WiFi Hotspots Available at Grundy County Library

UT Extension has partnered with the May Justus Memorial Library from court order. in Grundy County to offer WiFi hotspots for residents to check out. This program is part of a research initiative to bring internet to rural communities in Tennessee. Two AT&T WiFi Hotspots are available at May Justus Memorial Library. Grundy County residents with a library card can check out a hotspot for personal use at home or their business. When they return the hotspot, they are asked to fill out a short survey so he (Bean) could go speak with to better help understand internet needs in the community.

This program has been a collaboration with Creig Kimbro, County Extension Director and Jennifer Banks, Extension agent with Cannon County as well as Linda Parrish, Chair of Grundy County Library Board and Karen Tittle, Director of May Justus Memorial Library. Dr. Sreedhar Upendram, assistant professor for the University of Tennessee's Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics and Isabella Baxter, Agriculture and Natural Resources Librarian are heading this project and collecting data from residents who check out the hotspots from the library to look at what they are mainly using the internet for, what kind of support they need with the internet, and some demographic information. The purpose of this research is to help bridge the gap in broadband services in Grundy County, and hopefully lead to a more

School Board Discusses Literacy and Virtual Learning

Board met for a regular session on across the district for training, cur-May 10, with two requests to ap-riculum implementation and suppear before the board, and discusstion on a literacy implementation on new $100 million statewide academy, and the budget.

Marcus Allgood requested to address the board concerning the desegregation status of the Franklin County School system. One of the plaintiffs in the 1963 lawsuit, Emma Hill, is Allgood's grandmother.

In 1963, eight Franklin County families joined a lawsuit to compel the Franklin County school system to provide a "unified, nonracial educational system" (see https:// were filed by the school district. Tanya Otero asked the board is "subjective, discriminatory, and punitive." The 6.310 Dress Code -Middle School and High School was issued in 2016 and is to be reviewed annually in April. Otero said the dress code "was difficult for a couple of reasons" including cost and the disruption to the school day when teachers were only "focused on appearance." She asked her written letter to the board be considered as a petition to revise the dress code.

Kim Tucker and Leah Harrell with Elementary Curriculum and Instruction presented information on the Literacy Implementation Network. This program will

The Franklin County School provide the necessary consistency port for the teachers. Monteagle Planning Reconsiders, Recommends Truck Stop Rezoning

by Leslie Lytle Messenger Staff Writer

"The purpose of this meeting is to address a technical defect in the process relating to the rezoning of the RBT property," Chair Iva Michelle Russell announced, opening the May 10 Monteagle Planning Commission special called meeting. (See related story "Monteagle Reconsiders Truck Stop Rezoning on May 4" on

"Our new zoning ordinance has a provision that reads the planning commission and town council have to make certain findings in connection with rezoning. While it is arguable our original actions...addressed those considerations, we did not do so in a literal sense."

The 4.6-acre tract in question is a portion of a parcel slated for inclusion in a 20-acre truck stop RBT Enterprises hopes to construct. For the project to go forward, the tract needs rezoned from R-3 to C-3. The planning commission originally recommended the rezoning at the Feb. 2 meeting. The Town Council held a public hearing and approved the rezoning on first reading March 29 and on second reading April

Citing the ordinance, Russell said a zoning amendment must be in agreement with the general plan for the area; not violate the legal grounds for zoning provisions; have no adverse effects on adjacent property owners unless such adverse effects can be justified by the overwhelming public good; have no material benefit to not been dismissed, and the district go back to the classroom for the one property owner or small group has not been formally declared to next school year, without a vir- of property owners; and warrant have "unitary status" or released tual learning option. Other area change to the general plan because school systems will be offering conditions affecting the area have

Russell noted Monteagle did not have and was not required by law to have a "general plan" so the provisions referring to the "general plan" were "not relevant to our consideration tonight.'

Taking up RBT's request for rezoning the tract to C-3, Russell offered 3 minute speaking times to reconsider the dress code as it Program) funding. Or, some to parties with an interest in the outcome.

HONORING OUR HEALTHCARE HEROES

To the Editor:

What is a hero? Maya Angelou famously said, "I think a hero is any person really intent on making this a better place for all people."

In my role as CEO of Southern Tennessee Regional Health System-Winchester/Sewanee I have the privilege of working with an incredible team of healthcare heroes who work tirelessly, each and every day, to make our hospital and our community a better place.

Every May, hospitals and communities across the country recognize and celebrate these frontline healthcare heroes over the course of several weeks: National Nurses Week, National Hospital Week and National Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Week. Like many other milestones we've experienced during the COVID-19 pandemic, this year's celebrations are especially meaningful.

I'm grateful for the more than 700 team members who serve at Southern Tennessee Regional Health System-Winchester/Sewanee and the many paramedics, EMTs and EMS personnel who play such a critical role in helping our community members get the safe, excellent care they need. They are living examples of what it means to be heroes who are focused on making our community a better place through their service to our you need us. friends and neighbors.

When I think of everyday heroes, I think of our environmental services team members who take pride in ensuring our patients and their families are cared for in a safe and clean environment. I think of our food service and nutrition staff who prepare healthy and comforting meals for our patients while they are away from home. I think of our administrative team members who welcome patients and visitors to our hospital with their kindness and friendly smiles. I think of our EMS partners who remain calm under immense pressure, providing critical care when every minute counts. I think of our dedicated caregivers, technicians, nurses, phyexcellence and compassion in all that they do.

Our local healthcare heroes are truly living out our hospital's mission to make our community healthier. Importantly, their focus and dedication has played a critical role in helping us to make strong progress towards improving CO-TD-19 here in our community. While we must continue to stay are making together.

As we celebrate this year, I hope you will join me in sharing your serve this community and we are here for you and your family when

All Saints' Chapel

All Saints' Chapel will only have an 8 a.m. service on Sunday, May 16. Beginning Sunday, May 23, we will move to a summer schedule with one service of Holy Eucharist at 10 a.m. On May 23, for the Feast of Pentecost, and on the Sundays when summer classes are in session (June 13–July 11) the service will be in the main part of the Chapel and will include music. On the other Sundays, the service will be held in the High Altar area of the Chapel and will not have music.

Christ Church

There is only one Sunday in Ascensiontide. The little 10 day season marks the Ascension of Jesus completing the 40 days of his appearances to his disciples and the time of waiting for the promise of the Comforter. This Sunday, May 16 this year, is called Expectation Sunday because we are expecting Pentecost, with its "tongues of fire" and outpouring of the Holy Spirit, which is celebrated this year on May 23. Christ Church is open and is keeping all of the special days with services.

Midway Church of Christ

The Midway Church of Christ invites the community to "The Book of Job" program. This study program is from 8:30-9 a.m. on WZYX Radio FM 95.3, or AM 1440. There will be a livestream available online at <www.wzyxradio.net>. To call into the program with questions or comments, call (931) 967-7471.

St. Mary's Sewanee

If you attended the "Healing Through Tapping" presentation back in January, you know what a powerful tool Tapping is.

Helen McConnell will be presenting her Tapping tools again on Saturday, May 15, via Zoom, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Central Time. To register or for more information, go Sundays, and will be broadcast on to https://www.stmaryssewanee. org/calendar/>.

This time, the focus will be on "Tapping to Make Way for Miracles." In this 3-hour interactive presentation on Zoom, you will learn and experience the deep benefits of EFT/Tapping for soothing stress, resolving resentments, reducing pain, and to help you create a miracle life.

McConnell has been presenting EFT/Tapping to groups and individuals all over the globe for 10 years. She is a Certified EFT Practitioner.

Monteagle Reconsiders Truck Stop Rezoning on May 4

by Leslie Lytle Messenger Staff Writer

At the May 4 meeting, Monteagle Planning Commission Chair city would reconsider the rezoning of a 4.6-acre tract slated for inclutravel center. The council previously approved rezoning the tract from R-3 to C-3 with a first reading vote March 29 and a second reading vote April 26. The travel center project needs C-3 zoning to move forward. "On advice of counsel, we ments, "is not an expert on this project." will reconsider the rezoning request at a special called meeting May 10 at 6 p.m.," Russell said. No reason was given for the decision to reconsider the rezoning. The planning commission intended to take up the travel center site plan at the May 4 meeting. The commission deferred addressing the site plan to July 6.

In regular business, the commission addressed Frank Maxwell's request to rezone his property from C-2 to R-2 so he could build on to his house. The 4.5-acre property is located between Hallelujah Pottery and the Werner Military Museum.

Explaining the reason for a residence on property zoned C-2, Monteagle Mayor Marilyn Campbell Rodman said, "At one time Mr. Wiggins owned the museum and the house. He sold them independently.'

Town planner Garret Haynes noted the property to the west and east was zoned C-2. "[The rezoning] would create a small sliver of R-2 in C-2," Haynes said. The Maxwell property is only 150 feet wide. Haynes said he had "not heard opposition" to the proposed rezoning, but suggested the commission might want to discuss the rezoning with adjacent landowners.

Haynes cited zoning ordinance 1207C. According to the ordinance, when taking up rezoning, the commission should consider the "effects on adjoining or adjacent property owners" and whether "one property owner or small group of property owners will benefit."

The commission tabled the request to allow for further investigation. "We must make sure we are not doing anything just for one," Russell said.

The council denied a request from Cooley's Rift to divide the property since no one was present to represent the developer.

said, "We bought this as commercial property...There's a truck stop next door." (Note: the former C-3 zoning status of the 4.6-acre tract was determined to be invalid due to inadequate meeting notice when the council approved a new zoning map in 2018. See Messenger Nov.

You can't stop development if it's by rules and by the laws," Kilgore said referencing advice from RBT's engineer.

Rusty Leonard, attorney for RBT, stressed the revenue the city would receive and the jobs created by the project. The proposed development was "not just a truck stop," Leonard said, "but a travel center" with restaurants which would draw visitors to other Monteagle

Billy Best, who resides on property neighboring the proposed Iva Michelle Russell announced the development, countered the tax revenue from the truck stop "would go to Marion County first and they decide what we [Monteagle] get from that portion...There are employees wanted signs all up and down sion in a proposed 20-acre Petro this town...The traffic study says there's not going to be any increased truck traffic at this exit, so why is it going to bring more revenue to this town?'

> A 3-inch-thick binder on display at the meeting contained objections to the project received by the planning commission on May 4, according to Russell.

Leonard argued engineer Jim Waller, cited in the complaint docu-

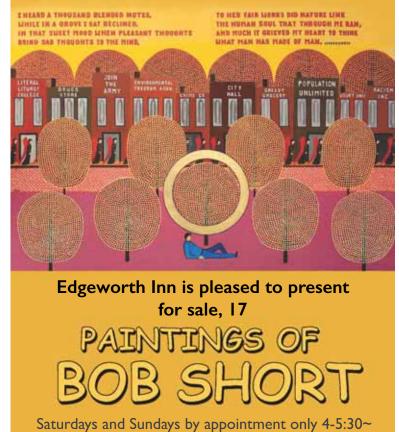

Best insisted Waller was a West Point graduate and structural engineer with more than 50 years' experience.

Asked for his observations on the tract under consideration for rezoning, town planner Garret Haynes said 70 percent of the tract was wetlands. The RBT site plan allocated the remaining 30 percent to parking.

The commissioners present voted unanimously to recommend the council rezone the tract to C-3. Commissioners Peter Beasley and MaryJane Flowers were absent.

Following the meeting, Best commented on the thick file of objections. Attorney Doug Barry compiled the complaint for the Neighbors group opposing the proposed truck stop. Best said the complaint documented storm water runoff and contamination, site preparation occurring without a building permit, and denial of Freedom of Information Act requests. A lawsuit brought by the Neighbors group against RBT Enterprises will be heard in Marion County Court later this month Best said.

The program would cost $68,000, plus a stipend for teachers who agreed to help teach students with this program. There would be an application process to go through to sign up for the virtual option. Enrollment in this program would be limited Tucker said.

The board recessed the meeting for a continuation discussion on the 2021-22 school year budget, scheduled for 6 p.m., Monday, May 24. Bean said the board would have to approve the budget and send it to the Finance Committee meeting, scheduled for Tuesday, June 1. The budget then goes to the Franklin County Commission on Monday, June 21.

The board is scheduled to meet in regular session at 6 p.m., Monday,

SEWANEE VILLAGE UPDATE

by David Shipps

At this point, many of us who live and work in Sewanee have noticed a number of new construction signs and indicators along U.S. Route 41A near the intersection with University Avenue. As Frank Gladu indicated previously, the project of narrowing this portion of the highway has officially begun. The primary objective is to better connect the existing commercial area north of 41A to future expansion on the south side of 41A where most of the available land considered for future development sites is located. Narrowing 41A will also create a more pedestrian-friendly downtown. The project will provide sidewalks and planting areas for trees and landscaping, as well a crossing signal at the University Avenue intersection. This is a positive development for Sewanee broadly, as well as Franklin County that should generate new business interest, activity and employment. TDOT is funding the construction, and the University will eventually help fund street lighting and landscaping. Reaching this tremendous milestone, more than seven years in the making, would not be possible without the leadership of Frank Gladu, as well as guidance and assistance from many across the community.

While subject to change, the following are the key project dates

April 23, 2021: Project begins

May 6, 2021: Initial demolition and grading (clearing vegetation) May 21, 2021: Lanes shift; temporary striping

May 25-July 16, 2021: Water and sewer relocation

Oct. 21-Nov. 22, 2021: Phase I concrete (curb, gutter, sidewalk,

Dec. 6, 2021: Lanes shift; temporary striping

Feb. 23-March 28, 2022: Phase II concrete (curb, gutter, sidewalk, and ramps)

May 9, 2022: Lanes shift to final alignment May 31, 2022: Estimated project completion

This visual above provides an aerial view of the improvement to the intersection of University Avenue and Hwy. 41A (for reference, the building with the red roof is Shenanigans).

Additional updates regarding this particular project, as well as other initiatives that begin to take shape going forward, will be highlighted in future columns in an effort to keep our community updated and informed.

Students get ready for the Run Club race.

Area Elementary School Run Clubs Hold Race on the Mountain Goat Trail

The six Grundy County elementary schools and Monteagle Elementary held a 2-mile race for their run clubs on May 5. The event, which took place on the Mountain Goat Trail at Tracy City Elementary, drew 86 students.

"It was a great turnout. As a sponsor of the run clubs since 2016, the MGTA is excited to see all these young people getting outside and exercising—and using their Mountain Goat Trail to do so," said Patrick Dean, executive director of the Mountain Goat Trail Alliance.

At least one runner from each age group placed in the top 10 overall, as did at least one from each Grundy school (Monteagle placed a runner in the top 20). The 2-mile course drew 70 runners, while 16 younger students participated in a 1-mile fun run.

The overall winners: Fletcher Barnard, Pelham Elementary, eighth grade, 12:55; Jeter Ruehling, North Elementary, fifth grade, 14:17; Jett Hutchenson, North Elementary, fourth grade, 14:22; Knox Woodley, North Elementary, third grade, 15:57; Michael Kirby, North Elementary, eighth grade, 16:19; Eli Seagroves, North Elementary, fifth grade, 16:19; Eli Seagroves, North Elementary, fifth grade, 16:28; Hunter Stiefel, Tracy Elementary, seventh grade, 17:10; Ryan Beers, Coalmont Elementary, sixth grade, 17:45; Savannah Blosser, Palmer Elementary, fourth grade, 17:54; and Ashton Knowlan, Swiss Elementary, eighth grade, 17:57.

St. Andrew's-Sewanee was well represented at the Division IIA East Region Individual in Knoxville on May 6 and 7. Five players qualified to water skills. Breath-holding, the lesson sessions. Any inquiries for the tournament based on their top four finishes in the District 2 Tournament the previous week. In girls' singles, Kira Engelhardt and Tania Gonzalez-Horstmann played their usual consistent and strategic tennis, but their opponents were can float on the face and back, Max Obermiller. too strong. Engelhardt fell to The and can use their arms for lim-King's Academy No. 1 player, ited locomotion. Coordinated and Gonzalez-Horstmann fell to arm stroke on the face and back, Christian Academy of Knoxville's rhythmic breathing, and diving No. 1 player and the eventual East will be taught. $80 per child per Region champion.

In boys' singles, Nathan King a.m.-noon took control over his first opponent from Webb School of Knoxville, winning 6-3, 6-3. In the semi-final on the face and back, and can round, King faced the District 2 swim a short distance with a coorchampion from Silverdale. King battled three sets, but he ultimately fell 6-4 in the third set. King next faced the District 1 champion ing will be taught. $70 per child from Webb School of Knoxville. In another three set contest, King noon–12:30 p.m. frustrated his opponent with tenacious play but came short of the win 6-4, 3-6, 3-6.

"Nathan played his best tennis of his high school career with three consecutive gutsy performances. He fought for every point, placed his shots strategically, maneuvered the court well, and kept his composure. It was a fantastic and memorable way to finish his senior season!" said Coach Kelley Black.

In girls' doubles, District 2 champs Jenna Black and Emma Greer got right to business in their first match with a victory over The King's Academy 6-4, 6-2. In 2:52.22. The boys 4x100 meter meter hurdles; and Tom Karanja their semi-final match, the girls relay consisting of Toby Van de in the 100 meter and 200 meter. faced Webb School of Knoxville; SAS executed well, but the Webb team's aggressive net play proved too much as the girls lost 6-4, 6-1. Next, Black and Greer faced Notre Dame's No. 1 team for the third place spot. They rose to the occasion in this match with strong baseline play to force opportunities at the net, winning 6-3, 7-5 and earning a coveted spot at the Division IIA State Championships.

"Emma and Jenna played focused, smart tennis and showed great teamwork against tenacious opponents. In pressure points, they were able to get the job done. It is so difficult to get to the State Tournament, and we are extremely proud of their hard work, said Coach Black.

Virtual Wildflower Pilgrimage

Once again, the Smokies Wildflower Pilgrimage had to be cancelled this spring, so members and participants of the Pilgrimage and of the Association of Southeastern Biologists are participating this week in a Virtual Spring Pilgrimage using the iNaturalist app. It is not limited to wildflowers, though that is the majority of the observations being posted by the 80 (so far) observers and verified by the 391 identifiers. Currently, Alan Weakley, Director of the University of North Carolina Herbarium, is leading in number of species observed, 382, followed by Joey Shaw, who teaches at UT-Chattanooga and is one of the chief organizers of the event, with 292 species. I am way down the list, with 18 species so far, but the week isn't over yet! The most observed species is Tulip Tree, blooming dramatically now, followed closely by Christmas Fern and Lyreleaf Sage (also is full bloom in lawns and waysides), as well as Solomon's Plume and Poison Ivy. The most far flung is a Western Buttercup in Juneau, Alaska. An observer in Canada reports a Goldenseal and a Cinquefoil. In the animal world the front-runners are Northern Cardinal, Canada Goose, Carolina Wren, Northern Mockingbird, White-tailed Deer, and Western Honeybee. Even mildew and aphids have been reported—any part of the living world is eligible. Postings of birds and insects are limited by the fact that a photo is necessary to record the observation. Plants and fungi are a lot easier to photograph! The iNaturalist app is rewarding to use in that an ID is suggested, with photos to compare with what one has seen. In projects like this one, identifiers scan the posts and also suggest identification in their areas of expertise. I am hoping to learn much from them.

Avenza Hike to Savage Falls ($15)—Meet Park Ranger Kristin Willis at 8:45 a.m. CDT at Savage Gulf Ranger Station, 3157 S.K. 399, Palmer, to learn the basics of how to use Avenza maps, which is how the Rangers get around their parks. This is a 3-mile round trip moderate hike to Savage Falls. Please wear appropriate footwear, and download Avenza Maps on your smartphone before arriving. Once it is downloaded, find the Savage Gulf Natural Area map. Once they are both downloaded, the map will work without service.

Secret Sherwood ($7)—Join Park Ranger Jason Reynolds at 8:45 a.m. CDT at Sherwood Forest Parking lot, (take Jump Off Road in Sewanee to Old CCC Camp Road, turn right, go just past Coyote Cove Lane), to get a sneak peek at what's been completed so far on the expansion of the new trail. This is a moderate 3 to-4-mile out and back hike, which may have difficult sections, and will involve a bit of off-trail hiking, so sturdy footwear and attire are a must. Bring water and snacks if you need them.

Thursday, May 27

Full Moon Night Hike to Great Stone Door ($10) (Please pre-register. This hike is limited to the first 10 people to register)-Meet Park Ranger Spencer Baxter at 7:15 p.m. CDT at Stone Door Ranger Station 1183 Stone Door Rd., Beersheba Springs, for a 2-mile round trip hike to experience the beauty of the night sky and full moon in beautiful Savage Gulf. Please wear sturdy, closed-toed shoes or boots and weather-appropriate clothing, bring your own headlamp and bring along water and snacks.

Weekday Waterfall Hike ($8)—Meet Park Ranger Jessie DeRight at 12:45 p.m. CDT at Grundy Forest Natural Area, 131 Fiery Gizzard Rd., Tracy City, for a 2-mile moderate-to-strenuous hike, (due to the rocky trail and exposed roots), around beautiful Grundy Forest to see some beautiful waterfalls while avoiding weekend area, and the local flora and fauna. plenty of water.

Pocahontas

Pets of the Week Meet Selena & Pocahontas

Five- year-old pittie mix Selena stole everyone's heart when she arrived at the shelter. She came in injured on her front paw, emaciated, and very weak and defeated. Today, Selena is thriving and ready for her furever home. She loves to play with toys, chase tennis balls, give hugs and kisses, and be loved and petted. Selena is people, kid, dog, and cat friendly-talk about a well rounded gal. She is also spayed, heartworm-negative, upto-date on vaccinations, and microchipped. If you would like to submit an application to adopt Selena, please visit <www.animalharbor.org>.

Pocahontas is an 8-month-old female, black domestic shorthair with a characteristic bob tail and show stopping green eyes. Pocahontas is a sweet and sassy older kitten waiting to be spoiled with lots of toys and a comfy lap to lay on. This spunky girl with her big beautiful green eyes is always getting into mischief with her other kitty friends at the shelter. She loves to climb and pounce from her hidey hole in the cat tree. She is spayed, up-to-date on vaccinations, and microchipped. If you would like to submit an application to adopt Pocahontas, please visit <www. animalharbor.org>.

Animal Harbor is located at 56 Nor-Nan Rd., off AEDC Road, in Winchester. Call Animal Harbor at 962-4472 for more information and check out the other pets at <www.animalharbor.org>.

Petco Love Invests in Lifesaving Work of MARC with $19,000 Grant

MARC (Marion Animal Resource Connection) received a $19,000 grant investment from Petco Love, to support their lifesaving work for animals in Marion County, and surrounding areas such as Grundy County, parts of Franklin County and parts of Alabama and Georgia.

Petco Love is a nonprofit leading change for pets nationally by harnessing the power of love to make communities and pet families closer, stronger, and healthier. Since their founding in 1999 as the Petco Foundation, they've empowered organizations with nearly $300 million invested to date in adoption and other lifesaving efforts. And, they've helped find loving homes for more than 6.5 million pets in partnership with Petco and more than 4,000 organizations, like ours, nationwide.

"Today Petco Love announces an investment in MARC and hundreds of other organizations as part of our commitment to create a future in which no pet is unnecessarily euthanized," said Susanne Kogut, President of Petco Love. "Our local investments are only one component. This month, we will also launch the first of our national tools to empower all animal lovers to drive lifesaving change right alongside us.'

"Petco Love's support means that we/MARC can tackle the pet over crowds. Learn the history of the population that never seems to end. This is a huge issue in these rural areas that don't have animal control and no spay/neuter laws. We will Wear sturdy shoes (no flip flops or be able to spay and neuter lots of dogs and cats and find homes for those slide-in sandals, please), and bring who need them. It also means that we can start bringing our humane education program more on-line where more people can access it," said The South Cumberland State Sue Scruggs, Executive Director of MARC. "With Petco Love's support Park Visitors' Center is located we can prevent more than 380 litters of puppies and kittens being born on Highway 41 South between in one year. This money will save the lives of so many animals," said

> MARC is a nonprofit animal welfare organization whose mission is to improve the lives of animals through Spay/Neuter, Humane Education, and Rescue/Rehoming. MARC serves Marion County and surrounding areas. Since 2011, MARC has helped more than 9,971 animals.
