Franklin County School Board Honors Stanley Bean

by Leslie Lytle, Messenger Staff Writer

The Franklin County School Board presented Stanley Bean with a plaque honoring him for his long career as an educator at the June 12 meeting, Bean's final meeting as director of schools. At the end of the month, Bean will retire after 43 years as an educator, 41 of those in the Franklin County schools where he also served as a teacher, coach and principal. Bean came on board as director of schools in July 2017.

"You've accomplished a lot as director of schools," said Board Chair Cleijo Walker. "You oversaw the building of two new middle schools, new programming, addressed a lot of maintenance issues, roofing, lighting, HVAC, things that needed upgraded for years."

The inscription on the plaque read: "Thank you for believing in students, guiding through example, leaving an indelible mark on the future and making a difference in so many lives."

"My memory is too good," Bean said, recalling being a first grader at Mary Sharp Elementary School eating lunch in the same room where the board now meets. Teary-eyed, he described the other first grader he sat with at lunch who every day brought a bologna and white bread sandwich from home, in the days before free lunch, when that was all the child's family could afford. Bean praised the board, "You've all been great to work with. I've been very fortunate." His plans for the future speak to his passion for and dedication to being an educator. "I don't know what I'm going to do. I looked for a part-time job, had a few calls. I'm going to wait. I think I'm going to retire," Bean paused, "for a while."

During the business portion of the meeting, Human Resources Supervisor Linda Foster reported on hiring for the coming school year. Foster said the school district recently signed contracts with 19 new teachers, and 14 openings remained. "We're desperately trying to get a counselor at all the elementary school and maintain what we have at the high schools and middle schools," Foster said. That day the district interviewed two counselors for elementary school positions and hired one of them. Half the open classified employee positions have been filled.

In her "legislative update" reporting on state government education initiatives, board member Sarah Marhevsky stressed the importance of teacher salaries remaining competitive in view of recent state legislation mandating a teacher starting salary of at least $50,000 by the beginning of the 2026-2027 school year. "The starting salary for [Franklin County] next year is $44,500," Marhevsky said. "We are going to definitely need to increase our salary scale if we want to be anywhere but at the bottom, and we want to continue to hire teachers and fill the openings we have."

The board will hold a workshop July 6 to review the 23 policy changes recommended by the Tennessee School Board Association.

School board meetings are now live streamed on the Franklin County Schools YouTube channel. [Franklin County Schools, TN - YouTube].

Work at the University Cemetery includes removing a section of the lower wall that had been severely damaged or weakened by the root growth of a large tree, which made it an appropriate choice for creating an opening for the Save Sewanee Black History Heritage trail to continue along the inside edge of the cemetery.

Connecting the University Cemetery to Save Sewanee Black History Heritage Trail

Roberson Project interns Grace Truett and Charlotte LeBlanc visited the University Cemetery to observe the clearing of a small section of the lower western wall, as stone masons were carefully creating an opening. The students are researching the history of the segregated "Colored Cemetery" that is next to the historically white University Cemetery. Beyond research, the students hope to develop an interactive online map project about the African American neighborhood's burial ground, which is now part of the larger cemetery.

This effort connects the University Cemetery to the Save Sewanee Black History Heritage Trail. Planning for the trail project began in the spring term of 2019, when the Roberson Project collaborated with students in Dr. Scott Torreano's "Forestry Wildlife Management" class. The students studied the topography and plotted the draft of a trail map running through the historic African American neighborhood to Stirling's Coffee House across from the University Cemetery. In subsequent summers, Roberson Project student researchers did more planning by conducting field investigations and talking to residents of the neighborhood.

Today, the first phase of the project – the gravel trail – has been completed, thanks to the donations of generous supporters of the Roberson Project and the hard work of the university's Facilities Management staff. The southern terminus is at the "Willie Six" Sims Field on Alabama Avenue. It continues past several St. Mark's community landmarks and along Barnes Branch through undeveloped wooded space before arriving at the cemetery. The other terminus on the northern end is the entrance to the University Cemetery on Alabama Avenue, across from Stirling's.

The Roberson Project worked with Gerald Smith and Wayne Caldwell, who oversee the cemetery, in choosing the location of the new opening in the cemetery wall. This point in the wall had been severely damaged or weakened by the root growth of a large tree, which made it an appropriate choice for creating an opening for the trail to continue along the inside edge of the University Cemetery.

Look for more news in the coming months about plans for the development of the Heritage Trail as a public history resource to learn about the African American history of Sewanee.

Christ Church

June 18 is Fathers’ Day on the calendar, and Christ Church will honor fathers and those who have acted as fathers in our lives at our service of Holy Communion on Sunday morning at 10:45 a.m. Once upon a time there was a pediatrician in Cleveland, Miss., who was also the main Lay Reader in Calvary Church. His name was Jack Russell, and all of us thought that he was so famous that he had a breed of dog named after him.

What is you favorite story about this celebration? Come and share with us on Sunday morning and stay for watermelon and other treats.

St. Mark and St. Paul

The 8:30 a.m. Holy Eucharist is in the church and is also livestreamed on our Facebook page and remains available there afterward. The 10 a.m. Holy Eucharist is in the church. The second service will begin at 10 a.m. instead of 11 a.m., through July.

Nursery services: Infants and toddlers through three year olds are invited to gather on the playground on Sunday mornings from 8:30 a.m. to noon. The nursery will be at the playground of St. Mark and St. Paul, or in the child care classroom at the lower level of Claiborne Hall.

Tullahoma Sangha

The Grace in Aging and Centering Prayer Workshop

Have you ever asked yourself, “Am I aging gracefully?” What does that look like? How do I enter the later seasons of my life with dignity and grace?

In her book “The Grace in Aging,” psychotherapist and Buddhist practitioner Kathleen Dowling Singh recommends “taking the one seat” as a practice to enable us to age gracefully, and she sees Centering Prayer as one good way to take that seat.

Join us at St. Mary’s Sewanee Retreat Center for a one-day workshop led by The Rev. Tom Ward exploring the “Grace in Aging” and its relation to the Centering Prayer practice. Lunch is included. This will be 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturday, July 8.

To register visit the website at <www.stmaryssewanee.org>. Lodging is available upon request.

St. Mary’s Sewanee Retreat Center wants anyone who is seeking spiritual transformation here to be allowed that opportunity. If you find it difficult to afford a program, please, contact Reservations for information about financial assistance.

If your church is in our print circulation area and would like to be listed in the Church Calendar, please send service times, church address and contact information to <news@sewaneemessenger.com> or phone 598-9949.

PEDESTRIANS and BIKERS – EXERCISE CAUTION!

When you are out getting your exercise, following a few simple rules will keep you on the go. When biking on Sewanee sidewalks, cyclists should slow down when passing pedestrians since some may not hear a warning bike bell and know to step to the right. Walkers should walk on the left-hand side of the road, traveling against the traffic; bicyclers should travel in the right-hand lane, going with the flow of traffic. During the day, both walkers and bikers should wear clothing of bright, easily seen colors, and, from dusk on, wear light, reflective clothing. In any case, don't just assume drivers can see you. Be on the lookout ... for your own safety.

School of Letters Faculty Reading with Chapman and Subramanian

The Sewanee School of Letters continues its series of events this week with a faculty reading at 4:30 p.m., Wednesday, June 21, in Naylor Auditorium with Ryan Chapman and Meera Subramanian. A reception follows in Gailor Atrium. The public is invited. This event is co-sponsored by Friends of the Library.

Ryan Chapman is the author of "Riots I Have Known" (Simon & Schuster), which was longlisted for The Center for Fiction's First Novel Prize and named a best book of 2019 by Electric Literature and The Marshall Project. NPR praised it as "one of the smartest—and best—novels of the year," and The Washington Post called it "a compact cluster bomb of satire that kills widely and indiscriminately." He's published criticism and short humor pieces at The New Yorker, The Guardian, GQ, Bookforum, BOMB, McSweeney's, and The Believer, and interviewed writers and visual artists for Guernica, Esquire, Frieze, and elsewhere. He has guest-lectured at The New School, Bard College, and Columbia University, and held residencies at Vermont Studio Center, the Millay Colony for the Arts, and the James Merrill House. A graduate of the University of Puget Sound, he currently lives in Kingston, New York.

Meera Subramanian is an award-winning independent journalist whose work has been published in national and international publications including the New York Times, New Yorker, Nature, Virginia Quarterly Review, and Orion, where she serves as a contributing editor. Her book "A River Runs Again: India's Natural World in Crisis, from the Barren Cliffs of Rajasthan to the Farmlands of Karnataka," published by PublicAffairs in 2015, was short-listed for the 2016 Orion Book Award, and she is currently collaborating with illustrator Danica Novgorodoff on a YA nonfiction graphic novel about youth climate activists. She has explored the disappearance of India's vultures, questioned the "Good Anthropocene," sought out fragile shorelines, and investigated perceptions of climate change among conservative Americans. Her essays have been anthologized in the "Best American Science and Nature Writing" (2022 and 2015), "Letter to a Stranger: Essays to the Ones that Haunt Us" (Algonquin 2022), "The World As We Knew It: Dispatches From a Changing Climate" (Catapult 2022), and "Solastalgia: An Anthology of Emotion in a Disappearing World" (The University of Virginia Press 2023), as well as multiple editions of "The Best Women's Travel Writing." A National Geographic Explorer, she has also served as an MIT Knight Science Journalism Fellow (2016-17), Fulbright-Nehru Senior Research Fellow (2013-14), and the Currie C. and Thomas A. Barron Visiting Professor in the Environment and Humanities at Princeton University (2019-2020). She earned an MA in Journalism from New York University and is currently a co-director of the Religion & Environment Story Project. She is based on a glacial moraine that belongs to the People of the Dawn, on the edge of the Atlantic Ocean, in what is now called Massachusetts.

The School of Letters offers an MFA in creative writing under the directorship of Justin Taylor. Please visit the School's website <letters.sewanee.edu> for more information on the program.

Education for Ministry Graduate Termaine Hicks to Speak

The School of Theology is pleased to announce Education for Ministry (EfM) graduate, Termaine Hicks will speak at 7 p.m., CDT, Wednesday, June 21. Hicks's keynote address for the EfM 2023 Summer Conference will be held in Blackman Auditorium located in the Woods Labs Building (adjacent to Spence Hall) on the campus of the University of the South. Funded by the Samuel Marshall Beattie Lecture Fund, Hicks's address is free and open to the public. All are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Wrongly accused and incarcerated as a young man, Termaine Hicks made national news in December 2020 when he was exonerated and released from prison after a 19-year fight for justice.

For more, read "Stepping up with Termaine Hicks," an article published earlier this year in the School of Theology's Features Magazine. Find the article here: <hicksstory.sewanee.edu>.

After his dramatic exoneration and release from prison, Hicks spent several months easing back into society before beginning work on the nonprofit Selfless Thinking Expresses Potential that Uplifts People (S.T.E.P.U.P.), which provides resources for at-risk youth.

S.T.E.P.U.P. produces and promotes educational videos and also offers motivational speaking and training in schools, teaching positive decision-making, how to recognize bullying, and how to communicate with peers who carry guns, sell drugs, or who drink and drive. The training also emphasizes the importance of physical fitness and a healthy lifestyle. "We empower youth to use their voice to prevent bullying and violence," says Hicks about his presentations at schools. "This is my ministry. EfM gave me the skills, and this is my gift back to the world."

About his upcoming appearance at the University of the South Hicks shared, "My story is truly exceptional and EfM is a big part of it. Speaking at this special EfM gathering means a great deal to me. It also provides an opportunity to continue sharing my story and my work broadly. Thanks to EfM, I've been able to transform personal hardship into hope for at-risk youth and that's something to talk about."

"Termaine Hicks's story is a testimony to the power of faith to overcome bitterness and despair, and his commitment to helping others—after the injustice that he has suffered—is truly inspirational. I encourage everyone not to miss the chance to hear Mr. Hicks speak," said the Very Rev. Dr. James F. Turrell, Vice Provost and Dean of the School of Theology.

For those unable to attend in person, find information about the live-stream webinar at: <www.hickszoom.sewanee.edu>.

MSSA: Bible Week, Frederick Douglass, Marcus Hummon

The Monteagle Sunday School Assembly in Monteagle continues its 141st consecutive summer season of enrichment through Sunday, Aug. 6, featuring numerous visiting lecturers who will present morning and evening programs in the Auditorium that are open free of charge to the public; unless otherwise noted, morning lectures begin at 10:45 a.m. and evening lectures at 7:45 p.m. Anyone interested in a full schedule of the Monteagle Assembly's 2023 program is welcome to pick one up at the Assembly Office (tel. (931) 924-2286), or to peruse the schedule on the Assembly's website at <www.mssa1882.org>.

Rev. Allyn Maxfield-Steele joins us this week as the Wayne & Virginia Jervis Bible Week lecturer. Since 2017, Steele has served as the co-executive director of the Highlander Research Education Center, the organization formerly known as the Highlander Folk Center. Highlander's historic contributions to civil rights organizing and education continue today; they "work with people fighting for justice, equality and sustainability, supporting their efforts to take collective action to shape their own destiny," according to their web site. Steele will lecture Tuesday-Friday mornings in Warren Chapel, drawing from his experiences at Highlander and elsewhere.

Grammy winner and 2019 inductee into the Nashville Songwriter's Hall of Fame, Marcus Hummon will present twice this week, on two very different topics. On Thursday evening, Hummon will share what he learned in writing and staging his most recent musical, American Prophet, which focuses on Frederick Douglass' life. The musical premiered in Washington, D.C., last summer to sold-out audiences, and it went on to win the Edgerton Award and was nominated for six Helen Hayes Awards. His lecture is "The Making of American Prophet: Frederick Douglass in His Own Words," takes place at 7:45 p.m. Thursday in the Auditorium.

But that's not all! Hummon's career has spanned songwriting, musical performance, playwriting, and writing. Among his many notable artistic contributions are co-writing credits with Rascal Flatts, the Dixie Chicks, Tim McGraw, Winona Judd, and the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band. On Friday evening, Hummon will perform with songs and stories from his own career at 7 p.m. in the Auditorium.

Additional events include the following:

Monday, June 19, 6 p.m., Chapel Porch – Dinner on the Chapel Grounds, followed by Twilight Prayers. Bring a side dish to share and get to know others at the Assembly.

Tuesday, June 20, 2:30-5 p.m., Shady Dell – Canvas Floor Cloths workshop, led by Colby Henderson Black and Bradley Moody-Mims. Advance registration required at MSSA office; $30 class fee + gate ticket required to participate. Continues through Thursday.

Friday, June 23, 2:30 p.m., Writers' Grove – Don Welch reads from his book, Opening Thoughts on Everyday Life: Digging Deeper, Looking Farther. If there's rain, this will be moved to Warren Chapel.

The Mission of the Monteagle Sunday School Assembly is to be a welcoming community of Christian faith where people gather to engage in spiritual growth and renewal, lifelong inquiry and learning, recreational, and cultural enrichment, while being good stewards of our natural resources and our Assembly heritage.

Woman's Association to Host 59th Annual Cottage Tour & Bazaar

The Woman's Association of the MSSA (Monteagle Sunday School Assembly) will host its 59th Annual Cottage Tour & Bazaar on Friday, July 21. The much-anticipated event will include tours of five representative cottages; a self-guided tour of historic buildings; the always-popular bazaar with fine art, jewelry, plus home décor and plants, jewelry, clothing and art much more; The Butterfly Boutique (resale); lunch options from La Bella Pearl's Restaurant; and the always popular Bake Sale.

The annual event is designed to share with the public the Assembly's unique history and mission, to showcase its representative turn-of-the-century cottages and structures, and to highlight the Chautauqua Movement and the Assembly's association with the Chautauqua Network. This year's tour will feature five distinctive cottages: Showboat, Southern Comfort, Doctor's Inn, The Nest, and Lagniappe. The Bazaar, open 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., welcomes old favorites and several new vendors who will bring local arts and crafts and splurge-worthy fine art and jewelry as well as paper, ceramics, art, jewelry, clothes, plants, leather and more from more than 30 selected local and regional artisans. The nearby Butterfly Boutique sale of donated items from members and friends is a bargain-lover's dream held in the Writers' Grove located near the Woman's Association Winfield House.

At 10:45 a.m., guests are invited to attend a special presentation by Margot Shaw. Titled "Living Floral," Shaw's book and accompanying presentation is brimming with top stylenmakers' and designers' innovative floral design ideas to enliven the home. From interior designers Charlotte Moss, Suzanne Rheinstein, and Bunny Williams, and event designer Tara Guerard to floral and garden experts Sybil Sylvester and P. Allen Smith and culinary consultant Alex Hitz, these luminaries impart their personal botanical point of view. They show how to incorporate flowers in home decor and present numerous ways to entertain with flair. For this inspirational yet instructive book, interior designers illustrate how eclectic furnishings work well with floral and botanical accents in fabric, wallpaper, artwork, and accessories to shape chic indoor spaces. Living Floral will resonate with those who appreciate the beauty and everyday luxury of flowers.

At the Harton Dining Hall, La Bella Pearl's will offer a buffet (available 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.). Pre-ordered, pre-paid box lunches can be picked up 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and enjoyed in one of the Assembly's green spaces.

Guests will also enjoy the annual bake sale where the Assembly's best cooks bring their sweet and savory specialties, and the Snack Shop will be open for popcorn, chilled candy bars, bottled water and souvenir T-shirts.

Be sure to stop in at cottage #116, The Gallery, a mainstay of the Assembly history and a shopping must during any visit. In addition to art and gifts, the Gallery is one of a select few to carry award-winning McCarty Pottery. Created by Assembly members, the late Lee and Pup McCarty, Mississippi-based McCartys has earned international recognition.

Advance tour tickets ($20, $25 day of) and box lunches ($20) must be reserved and paid for in advance on the MSSA website <MSSA1882.org> using PayPal or by calling the MSSA office at (931) 924-2286 or by stopping by the office. ## Donate to MARC

The animals helped by the Marion Animal Resource Connection (MARC) have continuing needs for their care. Here is a wish list for this week's items we could use: bleach, kitchen trash bags and clumping cat litter.

Donations may be dropped at Taylor's Mercantile in Sewanee, or the MARC Office. There is also an Amazon Wish List available at <<https://a.co/7119w5J>>.

MARC is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization of volunteer citizens concerned about the welfare of animals. MARC was created to assist people and animals to live more humanely, and to help ease the social burden of too many stray dogs and cats.

Town of Monteagle 2022 Water Quality Report

Is my drinking water safe?

Yes, our water meets all of EPA's health standards. We have conducted numerous tests for over 80 contaminants that may be in drinking water. As you'll see in the chart on the back, we only detected 11 of these contaminants. We found all 11 of these contaminants at safe levels.

What is the source of my water?

Your water, which is surface water, comes from Laurel Lake. Our goal is to protect our water from contaminants and we are working with the State to determine the vulnerability of our water source to potential contamination. The Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation (TDEC) has prepared a Source Water Assessment Program (SWAP) Report for the untreated water sources serving this water system. The SWAP Report assesses the susceptibility of untreated water sources to potential contamination. To ensure safe drinking water, all public water systems treat and routinely test their water. Water sources have been rated as reasonably susceptible, moderately susceptible or slightly susceptible based on geologic factors and human activities in the vicinity of the water source. The Town of Monteagle's sources rated as slightly susceptible to potential contamination. An explanation of Tennessee's Source Water Assessment Program, the Source Water Assessment summaries, susceptibility scorings and the overall TDEC report to EPA can be viewed online at <https://www.tn.gov/environment/program-areas/wr-water-resources/water-quality/source-water-assessment.html> or you may contact the Water System to obtain copies of specific assessments.

Why are there contaminants in my water?

Drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. The presence of contaminants does not necessarily indicate that water poses a health risk. More information about contaminants and potential health effects can be obtained by calling the Environmental Protection Agency's Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

How can I get involved?

The Monteagle City Council usually meets at 6:00 p.m. on the last Tuesday of each month, in the conference room at city hall, 16 Dixie Lee Avenue.. Please feel free to participate in these meetings. Decisions by the Board of Commissioners on customer complaints brought before the Board of Commissioners under the District's customer complaint policy may be reviewed by the Utility Management Review Board of the Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation pursuant to Section 7-82-702(7) of Tennessee Code Annotated.

Is our water system meeting other rules that govern our operations?

The State and EPA require us to test and report on our water on a regular basis to ensure its safety. We have met all of these requirements. Results of unregulated contaminant analysis are available upon request. We want you to know that we pay attention to all the rules.

Other Information

The sources of drinking water (both tap water and bottled water) include rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, reservoirs, springs, and wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally-occurring minerals and, in some cases, radioactive material, and can pick up substances resulting from the presence of animals or from human activity.

Contaminants that may be present in source water:

- Microbial contaminants, such as viruses and bacteria, which may come from sewage treatment plants, septic systems, agricultural livestock operations, and wildlife.
- Inorganic contaminants, such as salts and metals, which can be naturally-occurring or result from urban stormwater runoff, industrial, or domestic wastewater discharges, oil and gas production, mining, or farming.
- Pesticides and herbicides, which may come from a variety of sources such as agriculture, urban stormwater runoff, and residential uses.
- Organic chemical contaminants, including synthetic and volatile organic chemicals, which are by-products of industrial processes and petroleum production, and can also come from gas stations, urban stormwater runoff, and septic systems.

Radioactive contaminants, which can be naturally-occurring or be the result of oil and gas production and mining activities.

In order to ensure that tap water is safe to drink, EPA and the Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation prescribe regulations which limit the amount of certain contaminants in water provided by public water systems. The Town of Monteagle's water treatment processes are designed to reduce any such substances to levels well below any health concern. FDA regulations establish limits for contaminants in bottled water which must provide the same protection for public health.

Do I Need To Take Special Precautions?

Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population. Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have under-gone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly, and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about not only their drinking water, but food preparation, personal hygiene, and precautions in handling infants and pets from their health care providers. EPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbiological contaminants are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

Lead in Drinking Water

If present, elevated levels of lead can cause serious health problems, especially for pregnant women and young children. Lead in drinking water is primarily from materials and components associated with service lines and home plumbing. The Town of Monteagle is responsible for providing high quality drinking water, but cannot control the variety of materials used in plumbing components. When your water has been sitting for several hours, you can minimize the potential for lead exposure by flushing your tap for 30 seconds to 2 minutes before using water for drinking or cooking. If you are concerned about lead in your water, you may wish to have your water tested. Information on lead in drinking water, testing methods, and steps you can take to minimize exposure is available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline 800-426-4791 or at <http://www.epa.gov/safewater/lead>

Water System Security

Following the events of September 2001, we realize that our customers are concerned about the security of their drinking water. We urge the public to report any suspicious activities at any utility facilities, including treatment plants, pumping stations, tanks, fire hydrants, etc. to 931-924-2265.

Think before you flush!

Flushing unused or expired medicines can be harmful to your drinking water. Properly disposing of unused or expired medication helps protect you and the environment. Keep medications out of Tennessee's waterways by disposing in one of our permanent pharmaceutical take back bins. There are nearly 100 take back bins located across the state, to find a convenient location please visit: <https://tdeconline.tn.gov/rxtakeback/>

For more information about your drinking water, please call the Monteagle Water Plant at 924-2708. Este informe contiene información muy importante. Tradúscalo o hable con alguien que lo entienda bien.

W a t e r Q u a l i t y D a t a

What does this chart mean?

- MCLG - Maximum Contaminant Level Goal, or the level of a contaminant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLGs allow for a margin of safety.
- MCL - Maximum Contaminant Level, or the highest level of a contaminant that is allowed in drinking water. MCLs are set as close to the MCLGs as feasible using the best available treatment technology. To understand the possible health effects described for many regulated constituents, a person would have to drink 2 liters of water every day at the MCL level for a lifetime to have a one-in-a-million chance of having the described health effect.
- MRDL: Maximum Residual Disinfectant Level or MRDL: The highest level of a disinfectant allowed in drinking water. There is convincing evidence that addition of a disinfectant is necessary for the control of microbial contaminants.
- MRDLG: Maximum residual disinfectant level goal. The level of a drinking water disinfectant below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MRDLGs do not reflect the benefits of the use of disinfectants to control microbial contaminants.
- AL - Action Level, or the concentration of a contaminant which, when exceeded, triggers treatment or other requirements which a water system must follow.
- Parts per million (ppm) or Milligrams per liter (mg/l) – explained as a relation to time and money as one part per million corresponds to one minute in two years or a single penny in $10,000.
- Parts per billion (ppb) or Micrograms per liter - explained as a relation to time and money as one part per billion corresponds to one minute in 2,000 years, or a single penny in $10,000,000.
- Nephelometric Turbidity Unit (NTU) - nephelometric turbidity unit is a measure of the clarity of water. Turbidity in excess of 5 NTU is just noticeable to the average person.
- RTCR – Revised Total Coliform Rule. This rule went into effect on April 1, 2016 and replaces the MCL for total coliform with a Treatment Technique Trigger for a system assessment.
- TT - Treatment Technique, or a required process intended to reduce the level of a contaminant in drinking water.

Contaminant	Violation Yes/No	Level Detected	Range of Detections	Date of Sample	Unit Measurement	MCLG	MCL	Likely Source of Contamination
Total Coliform Bacteria (RTCRC)	NO	1		2022		0	TT	Naturally present in the environment
Turbidity <sup>1</sup>	NO	0.104 AVG.	0.04 - 0.19	2022	NTU	n/a	TT	Soil runoff
Fluoride	NO	0.71 AVG.	0.33- 1.18	2022	ppm	4	4	Erosion of natural deposits; water additive which promotes strong teeth; discharge from fertilizer and aluminum factories
Copper	NO	90%≤0.131 ppm		2022	ppm	1.3	AL=1.3	Corrosion of household plumbing systems; erosion of natural deposits; leaching from wood preservatives
Lead <sup>2</sup>	NO	90%≤2.87 ppb		2022	ppb	0	AL=15	Corrosion of household plumbing systems; erosion of natural deposits
Nitrate (as Nitrogen) <sup>3</sup>	NO	206		2-22-22	ppm	10	10	Runoff from fertilizer use; leaching from septic tanks; sewage; erosion of natural deposits
Sodium	NO	16.1		4-26-23	ppm	N/A	N/A	Erosion of natural deposits; used in water treatment
TTHM <sup>4</sup> [Total trihalomethanes]	YES	62.33 AVG.	14.5 – 106.0	2022	ppb	80	80 ppb	By-product of drinking water chlorination
Haloacetic Acids (HAA5)	YES	44.18 AVG	17.3 – 65.3	2022	ppb	60	60 ppb	By-product of drinking water disinfection.
Chlorine	NO	1.68 AVG.	0.44 – 3.10	2022	ppm	MRDLG =4 ppm	MRDL=4 ppm	Water additive used to control microbes.
Total Organic Carbon <sup>5</sup>	YES	1.39 AVG	0.707 – 2.12	2022	ppm	TT	TT	Naturally present in the environment

During the most recent round of Lead and Copper testing, only 0 out of 20 households sampled contained concentrations exceeding the action level.

<sup>1</sup>100% of our samples were below the turbidity limit. Turbidity is a measure of the cloudiness of the water. We monitor it because it is a good indicator of the effectiveness of our filtration system.

<sup>4</sup>Infants and young children are typically more vulnerable to lead in drinking water than the general population. It is possible that lead levels at your home may be higher than at other homes in the community as a result of materials used in your home's plumbing. If you are concerned about elevated lead levels in your home's water, you may wish to have your water tested and flush your tap for 30 seconds to 2 minutes before using tap water. Additional information is available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (1-800-426-4791).

<sup>5</sup>Nitrate in drinking water at levels above 10 ppm is a health risk for infants of less than six months of age. High nitrate levels in drinking water can cause blue baby syndrome. Nitrate levels may rise quickly for short periods of time because of rainfall or agricultural activity. If you are caring for an infant you should ask advice from your health care provider.

<sup>6</sup> While your drinking water meets EPA's standard for trihalomethanes, it does contain low levels. Some people who drink water containing trihalomethanes in excess of the MCL over many years may experience problems with their liver, kidneys, or central nervous systems, and may have an increased risk of getting cancer.

<sup>8</sup>We have met all treatment technique requirements for Total Organic Carbon removal, but we missed the 4th quarter sample in 2022 resulting in a monitoring violation.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR DRINKING WATER

Monitoring Requirements Not Met for Monteagle Public Utility Board

Monteagle Public Utility Board violated drinking water requirements over the past year. Even though these were not emergencies, as our customers, you have the right to know what happened and what we are doing (did) to correct these situations.

We are required to monitor your drinking water for specific contaminants on a regular basis. Results of regular monitoring are an indicator of whether or not our drinking water meets health standards. During the first quarter of 2022 we failed to monitor for Total Trihalomethanes and Total Haloacetic Acids on time per our Stage 2 LRAA Monitoring Plan and therefore can not be sure of the quality of your drinking water during that time. During the fourth quarter of 2022 we did not monitor for Total Organic Carbon and therefore can not be sure of the quality of the drinking water during that time.

What should I do?

There is nothing you need to do at this time.

The table below lists the contaminant(s) we did not test according to our monitoring plan during a recent compliance period, how often we are supposed to sample, how many samples we are supposed to take, how many samples we took, when samples should have been taken, and the date on which samples were (or will be) taken.

Contaminant	Required sampling frequency	Number of samples required	When samples should have been taken during week of	When samples were taken (or will be taken)
Total Trihalomethanes	Quarterly	2	1/5/2022	1/31/2022 Late
Total Haloacetic Acids	Quarterly	2	1/5/2022	1/31/2022 Late
Total Organic Carbon	Quarterly	1 source water 1 finished water	10-1-2022 to 12-31-2022	2-2-2023

What is being done?

All future required sampling dates have been verified and posted in the Monteagle Water Plant.

For more information, please contact Wayland Stewart at 931-924-2708.

Please share this information with all the other people who drink this water, especially those who may not have received this notice directly (for example, people in apartments, nursing homes, schools, and businesses). You can do this by posting this notice in a public place or distributing copies by hand or mail.

'Building a Bright Future: Black Communities and Rosenwald Schools in Tennessee' to Open at Tennessee State Museum

"Building a Bright Future: Black Communities and Rosenwald Schools in Tennessee," presented in partnership with Fisk University's John Hope and Aurelia E. Franklin Library, opens at the Tennessee State Museum on Friday, June 16. The community-focused exhibition highlights the work of alumni, descendants, and organizations to preserve the legacies of Rosenwald Schools across the state. It is the second Tennessee State Museum show centered on Rosenwald Schools, following the travelling photography exhibit by Andrew Feiler, "A Better Life for Their Children: Julius Rosenwald, Booker T. Washington, and the 4,978 Schools that Changed America," which closed in May.

What are commonly referred to as Rosenwald Schools were the result of an initial partnership between Sears, Roebuck, and Co. president Julius Rosenwald, Tuskegee Institute president Booker T. Washington, and Black Communities throughout the South. Between 1912-1937, that partnership resulted in the construction of almost 5,000 schools for Black children across 15 southern states, including 354 in Tennessee. Rosenwald schools drove improvement in Black educational attainment and helped educate the generation who became leaders of the Civil Rights movement.

"Building a Bright Future: Black Communities and Rosenwald Schools in Tennessee" leads the visitor through the development of Rosenwald Schools and their legacies by first tracing the history of education for Black Tennesseans beginning with the Reconstruction period. It explores early partnerships between churches, schools and agencies like the Freedmen's Bureau, and the work of Black leaders, residents, parents, and teachers to improve educational opportunities for Black students. Featured exhibit topics include Black Education before 1912, Black Tennesseans and Rosenwald Schools (1912-1960s), and the Legacies of Rosenwald School Communities.

Partnering with The John Hope and Aurelia E. Franklin Library at Fisk University was essential to developing the exhibit.

"We knew in order for such an exhibit to be successful, we would need to start by reaching out to and familiarizing ourselves with the previous work done by organizations who had already been preserving and telling the histories of these schools," said Matthew Gailani, lead curator of the exhibition.

Fisk University librarian Arnaud "Arna" Wendell Bontemps acquired the Julius Rosenwald Fund Archives on behalf of the university in 1948. The collection documents the history of the Rosenwald Fund, including the school building program. It is now preserved by the John Hope and Aurelia E. Franklin Library, Special Collections & Archives.

"Our teams at Fisk University John Hope and Aurelia E. Franklin Library and the Forging Future Pathways Forward: Building a Portal to Rosenwald Collections for All at Fisk University project were thrilled to partner and collaborate with Tennessee State Museum," said DeLisa M. Harris, Director of Library Services at Fisk University. "This exhibit is the first major showcase of the impact and legacy of the Julius Rosenwald Fund Rural School program in Tennessee."

The Library and Museum teams travelled across the state, making stops in all three Grand Divisions and connecting with many Rosenwald School communities. They met with Rosenwald School alumni and descendants who shared their stories and experiences. The 4,000 square foot exhibit is a culmination of those visits, together with personal alumni and educator accounts, in an effort to highlight 16 of the more than 350 Rosenwald communities in Tennessee. It aims to engage visitors in understanding the history and significance of these schools and the surrounding communities along with current preservation efforts.

Schools, communities and Grand Divisions represented in the show include:

Dunbar Rosenwald School, Loudon County, East Tennessee
Hohenwald Rosenwald School, Lewis County, Middle Tennessee
Lincoln School, Bledsoe County, East Tennessee
Manassas High School, Shelby County, West Tennessee
Multiple Schools, Maury County, Middle Tennessee
Multiple Schools, Sumner County, Middle Tennessee
Polk-Clark School, Gibson

County, West Tennessee
Smyrna Rosenwald School, Rutherford County, Middle Tennessee

Tanner School, Cocke County, East Tennessee

Townsend School, Franklin County, Middle Tennessee

Trenton Rosenwald School, Gibson County, West Tennessee

Ward School, Trousdale County, Middle Tennessee

Wareld School, Montgomery County, Middle Tennessee

Webb School, Carroll County, West Tennessee

West Bemis Rosenwald School, Madison County, West Tennessee

Wilson County Training School, Wilson County, Middle Tennessee

"It truly has been a privilege to work on this exhibit over the past year," said Gailani. "In particular, the generosity of alumni and community leaders in sharing their histories and memories has been a very humbling experience. We hope that this exhibit will help act as a platform for communities across the state to tell their stories and highlight the importance of Rosenwald Schools not only in Tennessee's past but to its present and future as well."

Building a Bright Future: Black Communities and Rosenwald Schools in Tennessee runs through Feb. 25, 2024.

Celebrating its 86th Anniversary in 2023, the Tennessee State Museum, located on the corner of Rosa L Parks Blvd. and Jefferson Street at Bicentennial Capitol Mall State Park, is home to 13,000 years of Tennessee art and history. Through six permanent exhibitions titled Natural History, First Peoples, Forging a Nation, The Civil War and Reconstruction, Change and Challenge and Tennessee Transforms, the Museum takes visitors on a journey – through artifacts, films, interactive displays, events and educational and digital programing – from the state's geological beginnings to the present day. Additional temporary exhibitions explore significant periods and individuals in history, along with art and cultural movements. The Museum is free and open to the public Tuesdays to Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sundays from 1–5 p.m. For more information on exhibitions and events, please visit <TNMuseum.org>.

'What Does Your Sewanee Angel Look Like' Contest

The Lemon Fair is asking students, local artists and other creative folks to submit designs to the Angel Wing Mural Contest called "What Does Your Sewanee Angel Look Like?" by Thursday, Aug. 31, 2023. Submissions may be emailed to <info@thelemonfairsewanee.com> or dropped off at the store at 60 University Avenue in downtown Sewanee. A panel of judges will select the winning design, which will be painted on the side of the building adjacent to the Sewanee Angel Park. All contest submissions will be used to create notecards, greeting cards, coffee mugs, or tea towels, with proceeds going to the Sewanee Community Chest, a nonprofit which supports local organizations who serve the common good. The Lemon Fair is open from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekends.

Arts in Altamont

The "A" in Altamont just may stand for "art" these days. Several projects involving music and fine art are in progress by local artists and musicians. Every Friday evening in June is designated as "Supper in the Park & Jammin' Until Dark." Local musicians come together at 6 p.m. in the Gazebo at the Old Courthouse Square on Cumberland Street, in Altamont, to jam. According to the Mayor of Altamont, Jana Barrett, "Regardless of your skill level, this jam is all inclusive of any acoustic instrument where people can come and play without judgment. We just enjoy being together and we actually learn from each other. It is a very easy jam." Several of the jam members already play together at the Tuesday Night Jam in Tracy City.

In the meantime, families and folks ready to start the weekend come and purchase delicious food from the food truck host of the evening, play corn hole, enjoy the jungle gym, visit or just sit and listen to the music until 8 p.m. or 8:30 p.m. Each week finds a different food truck that hosts the evening supper. It is a very laid back evening. Food hosts are Dixie Lee Diner from Monteagle on June 16; DG's BBQ from Altamont on June 23; and Wild Card from Winchester on June 30. All hosts come highly recommended by communities across the county.

In addition to supper and jammin' on June 23 and 30, the Grundy Safe Communities Coalition will be bringing its Prevention Pop-up event to the Jungle Gym with popcorn and arts/crafts activities for kids of all ages and families to enjoy. This activity will start at 5 p.m.

There are also two fine art projects in Altamont. Well known Altamont artist, Ron van Dyke, has created a sculpture of a saluting soldier from the trunk of a dead tree that had to be felled due to safety hazards. He worked for several weeks to bring to life a uniformed soldier who salutes passersby, reminding us of the sacrifices our veterans have made and continue to make to keep America free. Some say the sculpture reminds them of Altamont's last World War II veteran, Thomas Rollins, who passed away just days before the sculpture was started. It will be dedicated to his and all veterans' memories in the park at 11 a.m. on the Fourth of July.

The second fine art project is a mural being sponsored by the Altamont Baptist Church. An air brush artist is working under a shelter that protects the artist and the mural from the elements as it is being completed. When finished, it will depict scenes from the Bible on the wall of what was once part of a gas station connected to the old Western Auto building. More information about the mural is forthcoming as completion draws near.

The only cost for the evening is for the food at Supper in the Park and Jammin' Until Dark every Friday evening in June from 5–8 p.m. Anyone who plays is welcome to come and bring your acoustic instrument and jam with the others at 6 p.m. Cumberland Street is the street that goes in front of the Grundy County Courthouse and the venue for all this activity is around the jungle gym and old courthouse square. Drop in, eat, play, listen to music, enjoy fellowship and family fun as our communities begin to revive from the COVID drought.

For families, new riders, and anyone interested in biking a short distance, there is a monthly Community Bike Ride on the paved Mountain Goat Trail (MGT) every first Saturday of the month starting at 3 p.m. from Hawkins Lane in Sewanee. This is a great ride for younger children and families. Riders who prefer biking on dirt trails also have the option of riding a short MGT section before exiting and riding to Lake Dimmick and back. Since its beginning in 2015, Dash to the Door has raised more than $235,000 for BSMC.

“This is our main fundraiser and 100 percent of the proceeds go to patient care, including life-sustaining prescription medications,” Eller said.

The facility provides comprehensive ambulatory medical services for the community, including diagnosis and treatment of acute episodic illness as well as ongoing supervision of chronic diseases, minor wound management, injury stabilization and arrangement of hospital and specialist referrals. The clinic has an on-site prescription medication dispensary and is currently constructing a denture lab.

The paid staff includes a Physician's Assistant, LPN, Community Health Worker, Dental Assistant, Office Assistant, Bookkeeper, and Executive Director. # Women’s Tennis Represented on ITA All- America Listings

Announced by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association on Wednesday (June 7), the University of the South women’s tennis team saw four student-athletes earn All-America honors.

Leading the way are the NCAA Division III Doubles National Champions, Katherine Petty and Brooke Despriet. The duo posted a 22-6 record and finished as the top doubles team in the nation after defeating Olivia Soffer and Matia Cristiani of Babson College (Mass.) in the national championship match in Orlando on May 22.

The duo solidified their All-America status back in the fall after winning the ITA Regional Championship last September. Earning a spot in the ITA Small College National Championship, also known as the ITA Cup, in October, the duo ran the table to win the event.

For Despriet, it is her second consecutive All-America selection in as many seasons for the sophomore. Petty, after transferring from Santa Clara University (Calif.), snags her first All-America accolade.

Joining Petty and Despriet is Ansley Carpenter, who garnered an All-America award in doubles and Alice Hall, who picked up the award in both singles and doubles. Carpenter and Hall fell to Despriet and Petty in an all-Sewanee doubles final at the ITA Regional Championships, but they still qualified for the ITA Cup, where they finished in the semifinals.

The selection criteria for Division III All-Americans in Singles are the following:

- A top-8 seed in the NCAA Singles Tournament
- Win one round at the NCAA Singles Tournament
- Finish in the Top 20 in the final ITA Collegiate Tennis Singles Rankings
- Win ITA Fall Regional Tournament
- Win a first-round match at the ITA National Small College Championships (ITA Cup)

All-American honors are awarded to doubles teams that achieve any of the criteria below:

- A top 4 seed in NCAA Doubles Tournament
- Win one round at the NCAA Doubles Tournament
- Finish in the Top 10 in the final ITA Collegiate Tennis Rankings
- Win the ITA Fall Regional Tournament
- Win a first-round match at the ITA National Small College Championships

For the University of the South, there have been 12 singles players named All-Americans, while 18 have been chosen in doubles.

The University of the South women’s tennis team, winners of nine Southern Athletic Association Regular Season and Tournament Championships, finished the 2023 season with a 19-6 record and a third round finish at the NCAA Championships. Additionally, the Purple and White claimed an end-of-season ranking of No. 11.

Anton, Selner Collect IMLCA All- Region

Announced on June 5 by the Intercollegiate Men’s Lacrosse Coaches Association (IMLCA), two from the University of the South were selected to the IMLCA All-Region Team for Region V.

Ashton Anton and Jack Selner, who were both First Team members of the Southern Athletic Association’s (SAA) All-Conference Team, were both listed as Honorable Mentions.

Anton, a senior from Houston, Texas, scored 22 goals and tallied 28 points for the Tigers attack in 2023. Earning his first All-SAA recognition, he also scooped up 14 ground balls.

Selner, a junior from Dallas, Texas, secured his second All-SAA nod after collecting an Honorable Mention last season. Forcing the third-most caused turnovers in the league with 25, he also collected 40 ground balls.

This is Sewanee’s first All-Region selection since 2019.

The SAA saw six of the seven teams represented, as 11 student-athletes were honored.

The University of the South wrapped up a share of the 2023 SAA Regular Season Championship en route to an 11-5 overall record.

Jordan Theron and Quinn Wicklund Named ITA All- Americans

Announced on Wednesday (June 7), the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) announced their All-Americans for the 2022-23 season. From the University of the South, Jordan Theron was honored in both singles and doubles, and his partner Quinn Wicklund was also recognized.

The selection criteria for Division III All-Americans in Singles are the following:

- A top-8 seed in the NCAA Singles Tournament
- Win one round at the NCAA Singles Tournament
- Finish in the Top 20 in the final ITA Collegiate Tennis Singles Rankings
- Win ITA Fall Regional Tournament
- Win a first-round match at the ITA National Small College Championships (ITA Cup)

Theron recorded a 20-6 overall record in 2022-23 and earned a national ranking of 12th that was announced last week. The junior transfer qualified for the ITA Cup after finishing as a finalist at the Regional Championships during the fall season. His win versus Alessio Azzalini in the opening round of the national fall championship solidified his All-America status.

During the spring season, he recorded a 14-3 overall record to earn First Team accolades with the Southern Athletic Association (SAA). Ranked as the top singles player in the Atlantic South region for most of the month of April, he qualified for the NCAA Division III Singles Championship, advancing to the round of 16.

After claiming two while at Methodist University (N.C.), this is Theron’s third consecutive Singles All-America honor.

After three collegiate seasons, Theron is 52-15 in his career in singles. Theron becomes the eighth Singles All-American in school history.

All-American honors are awarded to doubles teams that achieve any of the criteria below:

- A top 4 seed in NCAA Doubles Tournament
- Win one round at the NCAA Doubles Tournament
- Finish in the Top 10 in the final ITA Collegiate Tennis Rankings
- Win the ITA Fall Regional Tournament
- Win a first-round match at the ITA National Small College Championships

After advancing to the semifinals of the ITA Regional Championships in the fall, the duo earned a national ranking of 18th. During the spring, they were ranked the second-best doubles tandem in the region.

Finishing with a 21-4 overall record and an 18-2 spring campaign, they were selected for the NCAA Doubles Championships. Despite falling in the opening round to Chase Cohena and Matt Kandel of Williams College (Mass.), Theron/Wicklund finished the spring season ranked sixth in the country.

Theron and Wicklund are the fourth doubles pair in school history to earn All-America, joining K.C. Horne C’95 and Stephen Jackson C’93 (1993), Horne and Brian Morrow C’95 (1994-95) and Jack Gray C’19 and Eric Roddy C’16 (2016).

The University of the South men’s tennis team, winners of nine Southern Athletic Association Regular Season and Tournament Championships, finished the 2023 season with a 21-4 record and a third round finish at the NCAA Championships. Additionally, the Purple and White claimed an end-of-season ranking of No. 9.

Please do not park on University Avenue.

If you will be throwing candy, please be sure to throw it as close to the curb as you can. We want to keep our little ones as safe as possible by keeping them from running out into the road. I know it's not an easy task, but we can try. Also, if you have a horn or other type of loud noise, please turn it off when your entry reaches the EQB Monument. There are those who do not like to hear the sirens and they will be seated at or near the hospital. Due to insurance precautions, we will once again be asking that you sign a release form. And finally, if you will be riding a motorcycle or 4-wheeler, you will wear your helmet and be very cautious in your driving. Remember, there are children all along the parade route. Your help in this will be greatly appreciated.

Patriotic Celebration

The Sewanee Summer Music Festival is offering a free concert featuring the Sewanee Festival Band. The concert is at 7 p.m., Tuesday, July 4, at Guerri Auditorium.

Fireworks Blowout & Food Truck Alley

There will be plenty of food vendors lined up along Breakfield Road, starting at 5 p.m. to feed your appetite while you wait for the fireworks to start. Visit the Munchie Map tab on <sewanee4thofjuly.org> to view all the food vendors that will be available. After dark, the Fireworks Show will be at Lake Cheston. There will be a suggested donation of $1 to contribute to next year's fireworks. As in the past, this is a walking or biking event for most participants. Please plan accordingly to walk or bike to Lake Cheston. Parking at the Lake will be limited to disabled and special needs only. You will need to display your Disabled Driver Decal or Placard to be allowed to park at Lake Cheston.

The Sewanee Fourth of July is sponsored by the University of the South and the Sewanee Community Chest, with leadership from the Sewanee Fourth of July Committee.

Pre-Fourth of July Celebration

The St. James/Midway Community Park will host this event from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturday, July 1. Everyone is invited to come join the fun. There will be a bounce house, dunk booth and a water slide. Hotdogs, chips and water will also be available. This event is free. Donations to the park are accepted, no matter the size. St. James is located at 898 Midway Rd., in Sewanee.

NATURENOTES

Pipsissewa by Yolande Gottfried

Fly Poison and Ratsbane

David Rowe reported several plants of Fly Poison growing on his property on the Plateau. It has a tuft of long narrow basal leaves and the flowering stalk is up to a yard high with showy white flowers. It occurs only occasionally in our area and is also uncommon in that it is the only member of its genus, Amianthium. The common name is well-deserved. All parts of the plant contain toxins, especially the bulb. Early settlers would make a paste of the bulb with sugar or honey to attract and kill flies. The leaves may be eaten by cattle or other animals causing a disease known as the staggers, giving the plant the name Stagger-Grass, with death possible due to respiratory failure.

Another much smaller plant currently in bloom and with poisonous properties is Pipsissewa or Spotted Wintergreen. It is one of the few plants blooming in the shade of the woods at this time of the year. The leaves are evergreen and the veins are lined in white. The nodding flowers are a waxy white or pink. Leonard King said that local children would pick the flowers and stick them on their faces — natural stickers. It is called Ratsbane in Appalachia, including locally. Another common name, Wild Arsenic, may give a clue as to the origin of that common name. The name Pipsissewa comes from the Cherokee word for the plant and refers to use in treating kidney stones.

Jupiter

Aragorn

MARC's Mountain Adoptables

Meet Jupiter & Aragorn

Jupiter is a party guy and loves adventures. He and his brother and mother were dumped and then in a pound. Jupiter loves all people no matter their age. His favorite thing is getting love and hugs from his people. Jupiter is black with a tiny bit of white and has one blue eye. He is around 17 weeks old and weighs around 25 lbs. Jupiter would love to go on some hikes or maybe play Frisbee and then relax to get lots of snuggles. Come check him out.

Meet Aragorn! "There is always hope." Aragorn was the first one out of the crate exploring. He's a trail-blazer like his movie counterpart, but once he settled in he became a lap cat quickly. His favorite thing is finding a soft, quiet spot out of the way for a long nap. He's more independent than his brothers and doesn't mind going off by himself. Definitely the chilliest kitten out of the litter. Aragorn is around ten weeks old, weighs around 3.5 lbs, is gray, and has short to medium length hair. Does Aragorn sound like the kitty who will fit perfectly into your family?

If you would like to know more about Jupiter and Aragorn, please fill out an Adoption Application on the MARC website <www.marc4change.org> and/or contact Sue Scruggs, cell phone (423) 619-3845. These pets are fostering on the Sewanee-Monteagle Mountain and are easy to meet. All MARC animals ready for adoption are spayed or neutered and up-to-date on their vaccines and preventatives.

MARC - Marion Animal Resource Connection is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit animal welfare organization. It is not a shelter and relies on foster homes to save animals. MARC also provides low cost and free spay/neuter procedures for animals and is available for teaching humane care of animals in schools and to community organizations.

FROM BARD TO VERSE

by Robin Bates

Father’s Day

To pull the metal splinter from my palm my father recited a story in a low voice.
I watched his lovely face and not the blade.
Before the story ended, he’d removed the iron sliver I thought I’d die from.

I can’t remember the tale, but hear his voice still, a well
of dark water, a prayer.
And I recall his hands,
two measures of tenderness
he laid against my face, the flames of discipline
he raised above my head.

Had you entered that afternoon
you would have thought you saw a man planting something in a boy’s palm, a silver tear, a tiny flame.
Had you followed that boy
you would have arrived here, where I bend over my wife’s right hand.

Look how I shave her thumbnail down so carefully she feels no pain.
Watch as I lift the splinter out.
I was seven when my father took my hand like this,
and I did not hold that shard between my fingers and think,
Metal that will bury me,
christen it Little Assassin,
Ore Going Deep for My Heart.
And I did not lift up my wound and cry,
Death visited here!
I did what a child does when he’s given something to keep.
I kissed my father.
