MSSA Program Highlights for June 19-25

The Monteagle Sunday School Assembly in Monteagle continues its 140th consecutive summer season of enrichment with an interdenominational worship service at 11 a.m. in the Assembly's Warren Chapel. The eight-week season will continue through Sunday, Aug. 7, featuring numerous visiting lecturers who will present morning and evening programs in the Auditorium that are free of charge to the public; unless otherwise noted, morning lectures begin at 10:45 a.m. and evening lectures at 7:45 p.m. Anyone interested in a full schedule of the Monteagle Assembly's 2022 program is welcome to pick one up at the Assembly Office (tel. 931-924-2286), or to peruse the schedule on the Assembly's website at www.mssa1882.org.

The Wayne & Virginia Jervis Bible Week brings friend of the Assembly, Dr. Tom McCullough, back to Monteagle for a week of lectures around the topic: "In the Footsteps of a Wandering Galilean: Putting Jesus in the Land Called Holy in Life and Death." Lectures Tuesday-Friday at 10:45 a.m. in the Auditorium will trace the life of Jesus from the desert to Galilee and on to Jerusalem. McCullough is the Nelson and Mary McDowell Rhodes Professor of Religion Emeritus at Centre College and the Director of the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Coastal Carolina University. He also directs archaeological projects in the Middle East. He's written several books and articles on Galilee, archaeology, and the relationship between history and current events.

Three performances will delight attendees this week, with something for everyone on the schedule. Tuesday evening in the Auditorium, the Nashville Shakespeare Festival brings the Bard to Monteagle with workshops for youth and a special performance, "Macbeth, a crucial conversation," which presents the story of "Macbeth" as a dialogue between the actors and the audience. The objective is to view the characters' issues through a contemporary lens while demonstrating the clarity and power of Shakespeare's poetry. Four notable songwriters from Nashville will perform Friday evening in the Auditorium, sharing their music and experiences with attendees. Scheduled to perform are Bruce Arnston, Michael Kelsh, Jack Sundrud, and Thom Schuyler. Finally, the award-winning After Hours Barbershop Quartet group will perform Saturday evening in the Auditorium. The group got its start at Bradley University in Peoria, Ill., in 2007; since then, they've placed in the top 10 in the International Quartet Contest multiple times and won the gold medal in 2018.

Thursday evening, join Dr. Molly Worthen from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill as she lectures on North American religious and intellectual history in a talk titled, "The Holy Ghost and American Politics." After attending Yale University for her doctorate, Dr. Worthen has published books, articles, and recently released an audio course for Audible called Charismatic Leaders Who Remade America. She is currently writing a history of political and religious charisma in America. Her lecture will take place in the Auditorium at 7:45 p.m.

Additional events this week include the following:

Sunday, 4 p.m., The Mall: Blessing of the Animals, followed by ice cream social.

Tuesday, 9:15 a.m., The Mall Gazebo: Platform Coffee – conversation and information on the week's workshops and events. Bring your own mug.

Wednesday, 2:30 p.m., Harton Dining Hall: Southern Cake: From Caramel to Coconut, Lane to Lady Baltimore, how religion, immigration, poverty, plenty, politics, literature, isolation, and new inventions helped bake the cakes of the South. Plus a cake tasting! With Anne Byrn.

The Mission of the Monteagle Sunday School Assembly is to be a welcoming community of Christian faith where people gather to engage in spiritual growth and renewal, lifelong inquiry and learning, recreational, and cultural enrichment, while being good stewards of our natural resources and our Assembly heritage.

Will Sewanee's Legendary Hospitality Shop Close?

by Leslie Lytle, Messenger Staff Writer

For more than 60 years the Hospitality Shop has been a Sewanee fixture, although its role has shifted to accommodate changing times. But now, changing times may force the Hospitality Shop to shutter the doors.

The Hospitality Shop had its origins in the Emerald-Hodgins Auxiliary, said Board Chair Julia Bates. "The auxiliary was a group of women who wanted to support the community and focused on Emerald-Hodgson Hospital where they were having their babies." The women served as Candy Strippers and served meals in the basement of Thompson Union to raise money, as a sideline operating a thrift store. Revenue went toward scholarships for high school seniors pursuing a medical career. The Auxiliary also gave "tens of thousands of dollars" to purchase equipment for the hospital, rescue squad, and fire department, Bates said. When the hospital became a for-profit entity, the Auxiliary decided to focus on providing scholarships, rather than assisting the hospital. In the early 1970s, the Hospitality Shop moved to the "yellow house" on University Avenue. The Auxiliary continued to serve meals until 2006, but energy increasingly turned toward operating the thrift store.

Now, two difficult, possibly insurmountable challenges confront the Hospitality Shop. One, the building rental contract has expired and the building needs an estimated $100,000 in repairs. "We were not told to evict," said Bates, "but the contract needs to be renegotiated." Under a "gentleman's understanding," the Hospitality Shop pays no rent, and it was "assumed" the Auxiliary would fund interior repairs. Three years ago, though, the Auxiliary reimbursed the University for putting on a new roof. "That seems to be the model," Bates said. The University has offered to make the needed repairs on the condition the Auxiliary reimburses them.

The second challenge, lack of volunteers, exacerbates the repair issue. The drop off bins for clothes and housewares fill up twice daily, requiring unloading, sorting, and labeling, far more work than two part-time employees can handle. The volunteer staff of eight, all but one over 70 years old, invests inordinate amounts of time and energy to keep the thrift store open.

Bates estimates it will take eight to 10 years to repay the University for repairs. "Do we want to commit to paying back $100,000?" Bates said. "In eight to 10 years, most of us won't be on the board and able to volunteer." Equally concerning is whether it is wise to commit to paying back $100,000 when the University rental contract policy limits renters to a 3-year lease. The Hospitality Shop has a small savings that might pay 20 percent of the loan, but the money is earmarked for scholarships, Bates stressed. The Hospitality Shop gave two $1,000 scholarships to graduating high school seniors this year, one from Franklin County and one from Grundy County.

"We could close the shop and continue to give scholarships for 10 years," Bates said. "By then we would all be in our 80s or 90s."

Looking to solutions, Bates hopes to attract three to five volunteers willing to commit to working one day a week and to compile a list of substitute volunteers to work during high volume times or when regular volunteers need time off. A Bonner and a Canale scholar help with social media and enlisting sorority and fraternity volunteers to work a few hours on Saturdays. Bates would like to see professors encourage students to take on the Hospitality Shop as an academic project, bringing more "entrepreneur interns" into the fold.

The Hospitality Shop has been a 501(c)(3) nonprofit since the 1970s. Bates cites the mantra of nonprofits: "Give us your time, your talent and your treasures." "My focus isn't treasures," Bates said. "Give us your talent and your time." The Hospitality Shop promotes "sustainable energy" by encouraging recycling and by giving those with less means access to resources," Bates insisted. "You're contributing to the community when you volunteer."

The Hospitality Shop will have a luncheon to gather community input on what direction to take at noon, Friday, July 8, in Kennerly Hall at the parish of St. Mark and St. Paul. Please follow the link <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/349942446277> to RSVP for chicken salad and iced tea, followed by cake and a discussion of what comes next for the Shop. You may also email Paula Yeatman at paulayeatman033@gmail.com. Donations to cover the cost of the meal can be left at the door.

LITTLE BELLAS LEADERSHIP THANKS

To the Editor:

Kudos to the leadership of the Little Bellas Mountain Biking Camp which concluded last Friday. Designed for girls 8-12, the Camp teaches cycling skills, safety, mechanics and group riding etiquette. Three of our granddaughters completed the course Friday with additional bike skills and an increased measure of self-confidence on cycling thru puddles, gravel and over narrow wooden bridges. They had fun too!

Thank you Becca Loose, BP and others for the care and leadership exhibited throughout the week.

By the way, Little Bellas is a Community Chest supported activity. Your designated gift next fall will provide scholarships to young girls to share in the same empowering experience.

ANN OLIVER APPRECIATION

To the Editor:

I would like to extend my sincere thanks and appreciation to the family of Miss Ann Oliver, whose memorial service last week I was unable to attend. Her contributions to the Sewanee township for many decades are so many, and to her children I say Thank You for sharing her with all of us. As a member of the St. Mark's Community, I give thanks for her Episcopal faith, and for all the many ways she enriched all of our lives.

VC SEARCH IDEA

To the Editor:

As the University begins the search for a new Vice-Chancellor, I encourage the search committee to think differently about what it is looking for in a new president. Now is the time for a "non-traditional" candidate. Someone in the mold of Bob Ayres and less the model of the classic academic leader. I understand that there is some level of mythology around Mr. Ayres' tenure just as there is around Dr. McCrady. Many of the issues confronting Sewanee today are not those normally confronting a college president. Remember, here the college's head is also the "mayor" of our town. A town with problems similar to many other small towns across the country.

What we need is a clear headed, down-to-earth problem-solver experienced in working with and managing diverse constituencies, special interest groups, and local politics. Someone used to addressing problems head-on and getting things done. Someone able to confront the "fierce urgency of now." The questions of housing, adequate health care, infrastructure, and economic growth are issues that need an experienced hand to address.

What we need is an experienced city manager. Professional town administrators are used to identifying problems, finding solutions, and focusing on implementation. They understand deadlines and moving things forward to completion.

There is adequate experience existing on campus to help advise this new kind of vice chancellor on the needs of the academic side of the position. The provost and deans can manage the problems of faculty and staff vacancies. I guarantee that someone who can deal with police and fire unions, school teachers, neighborhood associations, business groups, hospitals, and street lights, can figure out how to work with the Faculty Senate and the Board of Trustees.

Think differently and we will get someone different. Maybe someone better suited for dealing with Sewanee's present problems.

*Greg Maynard,
Sewanee*

Retreats at St. Mary's Sewanee

There is still time to register for summer fun at St. Mary's Sewanee, the Ayres Center for Spiritual Development! Contact the Reservations Office for more information at (931) 598-5342 or register online at our website <www.stmaryssewanee.org>.

Join Rabbi Rami Shapiro July 15–17, for an onsite weekend event, "Dying Wisely: Preparing for my last breath by working with my next breath." There is no escape from death. If you are alive, you are going to die. If not today, then tomorrow. You have no choice in this. The only choice you have is between dying wisely or dying ignorantly. Dying wisely leads to a gentle surrendering of self into the sea of sat chit Ananda (pure being, pure consciousness, pure bliss). Dying ignorantly leads to a desperate flailing of self in hopes of keeping oneself from dying. This retreat is for those who wish to die wisely.

Victor Judge will lead an exploration of the connection between literature and spirituality using the modern American literary theologian writings of Flannery O'Connor. This onsite weekend retreat is July 29–31, and air-conditioned rooms and commuter packages are still available.

SEWANEE
THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH

Get Ready for a 'Hot Diggity' Fourth of July in Sewanee

The Fourth of July Committee is proud to announce the theme for the 2022 celebration: "Hot Diggity All-American Dogs!" The theme can encompass all things "dog" — from our beloved pets to the All-American favorite food, hot dogs, and anything and everything in between.

More information will be available soon at <<http://www.sewanee4thofjuly.org>>.

Street Dance

The celebration will begin at 5:30 p.m., Sunday, July 3, in Angel Park, with a water slide for the children, plenty of food vendors, and all-around family fun at Angel Park. The Street Dance will start at 7 p.m. featuring live music by Eaglemaniacs.

Sunrise Yoga

The Sewanee Community Center is hosting a Sunrise Yoga session at 7 a.m. in Manigault Park. The class is free and for any level of yoga ability. Please bring your own mat. The rain location is in Sewanee Community Center.

Pub Run

Join the Monteagle Sunday School Assembly in celebrating their 43rd Annual Pub Run starting at 8 a.m. Runners will meet at the MSSA Front Gate and run to Shenanigan's (6.4 miles) on the Mountain Goat Trail. Walkers may start at Dollar General. The fee for the run is $20. Pre-register at the MSSA Office or call (931) 924-2286 for more information. All are welcome to participate. There will be awards for winners and beer at the finish line.

Flag Raising

Rise and shine on the Fourth of July with local Boy Scout Troop 14 at the 49th annual Flag Raising ceremony. This year the ceremony kicks off at 8 a.m. at Juhan Bridge in Abbo's Alley with a pot-luck breakfast following in the shared driveway of the Smiths, Gardners, and Beaumont Zuckers. Come join us in this festive celebration and tradition of patriotic song, accompanied by the Sewanee Summer Music Festival Brass Quintet, flag raising, and fellowship. Coffee and juice will be provided by the Friends of Abbo's Alley (donations encouraged). Attendees are asked to bring a pastry or other breakfast dish to share. Individually wrapped or portioned items are encouraged. For more information, call Margaret Beaumont Zucker at (931) 598-5214.

Arts & Crafts Fair Vendors

We invite you to participate in our Arts & Crafts Fair beginning on Monday, July 4, at 9 a.m. in Shoup Park, where you can view the parade without leaving your booth, rain or shine. There is a $25 non-refundable fee and spaces are limited and pre-assigned, so sign up early. Go to <sewanee4thofjuly.org> under Event Registration for more information and for your entry form or contact Bracie Parker at <melaniebracie@yahoo.com> with any questions. Come spend the day with us, sell your wares, and enjoy the parade and other fun activities.

Food

Vendors along University Avenue will begin selling food and drinks at 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. Visit the Munchie Map tab on <sewanee4thofjuly.org> to view all the food vendors and their planned locations.

Mutt Show

Enter your favorite pooch in the 2022 Fourth of July Mutt Show! All dogs are welcome to compete — no talent necessary. Registration for the Mutt Show will take place from 9 to 9:45 a.m. in Manigault Park. The show begins at 10 a.m. Ribbons will be awarded for these canine categories: Best Dressed, Owner/Dog Look-Alike, Best Theme, Best Trick and Judges' Choice. Entrants may register to compete in two categories. The registration fee is $5 per category, and all proceeds will go to the Fourth of July Fireworks. Audience members may contribute to Animal Harbor and MARC. In case of rain, the Mutt Show will take place in the Equestrian Center.

SSMF Pop-Up Brass Quintet

The Sewanee Summer Music Festival Brass Quintet will be performing outside of All Saints' Chapel beginning at 11:30 a.m. Keep an ear out for their inspiring patriotic performances.

Annual Cake Baking Contest

Calling all cake bakers! It is time to put your cakes on display. Do you have a favorite cake recipe or a talent for cake decorating? Showcase your skills by entering your cake in the Sewanee Woman's Club Annual Cake Contest. Entering is free of charge.

The categories are Best Tasting,

Best Decorated and Best Representation of Theme. Let your creativity shine with this year's theme — "Hot Diggity All American Dogs."

Adult winners of the Best Tasting, Best Decorated, and Best Representation of theme will receive gift cards from the Piggly Wiggly and Mooney's Market and Emporium.

Adult winners of the Best Tasting, Best Decorated, and Best Representation of the Theme will be entered in the Best All-Around Category. The winner of Best All-Around category will receive $100 courtesy of The Sewanee Mountain Messenger and a $50 gift certificate from The Lemon Fair. And, thanks to Ken Taylor of Taylor's Mercantile, the baker of the best all-around cake can display the beautiful first place ribbon in the parade.

Youth (under 13) winners will receive $10 from The Sewanee Mountain Messenger and a card for ice cream from The Blue Chair.

Bring your cake to the American Legion between 9-9:45 a.m. on Monday, July 4, to register. If you want to write a short description of the cake, please bring it with you and we will put it alongside your entry.

If you have questions, please email <paulayeatman033@gmail.com>.

Breslin Tower Bells

At noon, The University of the South Guild of Change-Ringers will perform at Breslin Tower.

Carillon Concert

Charlene Williamson, Hannah True, and Raymond Gotko will perform a Carillon Recital at 1 p.m. Bring a chair to All Saints' Chapel to enjoy the music.

Sewanee Fourth of July Parade Entries

There are so many creative ways to strut your stuff down University Avenue, and they range from traditional and elaborate to simple, elegant, memorable, and bizarre.

Anything with wheels is good: flatbeds, cars, Wiernobiles, convertibles, golf carts, wagons, wheelbarrows, bikes, big wheels, scooters.

But on foot (or hooves) could be even better, especially if you've got a colorful banner (and/or signs, big hats, hotdog costumes, confetti, giant pinwheels, hotdogs glued onto your person) declaring who you are and what you do for this diverse community!

The parade begins at 2 p.m. on Monday, July 4; line-up begins at noon on Georgia Avenue, and judge-ing begins at 1 p.m. Please enter on Mississippi Avenue from University Avenue, and our tent will be set up catty-cornered from Benedict Hall and the parking lot on the corner.

We will have trophies for best float, best decorated vehicle, and best horse, and blue ribbons for best decorated bicycle, best banner, best costume, and judge's favorite.

If you're interested in showing how your organization loves hot-dogs and keeps alive the American spirit of opportunity and hope for all, please do the following:

Send a quick email to <jkgressl@sewanee.edu> today to let us know that your wheels are turning.

Fill out the parade entry form <<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSfY95QTa2PjPo0AoDa-b3X0thh2Fe60hIkZ-47T35OMFSYINGw/viewform>>.

Tweet at <<https://twitter.com/wiernobile>> and ask them to be sure to attend.

Parade Observers

PLEASE DO NOT PARK ON UNIVERSITY AVENUE. All vehicles must be moved before Noon to make room for the parade. Some parking will be available at the Sewanee Community Center/Sewanee Senior Center behind the Sewanee market. The parade will begin at 2 p.m. starting at the caution light at the intersection of Georgia and University Avenues and will travel downtown. Please note that sirens will be on for the duration of the parade.

Fireworks Blowout & Food Truck Alley

There will be plenty of food vendors lined up along Breakfield Rd. starting at 5 p.m. to feed your appetite while you wait for the fireworks to start. Visit the Munchie Map tab on <sewanee4thofjuly.org> to view all the food vendors that will be available. After dark, the Fireworks Show will be at Lake Cheston. There will be a suggested donation of $1 to contribute to next year's fireworks. As in the past, this is a walking or biking event for most participants. Please plan accordingly to walk or bike to Lake Cheston. Parking at the Lake will be limited to disabled and special needs only. Grundy Class of 1960 Holds 62nd Reunion

Graduates of the Grundy County High School Class of 1960 came from as far away as Texas to attend their 62nd class reunion.

The June 4 event at the Coalmont Community Center attracted 40 persons, including 24 class members, spouses and guests, according to Pete Bouldin of Tracy City, class president. Traditionally, classmates had been gathering every five years, but had postponed meeting for two years because of COVID-19.

"We thought it best to exercise caution," Bouldin said of the postponement decision reached by a seven-member planning committee.

Until recently, average reunion attendance was about 50, Bouldin said. Currently, of the 114 graduates of the 1960 class, 50 are known to be deceased. Their names were announced at the gathering during a moment of silence and remembrance.

Classmates and guests enjoyed a catered meal and several hours of socializing and reminiscing amid festive decorations of purple and gold, the school's colors.

Plans for the next reunion are under discussion.

The University of the South women's tennis team recorded a top-10 finish for the 10th time in program history, as the Tigers finish the 2022 season ranked 10th in the final Division III National Rankings of the season, administered by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) and sponsored by Tennis-Point.

The Purple and White wrapped up the season with a 21-4 mark en route to the program's eighth Southern Athletic Association's Regular Season and Tournament titles.

The team also wrapped up the campaign second in the Atlantic South Region.

In the Individual National Rankings, Alice Hall appears on both the Singles and Doubles listings, joining partner Brooke Despriet.

In Singles, Hall is ranked 35th in the nation and eighth in the region. The Isle of Palms, S.C. native recorded an 11-5 mark, including 9-4 in spring competition. She was named the SAA's Player of the Year and a First Team selection.

In Doubles, the freshmen duo finished in ninth place in the national Doubles rankings and second in the region. Playing as the top doubles team in the Atlantic South for the second half of the season, Hall/Despriet recorded a 17-5 overall record and 14-3 at the No. 1 position.

The ITA also announced that Brooke Despriet and Alice Hall were named ITA All-Americans for their success in 2022.

In the region rankings, Despriet, and Emma Smith were ranked in Singles, while Natalia Nassar and Ansley Carpenter were listed in Doubles.

Despriet finished 11th in the region as she tallied an 8-9 overall record, including a 5-8 mark at the No. 1. The Cumming, Ga. native was named the SAA's Newcomer of the Year and a First Team All-Conference member.

Ranked 17th in the region, Smith posted a 13-5 mark in Singles in 2022, including winning 11 of 15 spring contests. Ending the campaign on a five-match winning streak, the Mount Pleasant, S.C. native collected First Team honors on the All-SAA Team.

The doubles team of Carpenter and Nassar finished the 2022 season in seventh, as they secured a 20-win season with a 20-2 mark, including a perfect spring regular season of 14-0. The team finished with an 18-1 mark in dual matches. Both student-athletes were listed on the All-SAA First Team.

NATURENOTES

by Yolande Gottfried

Pink!

Two pink blooming plants are notable on our roadsides at this season, and they both stymied my attempts at identification when we first moved here. So, in case anyone is having the same trouble, here is an introduction. One is shrub, Japanese spiraea or Japanese meadowsweet. It has flat-topped clusters of bright pink flowers. It certainly is pretty, but it is not native and has escaped from cultivation after being introduced as an ornamental in the late 1800's from eastern Asia. It has spread through the eastern United States and Canada, but it isn't common everywhere. Only 11 counties report it in Tennessee, mostly on the Cumberland Plateau — it certainly seems to be happy here in Sewanee. The problem is that it can out-compete and replace some of the native flora. Anyone considering planting it might look into some native plant alternatives instead, such as summersweet (Clethra alnifolia) or arrowwood (Viburnum dentatum). The other pink bloomer is a herbaceous climbing vine, everlasting pea or perennial sweet pea. The second name is rather deceiving because this is not the sweet-smelling sweet pea that is familiar as a garden flower, although this attractive plant is also used in gardens. Everlasting pea is also a non-native, originating in Europe. Besides pink, the flowers can be white, yellow, or blue. This species has spread throughout the United States and can be weedy and invasive. Butterfly pea (Clitoria mariana) might be considered as an alternative.

Judy Barry of Monteagle called the Messenger office and said while her husband was mowing he found a single white large egg at the edge of the woods. She looked it up in the encyclopedia and thinks it's a black snake egg, but would love to have someone ID it for her.

Gremlin

Roy

MARC's Mountain Adoptables

Meet Gremlin. She is a senior lady around 10 years old and she is looking for a happy home to spend several more years. Gremlin is a happy little girl, the life of the party. Her foster mom says she is the best dog she has fostered. Gremlin sleeps all night on the foot of her foster mom's bed. She has not had any potty accidents, she travels well and gets along with all the animals on the farm. She is probably a Jack Russell Terrier mix weighing about 25 lbs. Gremlin is up-to date on her vaccines and preventatives and is spayed. If you are looking for a fun senior to brighten your days, Gremlin is the one you want.

This is Roy. He wants to be loved and is learning to trust humans. Roy was a stray and in poor condition when a nice lady secured him and brought him inside. Since then he has been neutered and his eyes medicated for an infection. Roy is positive for feline AIDS (FeLV) so he needs to be the only kitty in the home and inside only. He is negative for feline Leukemia (FIV). He likes to be brushed while he is eating and tolerates petting more and more as he is getting used to his new life. Roy likes to rub against legs and seek attention. If you are looking for a good companion and don't want but one cat, Roy might just be your perfect match.

If you would like to learn more about Gremlin and Roy, please fill out an Adoption Application on the MARC website <www.marc4change.org> or contact Sue Scruggs at (423) 619-3845. These pets are fostering on the Sewanee-Monteagle Mountain and are easy to meet. All MARC animals ready for adoption are spayed or neutered and up-to-date on their vaccines and preventatives.

MARC is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit animal welfare organization. It is not a shelter and relies on foster homes to save animals. MARC also provides low cost and free spay/neuter procedures for animals.

The Sewanee Children's Center's goal is to provide a safe and loving environment that is sensitive to the physical, cognitive, social, and emotional development of our children. We foster an enthusiasm for discovery and life-long learning. The teachers of SCC provide developmentally appropriate teaching and learning for children ages two to five years old in its preschool program and for children in kindergarten through second grade in its after-school program.

Responsibilities will include but are not limited to:
Planning activities to encourage each child's growth in the areas of emotional, social, cognitive, and physical development.

Recognizing and considering the individual needs of each child in relation to cultural and socio-economic background, disabilities, special talents and interests, and style and pace of learning.

Helping children learn to think creatively, to solve problems independently, and to respect themselves and others.

Supporting the mission of the school by becoming familiar with and ascribing to the Reggio Emilia and constructivist practices in early childhood education.

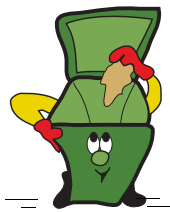

Becoming familiar with and following DHS rules and regulations
Respecting the confidentiality of all children, families, and colleagues.
Being responsible for the arrangement, decor, and learning environment in the classroom.

Candidates should be at least 18 years old with a high school diploma and have experience working with children (preferably in a childcare center).

Interested applicants should send a cover letter, resume, and references to Sarah Ralston Stark at sewaneechildrenscenter@gmail.com or apply online at sewaneechildrenscenter.org/careers.

SCC is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization located at 216 University Avenue. Please find more information online at sewaneechildrenscenter.org.

BARDTOVERSE

Father's Day – June 19

Dad would come home after too long at work and I'd sit on his lap to hear the story of Ferdinand the Bull; every night, me handing him the red book until I knew every word, couldn't read, just recite along with drawings of a gentle bull, frustrated matadors, the all-important bee, and flowers—flowers in meadows and flowers thrown by the Spanish ladies.
Its lesson, really,
about not being what you're born into but what you're born to be, even if that means
not caring about the capes they wave in your face or the spears they cut into your shoulders.
And Dad, wonderful Dad, came home after too long at work and read to me
the same story every night until I knew every word, couldn't read just recite.

--Matt Mason, The Story of Ferdinand the Bull
