SUD: Unexpected Expenses; Recouping Expenses

by Leslie Lytle, Messenger Staff Writer

At the June 20 meeting, the Sewanee Utility District Board of Commissioners weighed decisions about multiple unbudgeted expenses. The board voted to ask the University to reimburse the utility for a portion of the cost SUD incurred for narrowing Highway 41A, a University initiated project undertaken by the Tennessee Department of Transportation.

The board approved SUD manager Ben Beavers' recommendation to purchase a 2023 Hustler Super Z mower, cost $14,282.67, to replace the nearly identical mower purchased in 2007. SUD put a new motor in the mower in 2012, but now the clutch had gone out, and the mower had reached the end of serviceable life. Beavers preferred the Hustler over the other state contract listed brand, John Deere, for the larger engine, although the Hustler was slightly more costly by $1,100. "The mower we have now has been one of the best ones we've had," Beavers said recommending the purchase and citing the extensive amount of mowing required at the dams and physical plant.

The board also addressed purchasing a new accounting and billing software package. As of January, the current provider United will no longer offer the platform SUD uses, and while they offer a new platform. Beavers conceded, "The office staff has not been pleased with the service." Beavers researched providers and from a list of seven narrowed the choices down to two, CUSI and Ampstun. Beavers recommended Ampstun which over five years would cost $350 less per month, although he stressed the CUSI platform was far more "interface friendly" to use when responding to customers inquiries about billing data. "The ladies in the office asked that I represent their choice [CUSI]," Beavers said.

"I'm inclined to lean toward the office staff's choice," said Board President Charlie Smith. Commissioner Johnny Hughes concurred, observing the cost difference only amounted to $4 per customer per year.

The board voted to purchase the CUSI software package.

Beavers also called the board's attention to an upcoming decision about repairing or replacing SUD's Ford service truck which broke

On May 16, Monteagle Elementary held their annual eighth grade Promotion ceremony. Each year numerous awards are given to students for academic, character, and other achievements. In addition to these, there is one award that is given to a community member. This is called the Sissy Stewart Volunteer Award. It is given in memory of Sissy Stewart. She was an avid volunteer with a love of literacy. This year's award was given to the board of a newly-founded initiative called United for Literacy (UFL). Its mission is to bring Monteagle Elementary students along with parents, businesses, and community volunteers together in an effort to build a more sustainable local workforce creating lifelong learners. To begin the process of reaching this goal, they provided free field trips rooted in academic standards to all grades. Students were able to have real-life experiences based on knowledge from class. One group went to the Parthenon in Nashville. Another to the American Village in Alabama. Trips to the Huntsville Space and Rocket Center and Chamber Theatre plays are already planned for next year, thanks to UFL. MES is beyond grateful to have an opportunity to choose trips and experiences that support the students' learning without the stress of cost to families. Congratulations to United for Literacy for being awarded this honor. This initiative is 100 percent donor based. If you are interested in supporting this cause, stop by Citizens Tri-County Bank in Monteagle and ask about ways to give. The “secret” to vitality & whole-body wellness isn’t a secret at all; it’s Ayurveda, and it’s accessible to everyone, including you. Ayurveda is the “Science of Longevity,” and it’s an ancient traditional medicine & healing practice of India.

Ayurveda is a practical and intuitive framework that reconnects people to the energetic rhythms of Nature. This framework empowers individuals to make lifestyle choices that are not only beneficial for the person, but for all humankind, all living creature and the environment that sustains us.

Join presenter, Jo-Jo Jackson of Nashville, at St. Mary’s Sewanee Retreat Center for a weekend of “wellness immersion” learning the foundational knowledge of an Ayurveda lifestyle, Aug. 19–20, 2023.

Bridge Refugee Service to Present at Lunch and Learn

Stephanie Livigni, Executive Director of Bridge Refugee Services, is this month's speaker at Sewanee's Lunch and Learn program held in Convocation Hall on Monday, June 26, from noon to 1 p.m. The session is open to the community and to alumni. For those not able to attend in person, the meeting will be made available via Zoom. Registration ($10 per session or $30 for the year) can be made in person at the event.

Bridge Refugee Services was founded in Knoxville in 1982 and a branch office was opened in Chattanooga in 1996. In the past 10 years, Bridge has resettled more than 2,400 refugees from Africa, Southeast Asia, Eastern Europe, Central and South America, and the Middle East. Over the past year a significant portion of its activity has been resettling Ukrainian war refugees (parolees in government jargon) in East Tennessee.

Once refugees have been approved by the various federal agencies for travel, the U.S. State Department's Bureau for Population, Refugees and Migration program coordinates admission of refugees and their allocation to specific cities with local resettlement agencies—such as Bridge. This process happens through the auspices of nine national agencies, part of the unique public-private partnership that provides services for refugees across the country. Bridge partners with Episcopal Migration Ministries in this reception and placement process.

Sewanee has existing ties with Bridge via internships in its Chattanooga office, and last year the Rotary Club of Monteagle-Sewanee arranged a $25,000 grant from the Rotary Foundation to help Bridge assist Ukrainian war parolees resettle in East Tennessee.

School of Letters Faculty Reading with Francis and Taylor

The Sewanee School of Letters continues its series of events this week with a faculty reading at 4:30 p.m., Wednesday, June 28, in Naylor Auditorium with Vieve Francis and Justin Taylor. A reception follows in Gailor Atrium. The public is invited.

She is the author of three poetry collections: "Blue-Tail Fly" (2006), "Horse in the Dark" (2012), which won the Cave Canem Northwestern University Press Poetry Prize and "Forest Primeval" (2017), which won the 2017 Kingsley Tufts Award. She has a collection forthcoming in 2023, titled "The Shared World."

She is currently an associate editor for Callaloo and is an associate professor at Dartmouth College.

Justin Taylor is the author of the memoir "Riding with the Ghost," published by Random House in 2020. He is also the

His work has appeared in the New Yorker, Harper's, BOMB, the Sewanee Review, and Bookforum, as well as many others.

He has taught writing at the graduate and undergraduate level in programs across the U.S., including Columbia University, the University of Southern Mississippi, and the University of Montana. He is the current director of the School of Letters. He lives in Portland, Oregon.

At 1 p.m., Friday, June 30, in the Torian Room of duPont Library, there will be a Reading and Craft Talk with David Haskell.

David Haskell is a two-time Pulitzer Prize finalist author. His latest book, "Sounds Wild and Broken: Sonic Marvels, Evolution's Creativity, and the Crisis of Sensory Extinction" (2022), is an Editor's Choice at the New York Times, explores the story of sound on Earth. His other books include "The Song of Trees" and "The Forest Unseen."

The School of Letters offers an MFA in creative writing under the directorship of Justin Taylor. Please visit the School's website <letters.sewanee.edu> for more information on the program.

down earlier that week. The dealership said the truck needed a new motor, cost $13,000. Beavers questioned the assessment and suspected the problem was a blown head gasket. He will visit the dealership and inspect the truck himself before making a recommendation. "It comes down to how much are we willing to spend versus how much service life is left in the truck," Beavers said.

Reporting on finances, Beavers alerted the board to an increase in chemical costs in December and again in March which has resulted in water-production costs being four percent over budget. "I'm not overly concerned at this point," Beavers said, although he anticipates production costs will be four to five percent over budget for the year. He attributed the increase to the chemicals being a petroleum-based product.

SUD's final cost for the narrowing of the Highway 41A project was $254,187, almost half what TDOT budgeted, Beavers said. "We earned our paycheck," he insisted, commenting on SUD's careful attention to minimizing costs. Based on a verbal agreement in the summer of 2020, the University agreed to reimburse SUD for 80 percent of the cost. Beavers will draft a letter to the University requesting reimbursement of $203,349 — 80 percent of the final cost to SUD.

MSSA: Sabato's Crystal Ball Joins Tennessee's Seigenthaler to Explore Media's Role in Politics

The Monteagle Sunday School Assembly in Monteagle continues its 141st consecutive summer season of enrichment through Sunday, Aug. 6, featuring numerous visiting lecturers who will present morning and evening programs in the Auditorium that are open free of charge to the public; unless otherwise noted, morning lectures begin at 10:45 a.m. and evening lectures at 7:45 p.m. Anyone interested in a full schedule of the Monteagle Assembly's 2023 program is welcome to pick one up at the Assembly Office (tel. (931) 924-2286), or to peruse the schedule on the Assembly's website at <www.mssa1882.org>.

Two noted political analysts will share their thoughts about the media's role in American election outcomes in an evening lecture Thursday, June 29. Larry Sabato, a well-known election prognosticator and professor of political science at the University of Virginia, will join Tennessean John Seigenthaler in conversation at the MSSA Auditorium at 7:45 p.m. that evening.

John Seigenthaler spent 11 years at NBC News, anchoring NBC Nightly News Weekend edition and appearing on Meet the Press, TODAY, and other well-known NBC news programs. He serves on the Freedom Forum board of trustees, the Peabody Awards board of jurors, and a member of the judging committee for the RFK Journalism Awards. He works in public relations and communications consulting in Nashville.

Larry Sabato is one of the nation's most respected political analysts, appearing regularly on national and international TV news networks, including CNN, BBC, and CNN International. A Rhodes Scholar, Sabato founded and directs the University of Virginia's Center for Politics. He has written and edited two dozen books on American politics. You may know him from Sabato's Crystal Ball, recognized by the Pew Charitable Trust as the best-rated political predictor. Sabato has won four Emmys for PBS documentaries and is a best-selling New York Times author.

Expect a lively discussion from two expert observers of our political and electoral system.

Our schedule this week also includes something for just about everyone on the Cumberland Plateau! We welcome Wall Street Journal writer Laura Saunders Tuesday morning to talk about "Death and Taxes: When Life's Two Certainties Collide." Saunders writes the Tax Report, the oldest column at the Journal and a favorite among readers. Saunders is a Sewanee undergraduate alumna who attended Columbia University for graduate school. Her program takes place in Warren Chapel.

Sewanee professor Chris McDonough presents the weekly Plateau talk & excursion on Wednesday. Through his work with filmmaker Stephen Garrett on the films "Mine 21" and "Ghosts of Lone Rock," McDonough is committed to preserving and sharing the history of the Plateau. "Mine 21" won the Austen Riggs Erikson Prize for Excellence in Mental Health Media in 2019, in addition to its acclaim during its run on PBS channels. McDonough and Garrett are now putting the finishing touches on "Ghosts of Lone Rock," which looks at the Lone Rock Stockade in Tracy City, one of the largest private prisons that engaged in convict leasing. Sewanee Visiting Assistant Professor of History Camille Westmonth leads an excavation of the site to shed light on the dark history of the practice and place. McDonough will talk about his work collaborating on these two film projects Wednesday morning in Warren Chapel. After lunch, he will lead a visit to the Lone Rock Stockade Archaeology Project site.

Retired lawyer-turned-filmmaker Norman Jetmundsen will screen his film, "UNRIVALED," about the undefeated 1899 Sewanee football team. A 1976 graduate of Sewanee, Jetmundsen teamed up with his classmate David Crews to create the documentary in 2016. The film, billed as "the ultimate David & Goliath story," earned a regional Emmy nomination and inclusion in multiple film festivals. After a screening of the documentary Saturday at 7:45 p.m. in the Auditorium, Jetmundsen will host a Q&A about the Sewanee football team's incredible season and his experiences writing, producing, and directing the film.

Additional events the third week of the Monteagle Assembly's 2023 season include the following:

Tuesday, June 27, 7:45 p.m., Auditorium – Sewanee Summer Music Festival performance.

Thursday, June 29, 10:45 a.m., Warren Chapel – Liz Norell lectures on "Dispelling Myths About Autism in Adults."

Friday, June 30, 10:45 a.m., Auditorium – Patrick Dean lectures about "Nature's Messenger: Mark Catesby and His Adventures in a New World."

Friday, June 30, 2:30 p.m., Writers' Grove – Patrick Dean reads from his book, Mark Catesby and His Adventures in a New World. If there's rain, this will be moved to Warren Chapel.

Saturday, July 1, 2:30 p.m., Writers' Grove – Norman Jetmundsen reads from "The Soul-bane Illusion."

The Mission of the Monteagle Sunday School Assembly is to be a welcoming community of Christian faith where people gather to engage in spiritual growth and renewal, lifelong inquiry and learning, recreational, and cultural enrichment, while being good stewards of our natural resources and our Assembly heritage.

Are You Ready to 'Fly Like an Eagle'

With the sightings of eagles around Mont Milner Lake, the Fourth of July Committee is proud to announce the theme for the 2023 Sewanee celebration: "Fly Like an Eagle!" The theme can encompass all things "eagle" — patriotism, freedom, independence, and anything and everything in between to celebrate our national bird.

We invite everyone to join us on Monday, July 3, and Tuesday, July 4, to commemorate the formation of the United States of America and celebrate with fun, food, family, and friends.

Start brainstorming your ideas for a celebration like no other with creative parade floats, imaginative cakes, and artistic costumes for you and your dogs. Visit our website <<http://www.sewanee4thofjuly.org>> to register for the parade, arts and crafts fair, and food truck vending. The schedule details will be coming soon.

Street Dance

The celebration will begin at 6 p.m., Monday, July 3 in Angel Park, with food vendors and all-around family fun. The Street Dance will start at 6 p.m. featuring live music by Twelve Against Nature, a Steely Dan cover band. This event is sponsored by the Sewanee Business Alliance.

Sunrise Yoga

The Sewanee Community Center is hosting a Sunrise Yoga session at 7 a.m. in Manigault Park. The class is free and for any level of yoga ability. Please bring your own mat. The rain location is in Sewanee Community Center.

Annual Monteagle-Sewanee Run/Walk

The 44th Annual Monteagle-Sewanee Run/Walk is at 8 a.m., Tuesday, July 4. Run 6.4 miles to Shenanigans via the Mountain Goat Trail. Walkers may begin at the trailhead at the Dollar General. ## Parade Observers

We appreciate your help in making the parade safe and enjoyable for everyone. Please do not park on University Avenue.

If you will be throwing candy, please be sure to throw it as close to the curb as you can. We want to keep our little ones as safe as possible by keeping them from running out into the road. It's not an easy task, but we can try. Also, if you have a horn or other type of loud noise, please turn it off when your entry reaches the EQB Monument. There are those who do not like to hear the sirens and they will be seated at or near the hospital. Due to insurance precautions, we will once again be asking that you sign a release form. And finally, if you will be riding a motorcycle or 4-wheeler, you will wear your helmet and be very cautious in your driving. Remember, there are children all along the parade route. Your help in this will be greatly appreciated.

The South Cumberland Community Fund (SCCF) awarded $97,500 in grants to 13 recipients at the 2023 Spring Grant Awards Ceremony June 3 in Sewanee, "Celebration of the Plateau."

"We want to lift up the people all across the Plateau who are doing so much to cultivate hope and prosperity," said Tom Sanders, SCCF executive director. "It's about more than the grants. It's about what we can accomplish together as a community."

The 2023 recipients include the following:

BetterFi, a $2,500 grant to spread awareness of their financial assistance programs. BetterFi is an economic justice enterprise and certified community development financial institution that provides affordable installment loans and coaching as a pathway out of debt traps.

Community Action Committee (CAC), a $6,000 grant to develop an education series for clients teaching money management, energy and water conservation strategies, and other sustainable living practices. CAC is an outreach program of the Episcopal Parish of St. Mark and St. Paul, which is dedicated to combating hunger and poverty in rural Appalachia, including in and around Sewanee.

Dependable Laundry, an $8,160 grant to upgrade laundry equipment to increase its efficiency and extend its opportunities to special education students graduating from Grundy County High School. Dependable Laundry provides job and career training for adults with intellectual disabilities and is the only organization in Grundy County to provide post-secondary education for these young adults.

Folks at Home, a $3,000 grant to renovate their public restroom, bringing it into compliance with the American with Disabilities Act of 1990 and providing more equitable access for the disabled in their building. Folks at Home coordinates services to empower individuals to live at home with dignity in the community they love.

Friends of South Cumberland State Park, a $10,000 grant to upscale the Cumberland Forest School, a project that provides nature-based education for children and families in Marion, Franklin, and Grundy Counties. Their goal is to make the program more accessible to community members by increasing scholarships for students in need, purchasing outdoor gear for children, and upgrading their existing space. The mission of the Friends of South Cumberland State Park is to aid and assist the managers and staff of South Cumberland and Savage Gulf State Parks.

Grundy County Saddle Club, an $8,500 grant to install 10 RV camper hookups on their show grounds to provide out-of-town visitors and hikers a safe, tranquil place to stay. The revenue from the RV hookups will provide the club with stable income during non-event days and help the club sustain and grow their programming for local families. The Grundy County Saddle Club is an organization which promotes a fun, family-oriented environment for local residents to participate in horse-related events.

Housing Sewanee, Inc., a $10,000 grant to help cover the cost of an HVAC system and kitchen appliances for a new home in the Sherwood Spring neighborhood. Modeled after Habitat for Humanity, Housing Sewanee, Inc. has worked with community partners since 1993 to build 20 homes. Partners not only build their own homes, but also receive interest free loans and financial counseling to ensure success with home ownership.

MARC, a $3,340 grant to conduct three to four canine clinics in locations on the Plateau. Each clinic will provide free vaccines for canine distemper, adenovirus, parainfluenza, and parvovirus (DAPP) as well as microchipping and id tags. MARC is a volunteer organization created to assist people and animals to live more humanely in Marion County, Tennessee, and to ease the burden of too many stray cats and dogs. MARC has expanded its services to the South Cumberland Plateau committees.

Mosaic Recovery Center, a $10,000 grant to improve their kitchen, which will promote a better living experience for their residents as well as provide enhanced job skill training and teach husbands and fathers how to better care for their families. The Mosaic Recovery Center is a men's Christ-centered residential addiction recovery center equipped to serve 27 residents. The center provides therapy, spiritual care, job skill training, parenting classes, pastoral counseling, and case management.

Sewanee Community Chest, an $8,500 grant to convert the parking lot and exterior of the Depot Building in downtown Sewanee into a trailhead for the Mountain

Goat Trail and an information center for the area. The projects will include new paving and striping of the parking lot, benches, signage, and landscaping. The Sewanee Community Chest raises funds annually to meet basic needs such as food, books, elder care, children's programs and initiatives.

St Mark's Community Organization, a $10,000 grant to renovate St. Mark's Community Center building to create a vibrant space that will be a center for community social events and help to preserve the heritage of this historically black community. St. Mark's Community Organization documents the history of the community center and works to strengthen ties within historic black communities in Franklin County.

Town of Tracy City, a $10,000 grant to install new lights at the old Grundy County High School football field which will increase overall use of the field and allow the addition of sports programs such as soccer. Tracy City is home to the Grundy Youth Jackets, a volunteer-run youth sports league program that has operated for more than 20 years. Its football and cheerleading programs are open to all children ages 4-12 in Grundy County.

Tracy City Free Clinic, a $10,000 grant, to develop a focused health program that will test, provide care plans and medications, and publicize and educate the community on care and prevention of Hepatitis C. The Tracy Free Clinic, which opened a year ago, has already treated hundreds of patients by providing holistic primary and preventative medical care free of charge to uninsured people in Grundy, Marion, and Franklin Counties.

The vision of South Cumberland Community Fund is that the Plateau is a place of hope and prosperity for all its residents and communities, inspired by the Fund's philanthropic and regional leadership. The Fund does this work by collaborating with the communities of the South Cumberland Plateau to seek common solutions for this place that we call home.

59th Annual Cottage Tour & Bazaar at MSSA

The Woman's Association of the MSSA (Monteagle Sunday School Assembly) will host its 59th Annual Cottage Tour & Bazaar on Friday, July 21. The much-anticipated event will include tours of five representative cottages; a self-guided tour of historic buildings; the always-popular bazaar with fine art, jewelry, home décor and plants, jewelry, clothing and much more; The Butterfly Boutique (resale); lunch options from La Bella Pearl's Restaurant; and the always popular Bake Sale.

The annual event is designed to share with the public the Assembly's unique history and mission, to showcase its representative turn-of-the-century cottages and structures, and to highlight the Chautauqua Movement and the Assembly's association with the Chautauqua Network. This year's tour will feature five distinctive cottages: Showboat, Southern Comfort, Doctor's Inn, The Nest, and Lagniappe. The Bazaar, open 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., welcomes old favorites and several new vendors who will bring local arts and crafts and splurge-worthy fine art and jewelry as well as paper, ceramics, clothes, plants, leather and more from more than 30 selected local and regional artisans. The nearby Butterfly Boutique sale of donated items from members and friends is a bargain-lover's dream held in the Writers' Grove located near the Woman's Association Winfield House.

At 10:45 a.m., guests are invited to attend a special presentation by Margot Shaw. Titled "Living Floral," Shaw's book and accompanying presentation is brimming with top stylemakers' and designers' innovative floral design ideas to enliven the home. From interior designers Charlotte Moss, Suzanne Rheinstein, and Bunny Williams, and event designer Tara Guerard to floral and garden experts Sybil Sylvester and P. Allen Smith and culinary consultant Alex Hitz, these luminaries impart their personal botanical point of view. They show how to incorporate flowers in home decor and present numerous ways to entertain with flair. For this inspirational yet instructive book, interior designers illustrate how eclectic furnishings work well with floral and botanical accents in fabric, wallpaper, artwork, and accessories to shape chic indoor spaces. Living Floral will resonate with those who appreciate the beauty and everyday luxury of flowers.

At the Harton Dining Hall, La Bella Pearl's will offer a buffet (available 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.). Pre-ordered, pre-paid box lunches can be picked up 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and enjoyed in one of the Assembly's green spaces.

Guests will also enjoy the annual bake sale where the Assembly's best cooks bring their sweet and savory specialties, and the Snack Shop will be open for popcorn, chilled candy bars, bottled water and souvenir T-shirts.

Be sure to stop in at cottage #116, The Gallery, a mainstay of the Assembly history and a shopping must during any visit. In addition to art and gifts, the Gallery is one of a select few to carry award-winning McCarty Pottery. Created by Assembly members, the late Lee and Pup McCarty, Mississippi-based McCartys has earned international recognition.

Advance tour tickets ($20, $25 day of) and box lunches ($20) must be reserved and paid for in advance on the MSSA website <MSSA1882.org> using PayPal or by calling the MSSA office at (931) 924-2286 or by stopping by the office. The Cherokee Bible Project has received a grant to allow students living and attending school on the Plateau in Grundy County to learn the Cherokee language and culture during the summer, school breaks and holidays for the 2023-2024 school year. Students must either reside within Grundy County and/or attend any one of the Grundy County Schools and/or communities within Altamont, Beersheba Springs, Coalmont, Flat Branch, Gruetli-Laager, Monteagle, Palmer, Pelham, or Tracy City. Contest Deadline is July 10, 2023.

These lessons are valued at $1500 each and will be absolutely free to the winners.

Two winners from each school in Grundy County will receive lessons in basic Cherokee language and culture. Winners will be determined by the Cherokee Bible Project, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit.

To enter, students may submit an essay and/or a genealogical chart showing their descent from a historically recorded Cherokee person. If a family tree is submitted, students must also make a one sentence declaration statement as to why they are interested in learning the Cherokee language. If entering an essay without a genealogical chart, the student must write a 250 minimum word count essay on the subject of the importance of learning and speaking the Cherokee language. Students who enter both a family tree and an essay will receive preferential treatment.

Entrants must also enlist an adult to recommend them. The adult can be a teacher, minister or religious leader, scout leader, or political leader from the community. The recommendation is to be sent via email by the adult to <cherokee.bible.society@gmail.com> prior to the deadline of the contest.

To apply, students should send a cover letter that gives their contact information and signed permission from their parent or guardian stating they are allowed to take the course should they win.

This letter can be sent via mail, or as a PDF copy of a physical letter that has been signed.

The cover letter should clearly indicate the school they attend and their home address.

The cover letter should include the name of the adult who will be recommending them. It should also contain that adult's email address.

The parent will sign the letter and state they agree to be contacted by the Cherokee Bible Project should their child win the contest.

All decisions by the Cherokee Bible Project staff as to winners are final and cannot be appealed.

Preference will be given to any enrolled Cherokee persons, whether that enrollment is in any state or federally recognized tribe.

Winners will be notified and sent a release document that their parent or guardian will sign permitting the student to attend a zoom, discord or other online session for learning the Cherokee language.

Report from Oregon

We are in Bend, Oregon and experiencing a new, for us, weather event — graupel. Nor rain nor sleet nor snow nor hail, it occurs when supercooled water droplets freeze onto a snow crystal. It falls as a soft pellet, giving it other names such as soft hail and hominy snow.

On our way here from Portland we stopped at Trillium Lake for the view of Mount Hood. For us the surrounding vegetation was also a treat. The forest had a lot of Western Redcedar with graceful drooping branches, Douglas Fir with three-forked bracts prominent on the cones, and true fir draped in old man’s beard lichen. Some of the shrubs were Twinberry Honeysuckle and Greene’s Mountain Ash. Spring wildflowers were in bloom, including Columbian Windflower, Star-flowered Lily-of-the-Valley, Alpine Marsh Violet, Pacific Trillium, Oregon Anemone, and Vanilla-Leaf. Also Deer Fern. Most of these are similar enough to our spring wildflowers to enable a guess as to the genus, at least. There was also a large Western Skunk Cabbage, with leaves much larger than our Eastern Skunk Cabbage. It is in the same family as the Titan Arum of recent fame when it bloomed on the Sewanee campus.

Tofu

Shadow

MARC’s Mountain Adoptables Meet Tofu & Shadow

Tofu is looking for his forever home and family. He is a special black male kitty around 2 years old. He is positive for feline AIDS (FIV (+)) and so needs to be an inside only cat. He can live in a home with FIV (-) cats. Tofu can live a good life for quite a number of years. According to a study done by Purdue University’s College of Veterinary Medicine “FIV-positive cats can live with FIV-negative cats and not infect the FIV-negative cats during normal day-to-day interaction. The disease is transmitted only by deep bite wounds, which happen only if the cats get into intense fights. Proper introductions and consideration of the individual cats’ personalities should go a long way to prevent such fights.” Tofu is full of love and likes to play. Come check out Tofu and see if he is the right guy for you.

Shadow is around five to six years old, weighs around 80 lbs., and is black with a tiny bit of white on a paw or two. He is super sweet and just wants some love. Shadow needs a foster home or a forever home. He was a stray who showed up at a home and unfortunately he does not do well with cats, so he can’t stay there. Shadow has heart worms and is undergoing treatment for them. Heart worms are not contagious to other animals or humans. He will have completed his treatment in two months and ready for full adoption. In the meantime, he is to just hang out and lounge around the house going on short walks or light play in the yard. Shadow is really hoping to find a loving forever home where he can be a best companion.

If you would like to learn more about Tofu and Shadow, please fill out an Adoption Application on the MARC website <www.marc-4change.org> and/or contact Sue Scruggs, cell phone (423) 619-3845.

Sewanee Summer Music Festival

I am in need of music that would flow
Over my fretful, feeling fingertips,
Over my bitter-tainted, trembling lips,
With melody, deep, clear, and liquid-slow.
Oh, for the healing swaying, old and low,
Of some song sung to rest the tired dead,
A song to fall like water on my head,
And over quivering limbs, dream flushed to glow!

There is a magic made by melody:
A spell of rest, and quiet breath, and cool
Heart, that sinks through fading colors deep
To the subaqueous stillness of the sea,
And floats forever in a moon-green pool,
Held in the arms of rhythm and of sleep.
