbread Festival will return for its 25th year this April 23 and 24, in South Pittsburg. More than 25,000 festival-goers from throughout the southeast are expected to gather here to enjoy the sights, sounds and tastes of the 25th National Cornbread Festival (NCF). Located 30 miles west of Chattanooga, this quaint southern town hosts a celebration of cornbread, often considered the cornerstone of southern cuisine.

Admission to the NCF is $10 (Preschool & under Free), with the option to purchase a 2-day pass for $15. Tickets will be sold in advance at the National Cornbread Festival Office, online, or at the festival gates.

One of the highlights of the festival is the National Cornbread Cook-off sponsored by Lodge Cast Iron, Cracker Barrel, Bush's Beans, Jack Daniel's, and Martha White. The contest features 10 finalists from throughout the United States. The cook-off is a main dish or entrée contest, with a packet of Martha White Cornmeal and a piece Lodge seasoned cast iron cookware as the required tools. The finalists' recipes are selected by the Cornbread Cook-off committee before the event.

Fans of cornbread will enjoy a wide range of delicious cornmeal creations in Cornbread Alley (admission to Cornbread Alley is $8). Each year the recipe variety changes, and they are always lip-smacking good. Next to Cornbread Alley is a food court with vendors selling southern favorites like BBQ, funnel cakes, fried turkey legs, water/soft drinks and much more.

From Cedar Avenue's 1st Street to 4th Street, five stages, including the historic Princess Theatre, feature more than 50 musical acts on Saturday and Sunday. Additionally, the streets of the festival are filled with the sounds of country, bluegrass, blues, old-time fiddlers, southern gospel, jazz and rock throughout the weekend. Check out <www.nationalcornbread.com/music> for updates in late March.

Other activities at the NCF include more than 100 arts and crafts vendors and a themed children's corner with games and inflatables.

The NCF features exhibits like antique tractors, blacksmith and glass blowing demonstrations, plus a huge carnival. Other attractions are tours of historic South Pittsburg, a 5K road race, and, new this year, a Gran Fondo bike ride.

Sunday's schedule includes an ecumenical service and pancake breakfast as well as the other events featured on Saturday.

If attendees are courageous, they can compete in cornbread eating contests, buttermilk chugging races or a frozen T-shirt contest.

Be sure to tour the Lodge Cast Iron Cookware foundry. The company is the oldest family-owned cookware company in the U.S., and Festival weekend is the only time that the foundry is open to the public.

Hospitality Shop News

The Garage: An Archeological Dig

The Hospitality Shop will be closed Saturday, April 16.

Well, your house is now Spring Clean for Easter. We've saved the challenge for last: the garage. Just how often do we fear hail in Sewanee such that a car must be sequestered under the safety of a garage roof? Perhaps there are fewer mice and chipmunks to set up nests in the car air filter if the car is in the garage? Whatever the good argument for a clear shot from garage door to the tennis ball hanging on a rope from the rafters that shows where to stop forward motion, few of us keep a garage for our cars.

Daunting as a fully packed garage can be, do you really want to leave those boxes behind for your children to deal with? Public television now has a reality show Legacy List about families wrestling with a grandparent's bounty. Most shows end with only a small box of treasures. Once again multiple garbage bags are in order; one for trash and one for Hospitality Shop donations. Perhaps a few large bins for the real keepers? If there are signs of mildew (a common Sewanee growth no matter what the season), into the toss bag it goes. Anything can mildew in the Sewanee temperate rainforest clime. Children's pre-school hand paintings, an older son's baseball uniform (why isn't it in HIS garage?), car seats for visiting grandchildren who have now outgrown the under 50-pound size; all of these can grow that fertile green fuzz reversam lepram.

Hard objects, like an adult brother's handloom, circa 1960, can sometimes be salvaged with a good scrub. Then send it off to the Hospitality Shop craft corner that is also stocked with a variety of yarns to weave on said loom. Realistically, a garage may take more than one week to cull, but there are still three days until Easter! Perhaps that empty garage can protect the car from Sewanee's other green fuzz: tree pollen?

We know that semester burdens are looming. Come in for a bit of shopping therapy and a chat with a clerk, most of whom have been there, done that. Spring and summer clothes are on display. Check out the girls' dresses hanging in the children's room. Many still have the original price tags, but we are selling them for $5-10.

Hospitality Shop hours are 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., Tuesday and Thursday, and 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday. We take cash or check. We are always looking for volunteers. Contact Manager Jennifer Janeway at <jejaneway99@gmail.com> if you have a few free hours to help clerk or stock shelves.

The Cumberland Forest School Summer Programs

The Cumberland Forest School, located in Sewanee, is dedicated to educating students in Sewanee and neighboring communities using the outdoors as the classroom. Our vision is to support students on their journey to becoming compassionate, self-sufficient, and mindful individuals. We accomplish this goal by providing them with a supportive and safe learning environment, trusting them with real responsibility, and establishing everlasting bonds with the natural world.

During the school year, we offer our Forest & Farm Preschool program that is located on 4 acres of private land owned by friends of the Cumberland Forest School. Complete with a covered porch classroom, forested play space, and natural spring, this location is the perfect spot for Forest School. Additionally, students get to experience the magic of farm life, tending to a small flock of chickens and the family greenhouse. At Forest & Farm School, students will receive individualized care and attention with a 1:5 teacher/student ratio, as well as a Reggio-Emilia focused approach to curriculum and learning. Programming each day is largely student-led, focusing on the interests and needs of the children.

During the summer, the Cumberland Forest School is offering three sessions of camp for different age groups: Preschool Forest Play day camp for ages 3-5 (July 11-15), Elementary Outdoor Exploration day camp for ages 6-11 (June 27-July 1), and Cumberland Expeditions overnight expedition-style camp for ages 15-17 (June 14-22).

For more information about the school or summer camp offerings, please visit the website <www.cumberlandforestschool.org> or send an email to <cumberlandforestschool@gmail.com>.

Women's Tennis Secures 50th Straight SAA Win

The No. 7 University of the South women's tennis team improved to 50-0 all-time in Southern Athletic Association (SAA) contests, as the Tigers blanked the Warriors of Hendrix College, 9-0, April 10, from the University of Central Arkansas Tennis Courts.

Sewanee had doubles handled, as the top two points posted shut-outs, Natalia Nassar and Caroline Adams at the No. 1 and Emma Caldwell and Carolyn Reid at the No. 2.

In singles, Natalia Nassar (11-3) picked up her first win at the No. 1 flight this season with a 6-0, 6-1 set victory.

Caroline Adams picked up her eighth win overall and improved to 6-1 this spring at the No. 2, while Emma Caldwell (6-2) improved to 5-1 this spring with the victory at the No. 3.

Sewanee won its 50th consecutive SAA regular season match on Sunday. Since the inception of the league in 2013, the University of the South has never lost an SAA contest, regular season or postseason.

In 10 years of women's tennis in the SAA, the Tigers are 277-13 (95.5 percent) in singles and 130-14 (90.3 percent) in doubles.

Men's Tennis Improves Win Streak to Five at Hendrix

The University of the South men's tennis team secured a 7-1 victory at Hendrix College in Southern Athletic Association (SAA) play from the University of Central Arkansas tennis courts on April 10.

Sewanee allowed Hendrix to just two games in doubles, outscoring the Warriors, 24-2. Liam Baer and Matt Barnett earned the shutout at the No. 2., while Noah Holsclaw and Jackson Davis did the same at the No. 3 flight.

After a slow start, Jackson Davis picked up his fourth straight win in singles as he swept his opponent at the No. 4.

Baer improved to 6-0 overall in singles with his 6-2, 6-0 win off Brayden Bolch at the No. 5, while Liam Selvido also blanked his opponent at the No. 6 for his seventh win of the season.

Softball Walks Off Twice to Earn Doubleheader Sweep on Senior Day

The University of the South softball team posted back-to-back walk-off victories over the Mississippi University for Women (MUW), 6-5 and 11-10, April 9, from the Tiger Softball as a part of Senior Day.

In game one, the Owls dented the scoreboard first thanks to a Sewanee error. However, the Tigers responded in a loud way in the bottom half of the frame, as Alice Charboneau launched a two-run shot to give Sewanee the lead, 2-1.

MUW came back and tied the game in the top of the second with an RBI double.

Tied at two in the bottom of the third, Charboneau went yard again for a two-out bomb to give Sewanee the lead again, 3-2. MUW, unfortunately for the Sewanee fans, would not go away, as the Owls responded with another RBI double to even the game at three runs each.

The Tigers would get the bats going again in the fifth. After Kendall Goodrum led off the frame with a base knock, Sam Dean and Maggie Willis moved up around the base paths on groundouts. With Goodrum at third, Hanna Judycki and Charboneau posted back-to-back doubles to make the lead in favor of the Purple Tigers, 5-3.

The lead would not stand, as the Owls came screeching back in the seventh with two runs of their own to even the game at five. Sewanee had the winning run in the bottom of the seventh at second base, but she could advance no further. So, the game would go into extras.

In non-conference games, both coaches must agree pre-game on what inning a runner would be placed at second base in extra innings. The coaches agreed with the eighth inning.

The Owls had the bases loaded with nobody out in the eighth, and the Tigers held them right there thanks to a force out at the plate, interference and a pop out.

In the bottom of the eighth, with Sarah Wright placed on second base and two outs, Zoe Crockett got a little help from the Owl defense and Wright came across the plate for the winning run.

In game 2, The bats came to life for Sewanee in the night cap, as the Tigers led 9-3 after three innings.

MUW added three runs in the fourth and sixth to even the game at nine runs each going into the seventh inning.

The Owls capitalized on a leadoff single to give the visitors its first lead of the day, 10-9.

In the bottom of the seventh, with two outs and the tying run at second base, the Tigers put together a big rally. After Sam Dean was hit by a pitch, Maggie Willis's fourth hit of the game scored Zoe Crockett to even the game at 10 runs each.

After Hanna Judycki was beamed with a pitch, Alice Charboneau posted the game-winning base hit down the right field line to bring Dean home and give Sewanee the second walk-off of the day.

Alice Charboneau recorded a perfect day at the plate in game one with three extra base hits: two home runs and a double and added four RBI and two runs scored.

In game two, Maggie Willis went a perfect 4-for-4 at the plate, including scoring the tying run on a RBI single.

Michaela Walker (4-13) earned both wins of the twin bill in the circle, tossing 11 innings in total. In game one, she went the distance and allowed four earned runs. In the night cap, she went three in relief with four runs allowed and struck out three batters.

Men's Lacrosse Sends Class of 2022 Off Right with Double OT Thriller Versus Rhodes

The University of the South men's lacrosse team had a double overtime thriller with Rhodes College on April 10 from historic Hardee-McGee Field at Harris Stadium, as the Tigers defeated the Lynx, 13-12.

Prior to face off, six Sewanee seniors were recognized: Hampton Brannon, Ethan Edwards, Ryan Hofstetter, Jack Lambeth, Drew Mullen and Rucker Wilkinson.

The Tigers and the Lynx went back and forth in the first half. Sewanee netted the first three goals of the game before Rhodes responded with two goals. Davis Gillenwater gave Sewanee the 4-2 lead with 3:43 left in the period.

Rhodes added two more goals in the final minutes of the period to even the game at four goals apiece.

Gillenwater recorded a man-up goal to give the Tigers the lead again, 6-5 with 8:10 left in the half. However, the Lynx responded with two more goals to give the visitors the 7-6 lead at the halftime horn.

Trailing 9-8 going into the fourth quarter, the Purple Tigers netted three straight goals, including a man-up goal by Ryan Hofstetter to make it an 11-9 affair with 9:41 left in the regulation.

The Tigers made it a 12-10 lead with eight minutes left in the game, but Rhodes used two late goals to force the game into overtime.

After each team could not find the back of the net in the first four minutes of overtime, the contest went into double overtime. Rhodes put themselves in a situation at the 2:17 mark in the period, as Grant Jenson went to the penalty box for a slashing penalty. Luke Valentine responded with a man-up goal to send the fans home happy.

Ryan Hofstetter and Davis Gillenwater tallied four points. Hofstetter posted two goals and assists each, while Gillenwater recorded a hat trick and added an assist.

Charlie Warren won 16 face offs on Sunday with eight ground balls.

Women's Lacrosse Knocks Off Warriors

The University of the South women's lacrosse team took down Hendrix College, 18-5, in a Southern Athletic Association (SAA) contest on April 9 from Puett Field as the Tigers celebrated Senior Day on the Domain.

Prior to the opening draw, six seniors on the University of the South women's lacrosse team were recognized: Hattie Fogarty, Sarah Hughes, Haley Lewis, Hadley Meadows, Molly Morris and Jocelyn Riopel.

Sewanee rolled to a 4-0 lead in the first four minutes of the game en route to a 7-0 start in the first 5:12 of the contest.

The Tigers recorded a 13-0 lead at the half and 16-0 before the Warriors found the back of the cage in the fourth quarter.

The Purple and White improve to 8-0 all-time against Hendrix, outscoring the Warriors 130-53 in the series.

Ten different Tigers scored on Saturday, led by Hattie Fogarty's five goals. The Memphis native also won nine draw controls.

SAS Varsity Boys' Soccer Ties Collegedale Academy in District Play

SAS scored first at the 21st minute with a direct kick by senior captain Tyler Rodgers. The rest of the first half remained scoreless. Collegedale scored quickly 4 minutes and 6 minutes into the second half. The rest of the second half remained scoreless until the last 2 minutes when sophomores Raulston Barnett and Agustin Diez Rosety combined to develop a fast counterattack, connecting with senior captain Cyril Adipo, who buried the ball in the back of the net. SAS had 11 shots to Collegedale's 23 shots. SAS keeper Ryan Ostrowski made 21 saves on the game.

A Big Full Moon

The full moon this Saturday, April 16, at 1:55 p.m. CDT, is the moon that determines the dates of Easter and of Passover. But the calculations are mind-bogglingly complicated. For Easter, the date is basically the Sunday after the first full moon after the vernal equinox. The date of the vernal equinox can vary, however, from March 19 to March 22 and can depend on the time zone. So, the Church has designated March 21 as the one to be used for determining the date of Easter. But wait, there's more—not only may the vernal equinox used in the calculation not be the actual astronomical equinox, the full moon date may not be that of the actual full moon! What is used is the “paschal full moon” which, according to Merriam-Webster, is “the 14th day of a lunar month occurring on or next after March 21 according to a fixed set of ecclesiastical calendar rules and without regard to the real moon.” No wonder that, in some churches, there is a solemn proclamation of the date of Easter on the feast of the Epiphany.

The date for Passover is determined by the Hebrew calendar, which is a lunar calendar, as the 15th day of the month of Nissan. Often, the dates for Passover and Easter are close to each other, as they are this year. But sometimes, adjustments to the Hebrew calendar to put it more in sync with the solar calendar cause the dates to not coincide.

Hummingbird Brigade: Freddy Tucker of Sewanee reports that he saw his first hummer on March 31. He's seen a couple more since then and has his feeders out.

Squeaks

Odie

MARC's Mountain Adoptables Meet Squeaks & Odie

Hello, my name is Squeaks. I am a sweet 4-year-old female cat looking for a home where I can be the queen of the castle. I got my name because of my vocal personality. I am ok with older cats and with dogs who are calm, but I don't like kittens. I like to be inside and outside, but given the right home I would be satisfied being an inside cat. I don't particularly like getting my flea treatments or meds and I hide when I think my foster mom is going to give those to me. I love to lie in your lap and get lots of pets. Do you have room in your home and heart for me? You won't regret giving me a chance.

Hi there, I'm Odie. I was stray on Lake O'Donnell Road in Sewanee. After a couple ladies befriended me I ended up in a good foster home and I am really enjoying being part of a family. I am a busy fellow keeping an eye on my people in case they need my help. I get along fine with the five other male and female dogs in my household. And I really like to play with toys (although this home needs some new ones.) I have heartworms and I am being treated for them. I will be ready for my forever home around May 31, 2022. Put your application in now otherwise I might be traveling to a new home in New England.

If you would like to learn more about Squeaks and Odie, please fill out an Adoption Application on the MARC website <www.marc4change.org> or contact Sue Scruggs at (423) 619-3845. These pets are fostering on the Sewanee-Monteagle Mountain and are easy to meet. All MARC animals ready for adoption are spayed or neutered and up-to-date on their vaccines and preventatives.

MARC is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit animal welfare organization. It is not a shelter and relies on foster homes to save animals.

Summer Camp Counselor

The Sewanee Children's Center is seeking creative, fun, organized and responsible camp counselors for the summer. In this position, you will play a key role in shaping and educating our children by teaching them on numerous indoor and outdoor activities and experiences. You will also collaborate with other counselors, create plans and activities, and lead children in fun-filled projects for ages 3 to 8. Camp is Monday through Friday from 8am to 5pm for 8 weeks starting June 6th. But, you will start working May 31, 2022, to have the classroom and activities ready, and continue until July 29, 2022, to close out the summer. Camp is closed on Monday, July 4th.

Summer Camp at SCC provides an environment that uses the constructivist theory of learning to address our children's intellectual, emotional, physical, and social growth. Constructivist learning is based on children's active participation in problem-solving and critical thinking in a learning activity that they find relevant and engaging. They are "constructing" their own knowledge by testing ideas and approaches based on their prior knowledge and experience and applying these to a new situation that they then integrate with what they already know.

Instruct and organize children projects (arts, crafts, dramatics, etc.)

Supervise children during meals and naps
Follow safety and emergency procedures and guidelines

Easter

Lord, who createdst man in wealth and store,
Though foolishly he lost the same,
Decaying more and more,
Till he became
Most poore:
With thee
O let me rise
As larks, harmoniously,
And sing this day thy victories:
Then shall the fall further the flight in me.

My tender age in sorrow did beginne
And still with sicknesses and shame.
Thou didst so punish sinne,
That I became
Most thinn.
With thee
Let me combine,
And feel thy victorie:
For, if I imp my wing on thine,
Affliction shall advance the flight in me.
